The Trade in Animals and Related Products (Scotland) Regulations 2012

PART 5

Administration

Notifications and authorisations

- 26. Any notification or authorisation under these Regulations—
- (a) must be in writing;
 - (b) may be subject to conditions; and
 - (c) may be amended, suspended or revoked by further notification or authorisation in writing at any time.

Enforcement

- 27.—(1) At a [^{F1}border control post] these Regulations are enforced—
- (a) in relation to animals by the Scottish Ministers; and
 - (b) in relation to products by the local authority.
- (2) Outside a [^{F1}border control post], these Regulations are enforced—
- [^{F2}(za) in relation to aquatic animals and aquaculture animal products by the Scottish Ministers;]
- (a) in relation to animals [^{F3}, other than those mentioned in sub-paragraph (za),] by the local authority;
 - (b) in relation to products [^{F4}, other than those mentioned in sub-paragraph (za),]—
 - (i) except where head (ii) applies, by the local authority; or
 - (ii) by the [^{F5}Food Standards Scotland] at any cutting plant, game-handling establishment or slaughterhouse, or premises at which the Agency enforces the Food Hygiene (Scotland) Regulations 2006 ^{M1}.
- (3) In addition, in relation to products, these Regulations are enforced by a general customs official in any place (other than the inspection facilities in a [^{F1}border control post]) where goods are subject to customs supervision by that official under [^{F6}the Taxation (Cross-border Trade) Act 2018.]
- (4) The Scottish Ministers may direct, in relation to cases of a particular description or a particular case, that the Scottish Ministers will discharge any duty imposed on a local authority under this regulation.
- (5) The Scottish Ministers may recover from the local authority concerned any expenses reasonably incurred by them under paragraph (4).

[^{F9}Powers of entry

28.—(1) An authorised officer of the Scottish Ministers or an enforcement agency may enter any premises during normal working hours without prior notice at a reasonable hour (except any premises used wholly or mainly as a private dwelling) if the officer believes that it is necessary to enter for the purpose of enforcing these Regulations.

(2) An authorised officer must, if requested to do so, produce a duly authenticated authorisation document.

(3) A justice of the peace, sheriff or summary sheriff may sign a warrant to permit an enforcement officer to enter any premises, including dwelling-houses, if necessary by reasonable force, if the justice, sheriff or summary sheriff on sworn information in writing is satisfied—

- (a) that there are reasonable grounds to enter those premises for the purpose of enforcing these Regulations; and
- (b) that one or more of the conditions in paragraph (4) are met.

- (4) The conditions are—
- (a) that entry to the premises has been, or is likely to be, refused, and notice of the intention to apply for a warrant has been given to the occupier;
 - (b) that asking for admission to the premises, or giving such a notice, would defeat the object of the entry;
 - (c) that entry is required urgently;
 - (d) that the premises are unoccupied or the occupier is temporarily absent.
- (5) A warrant is valid for 30 days from the date of signature.
- (6) An authorised officer entering any premises which are unoccupied or from which the occupier is temporarily absent must leave them as effectively secured against unauthorised entry as they were before entry.
- (7) An authorised officer may—
- (a) be accompanied by such other persons (up to a maximum of three) as the officer considers necessary;
 - (b) bring onto the premises such equipment as the officer considers necessary.]

[^{F13}Importation of animals and products constituting a risk to animal or public health

30.—(1) If imported animals or products are suspected by the Scottish Ministers of constituting a serious risk to human or animal health or animal welfare, or, in the case of suspected non-compliance, the animals or products come from a region contaminated by an epizootic disease, an authorised officer of the Scottish Ministers may require—

- (a) an investigation in order to confirm or eliminate that suspicion;
- (b) an investigation into the extent of any suspected non-compliance and to establish the import operator's responsibilities;
- (c) intensified official controls on consignments of animals or products from a particular region until such imports are no longer regarded by the officer of constituting such health risk;
- (d) the official detention of animals or products;
- (e) appropriate measures to ensure that the person responsible for the animals or products remedies the non-compliance and prevents further occurrences of such non-compliance.

(2) In a case within paragraph 1(a), the importer must assist the officer in establishing the region of origin.

(3) Where the Scottish Ministers are satisfied that imported animals or products constitute a risk to animal or public health, an authorised officer of the Scottish Ministers may, following written notice, take any reasonable action to ensure compliance with any rules laid down in accordance with Article 1(2) of the [^{F14}Official Controls Regulation], including—

- (a) taking samples for testing and order or performed veterinary treatments on animals;
- (b) ordering the unloading of animals and their transfer via another means of transport to a specified holding for a specified quarantine period (whether or not involving the postponement of the slaughter of animals);
- (c) the slaughter or killing of animals provided that this is the most appropriate measure to safeguard human health as well as animal health and welfare;
- (d) restricting or prohibiting the placing on the market, the movement or the export of the animal or product, or requiring its return to the country of dispatch;
- (e) ordering the importer to increase the frequency and thoroughness of systematic checks and controls before importing further animals or products from the region;
- (f) ordering the isolation or closure, for an appropriate period of time, of all or part of a business operation (including any related internet and on-line sales of products that may constitute a risk to animal or human health) affected by the importation of an animal or product that constitutes a risk to animal or human health;
- (g) the recall, withdrawal, removal or destruction of products;
- (h) the treatment of products for human consumption;

- (i) the alteration of labels or corrective information to be provided to consumers;
 - (j) the temporary suspension or withdrawal of the registration or approval of an affected establishment, plant, holding or means of transport concerned or of an authorisation of a transporter;
 - (k) the use of products for purposes other than those for which they were originally intended.
- (4) An authorised officer of the Scottish Ministers must provide an affected business operator, or its representative, with—
- (a) written notification of the decision concerning the action or measure to be taken in accordance with this regulation, together with the reasons for that decision; and
 - (b) information on any right of review against such decision in accordance with regulation 30A.
- (5) All expenditure incurred as a result of actions taken by or on behalf of the Scottish Ministers under this regulation is to be borne by the responsible operators.
- (6) In the case of the issue of false or misleading official certificates in Scotland, or where there is evidence of abuse of official certificates, an authorised officer of the Scottish Ministers may take appropriate measures, including—
- (a) the temporary suspension of the certifying officer from certifying any certificates related to any relevant trade;
 - (b) the withdrawal of the authorisation of a person to sign official certificates; and
 - (c) any other measure believe by the officer to be necessary to prevent a reoccurrence of any non-compliance or abuse.]

Protection of officials acting in good faith

34.—(1) No authorised officer is personally liable in respect of any act done by that person in the performance or purported performance of the functions within the scope of that person's employment, if the person did that act in the honest and reasonable belief that that person's duty under these Regulations required or entitled the person to do so.

(2) Paragraph (1) does not relieve an enforcement authority from any liability in respect of acts of its officers.

Offences by bodies corporate

35.—(1) Where—

- (a) an offence under these Regulations has been committed by a body corporate or a Scottish partnership or other unincorporated association; and
- (b) it is proved that the offence was committed with the consent or connivance of, or was attributable to any neglect on the part of—
 - (i) the relevant individual; or
 - (ii) an individual purporting to act in the capacity of a relevant individual,

the individual as well as the body corporate, Scottish partnership or unincorporated association commits an offence and is liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(2) In paragraph (1), “relevant individual” means—

- (a) in relation to a body corporate—
 - (i) a director, manager, secretary or other similar officer of the body;
 - (ii) where the affairs of the body are managed by its members, a member;
- (b) in relation to a Scottish partnership, a partner; and
- (c) in relation to an unincorporated association other than a Scottish partnership, a person who is concerned in the management or control of the association.
