- (b) the postal address of the land to which the development relates or, if the land in question has no postal address, a description of the location of the land; and
  - (c) the name and address of the applicant and, where an agent is acting on behalf of the applicant, the name and address of that agent.
- (3) The application must be accompanied—
- (a) by a plan—
    - (i) sufficient to identify the land to which it relates; and
    - (ii) showing the situation of the land in relation to the locality and in particular in relation to neighbouring land;
  - (b) where any neighbouring land is owned by the applicant, by a plan identifying that land;
  - (c) by one or other of the certificates required under regulation 15;
  - (d) where access to the site is to be taken directly from a road, by a description of the location of the access points to the proposed development;
  - (e) where the application relates to development belonging to the categories of national developments or major developments, by a pre-application consultation report;
  - (f) where the application relates to Crown land by a statement that the application is made in respect of Crown land; and
  - (g) by any fee payable under the Fees Regulations.

Further applications

11.—(1) Where—

- (a) planning permission has been granted for development;
- (b) that development has not been commenced; and
- (c) a time limit imposed by or under section 58 (duration of planning permission) or section 59 (planning permission in principle) of the Act has not expired, an application (other than an application made under section 42 of the Act (application to develop land without compliance with previous conditions)) is made for planning permission for the same development, the application may be made without complying with the provisions of regulation 9 or regulation 10 other than regulation 9(2)(c) and (3)(c), (d), (e), (h), and (i) or regulation 10(2)(c) and (3)(b), (c), (e), (f) and (g).

(2) Where an application for planning permission is made under section 42 of the Act, the application may be made without complying with the provisions of regulation 9 or regulation 10 other than regulation 9(2)(c) and (3)(c), (d), (h), and (i) or regulation 10(2)(c) and (3)(b), (c), (f) and (g).

(3) An application mentioned in paragraph (1) or (2) is to be in writing and is to give sufficient information to enable the planning authority to identify the previous grant of planning permission and where it is made under section 42 of the Act is to contain a statement to that effect.

Application for approval of matters specified in conditions

12.—(1) An application to a planning authority for approval, consent or agreement required by a condition imposed on a grant of planning permission in principle must be made in accordance with this regulation.

- (2) An application for such approval, consent or agreement is to be in writing and must—
- (a) identify the planning permission to which it relates;

- (b) contain a description of the matter in respect of which the application is made;
- (c) state the name and address of the applicant and, where an agent is acting on behalf of the applicant, the name and address of that agent;
- (d) be accompanied—
  - (i) where the application relates to the alteration or construction of buildings, other structures or roads or to landscaping, by plans and drawings describing the matter in respect of which the application is made;
  - (ii) where any neighbouring land is owned by the applicant, by a plan identifying that land; and
  - (iii) by any fee payable under the Fees Regulations.

(3) In this regulation “landscaping” means the treatment of land (other than buildings) for the purpose of enhancing or protecting the amenities of the site and the area in which it is situated and includes screening by fences, walls or other means, the planting of trees, hedges, shrubs or grass, the formation of banks, terraces or other earthworks, the laying out or provision of gardens, courts or squares, water features, sculpture, or public art and the provision of other amenity features.

- (b) a conservation area;
- (c) a historic garden or designed landscape;
- (d) a National Scenic Area;
- (e) the site of a scheduled monument; or
- (f) the curtilage of a category A listed building, must be accompanied by a design statement other than where the development in question comprises the alteration or extension of an existing building.

(3) This regulation does not apply to—

- (a) an application for planning permission made under section 42 of the Act;
- (b) an application for planning permission for—
  - (i) engineering or mining operations;
  - (ii) householder development; or
  - (iii) a material change in the use of land or buildings; or
- (c) an application for planning permission in principle.

(4) A design statement is a written statement about the design principles and concepts that have been applied to the development and which—

- (a) explains the policy or approach adopted as to design and how any policies relating to design in the development plan have been taken into account;

- (b) describes the steps taken to appraise the context of the development and demonstrates how the design of the development takes that context into account in relation to its proposed use; and
  - (c) states what, if any, consultation has been undertaken on issues relating to the design principles and concepts that have been applied to the development and what account has been taken of the outcome of any such consultation.
- (5) A design and access statement is a document containing both a design statement and written statement about how issues relating to access to the development for disabled people have been dealt with and which—
- (a) explains the policy or approach adopted as to such access and, in particular, how—
    - (i) policies relating to such access in the development plan have been taken into account; and
    - (ii) any specific issues which might affect access to the development for disabled people have been addressed;
  - (b) describes how features which ensure access to the development for disabled people will be maintained; and
  - (c) states what, if any, consultation has been undertaken on issues relating to access to the development for disabled people and what account has been taken of the outcome of any such consultation.
- (6) In this regulation “conservation area” means an area for the time being designated under section 61 of the Listed Buildings Act(14) (designation of conservation areas).

Validation date

14.—(1) An application made under any of regulations 9 to 12 is to be taken to have been made on the date on which the last of the items or information required to be contained in or accompany the application in accordance with regulations 9, 10, 11 or 12 respectively is received by the planning authority.

(2) Where the planning authority has received an application for their determination that their approval is required as a condition of permission granted by a development order and the planning authority has determined that their approval is required, the date when the application is to be taken to have been made is the date when any details required under the development order and the appropriate fee were lodged with the planning authority or, where these events do not all occur on the same day, the date when the last of such events occurs.

