
SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2011 No. 456

The Crofting Commission (Elections)
(Scotland) Regulations 2011

PART II

ELECTIONS

Validity of the nomination

14.—(1) As soon as practicable after a nomination paper has been returned, the returning officer must examine it and decide whether the candidate has been validly nominated.

(2) Where the returning officer decides that a nomination paper is invalid, he or she must endorse and sign on the paper the fact and the reasons for his or her decision.

(3) The returning officer must send notice of a decision that a nomination paper is valid or invalid to the candidate at his or her home address as given in the completed nomination paper.