2013 No. 153

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

The Justice of the Peace Courts
(Scotland) Amendment Order 2013

Made	- - - -	16th May 2013
Laid before the Scottish Parliament	- - - -	20th May 2013
Coming into force	- -	29th June 2013

The Scottish Ministers make the following Order in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 59(6) and 81(2) of the Criminal Proceedings etc. (Reform) (Scotland) Act 2007(1) and all other powers enabling them to do so.

In accordance with section 59(4)(2) of that Act, the Lord President of the Court of Session has determined that a JP court is not necessary in the sheriff court districts of Portree, Stornoway and Wick.

In accordance with section 59(7)(3) of that Act, the Lord President of the Court of Session and the Scottish Court Service have given consent to the making of this Order.

In accordance with section 59(7A)(a) of that Act, the Lord President of the Court of Session consulted the relevant Sheriffs Principal before giving his consent.

In accordance with section 59(7A)(b) of that Act the Scottish Court Service consulted such persons as it considered appropriate before giving its consent.

Citation and commencement

1. This Order may be cited as the Justice of the Peace Courts (Scotland) Amendment Order 2013 and comes into force on 29th June 2013.

Disestablishment of JP courts

2. The JP courts in the locations listed in column 1 of the Schedule to this Order, which are established by reference to the sheriff court districts specified in column 2 of that Schedule, are disestablished on the dates specified in column 3 of that Schedule.

Transitional provisions

24.—(1) Anything which prior to the appointed date would be dealt with by reference to the closing court may—

- (a) in respect of any period on or after the appointed date; and
- (b) in the interests of ensuring continuity on or after the appointed date, be dealt with prior to the appointed date, by reference to the receiving court.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality and conditions of paragraph (1), any function may be exercised in terms of that paragraph by reference to the receiving court, or as the case may be, the sheriff court district in which the receiving court is, or is to be located, despite the fact that the closing court has not yet been closed, or as the case may be, the sheriff court district in which the closing court is located has not yet been abolished<sup>(9)</sup>.

(3) For the purposes of this article and without prejudice to the generality of paragraphs (1) and (2) “function” includes—

- (a) the fixing, adjournment, postponement, discharge, continuation, or deferral of any sentence, diet, calling, sitting, hearing or other court process and the extending of any period;
- (b) the citation of any witness or accused person;
- (c) ordering the production of documents;
- (d) the administration and management of any case, proceedings or matter.

(4) The operation of this article does not—

- (a) affect the competence of any person to continue to exercise any function by reference to the closing court or the sheriff court district in which the closing court is located until the appointed date;
- (b) prevent, where it would be otherwise competent to do so, the overturning or variation of any action taken under this article prior to the appointed date;
- (c) permit anything to be done in the receiving court which would not have been permitted in the closing court had the closing court continued to operate on or after the appointed date;
- (d) affect any power any person has apart from this article, to provide for the receiving court to deal with any matter prior to the appointed date;
- (e) limit the operation of article 25.

25.—(1) With effect from the appointed date—

- (a) anything done in the closing court under article 24 has effect as if done in or in relation to the receiving court;
- (b) any cases, proceedings or matters instituted in the closing court, but which have not yet been completed, are to continue in the receiving court as if instituted there;
- (c) ongoing cases, proceedings or matters at the closing court are to be heard and disposed of at the receiving court as if the receiving court always had jurisdiction for such cases, proceedings or matters;
- (d) any—

(i) verdict, sentence (deferred or otherwise), order or other determination (interim or otherwise);

(ii) document, (including any complaint, citation, warrant or notice);

which makes reference (in whatever terms) to the closing court, the judge of the closing court, the clerk of the closing court or the sheriff court district where the closing court is situated has effect as though that reference is a reference to the receiving court, the judge of the receiving court, the clerk of the receiving court or where different, the sheriff court district where the receiving court is situated (whichever is applicable);

(e) any sentence, order, fine, penalty, conditional offer, compensation offer or other alternative to prosecution that was enforceable in the sheriff court district where the closing court is situated is to continue to be enforceable in the sheriff court district where the receiving court is situated;

(f) all documents held by the closing court are to be treated as held by the receiving court.

(2) The operation of this article does not affect the power or jurisdiction of the receiving court, apart from this article, to deal with any matter prior to, or with effect from, the appointed date.

(3) Despite the operation of this article, any document which makes reference to the closing court, may be treated as referring to the closing court, where—

(a) it is in the interests of justice; or

(b) the context otherwise requires.
