EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Act of Sederunt)

General regulation 12 in the Schedule to the Act of Sederunt that makes provision about the fees of solicitors in the sheriff court (S.I. 1993/3080), provides that the fees of counsel or a solicitor advocate are allowable only where the court has granted sanction for the employment of counsel. This Act of Sederunt contains rules relating to the procedure for obtaining such sanction.

In particular, it provides that the sheriff or, as the case may be, the sheriff principal, may sanction the employment of counsel to appear at any hearing in proceedings before them, or to prepare any document to be lodged in relation to those proceedings. It also provides that such sanction may be provided at the time of, or at any time prior to, the disposal of the proceedings.