(3) The date on which an application for any other approval, consent or agreement required by a condition imposed on a grant of planning permission is to be taken to have been made is the date on which it is received by the planning authority.

Notices to owners and agricultural tenants under section 35 of the Act

15.—(1) The applicant is to give notice in the form set out in Schedule 1 to any person (other than the applicant) who at the beginning of the prescribed period is the owner of any land to which the application relates or an agricultural tenant.

- (2) The applicant must issue a certificate—
  - (a) stating whether or not the land or part of the land to which the application relates constitutes or forms part of agricultural land; and
  - (b) stating, as appropriate—

(14) 1997 c.9.

- (i) that at the beginning of the prescribed period no person (other than the applicant) was the owner of any of the land to which the application relates or an agricultural tenant;
  - (ii) that the applicant has given notice to every person (other than the applicant) who at the beginning of the prescribed period was the owner of any land to which the application relates or an agricultural tenant; or
  - (iii) that the applicant is unable to give notice to every such person.
- (3) A certificate issued—
- (a) under paragraph 2(b)(ii) or (iii) must set out the name of every person to whom notice was given and the address at and date on which such notice was given;
  - (b) under paragraph 2(b)(iii) must certify that the applicant has taken reasonable steps (specifying them) to ascertain the names and addresses of those persons to whom the applicant has been unable to give notice.
- (4) In the case of a minerals application this regulation applies with the modifications that in paragraphs (1) and (2)(b) for “the owner” substitute “, to the applicant’s knowledge, the owner”.
- (5) The applications prescribed for the purposes of paragraph (b) of the definition of “owner” in section 35(7) of the Act are minerals applications, and the minerals prescribed for the purposes of that paragraph are any minerals other than oil, gas, coal, gold or silver.
- (6) In this regulation—

(8) Where an application for planning permission relates in part to marine fish farm development and in part to other development, the modifications specified in this regulation apply only for the purposes of that application to the extent that it relates to marine fish farm development.

Cairngorms National Park

37.—(1) For the purposes of regulation 26(2) the validation date in a case where the Cairngorms National Park Authority has issued a direction in exercise of its powers under article 7(3) of the Cairngorms National Park Designation, Transitional and Consequential Provisions (Scotland) Order 2003<sup>(17)</sup> is to be taken as the date on which that direction was issued.

(2) Where an application is made under any of regulations 9 to 12 in respect of development situated in the area of that Authority, the planning authority must within the period of five days beginning with the validation date, give notice of the application to that Authority.

(3) Where it appears to the planning authority that development is likely to affect land in the area of that Authority the planning authority must before determining an application for planning permission consult with that Authority.

Applications – national security

38. The validity of an application made under any of regulations 9 to 12 is not affected by failure to disclose information as to—

(a) national security; and

(b) the measures taken or to be taken to ensure the security of any premises or property,

where the application is accompanied by a written statement from the applicant that, in the opinion of the applicant, the information relates to the matters mentioned in (a) or (b) above, and that public disclosure of that information would be contrary to the national interest.

Development which does not accord with the development plan

39. A planning authority may grant planning permission for development which does not accord with the provisions of the development plan provided that if any notice is required to be published in accordance with regulation 20 that notice has been so published.

PART 7

Notification and display

Notification of initiation of development

40. The notice to be given in accordance with section 27A(1) of the Act<sup>(18)</sup> (notification of initiation of development) by a person intending to carry out development must—

<sup>(18)</sup> Section 27A was inserted by section 6(1) of the Planning etc. (Scotland) Act 2006 (asp 17).

- (a) include the full name and address of the person intending to carry out the development;
- (b) state if that person is the owner of the land to which the development relates and if that person is not the owner provide the full name and address of the owner;
- (c) where a person is, or is to be, appointed to oversee the carrying out of the development on site, include the name of that person and details of how that person may be contacted; and
- (d) include the date of issue and reference number of the notice of the decision to grant planning permission for such development.

Display notices

41.—(1) The prescribed classes of development for the purposes of section 27C(1)(19) of the Act (display of notice while development is carried out) are—

- (a) development belonging to the categories of national developments and major developments; and
  - (b) development of a class specified in Schedule 3.
- (2) A notice displayed in accordance with section 27C(1) of the Act—
- (a) is to be in the form set out in the Schedule 7 and completed in accordance with the notes to that Schedule; and
  - (b) must be—
    - (i) displayed in a prominent place at or in the vicinity of the site of the development;
    - (ii) readily visible to the public; and
    - (iii) printed on durable material.

PART 8

Certificates of lawful use or development

Application for certificate of lawful use or development

42. An application for a certificate under section 150(1) or 151(1) of the Act must be in writing and must, in addition to specifying the land and describing the use, operations or other matter in question in accordance with those sections, include the following information—

- (a) the paragraph of section 150(1) or, as the case may be, section 151(1) of the Act, under which the application is made;
- (b) in the case of an application under section 150(1) of the Act, the date on which the use, operations or other matter began or, in the case of operations carried out without planning permission, the date on which the operations were substantially completed;
- (c) in the case of an application under section 150(1)(a) of the Act, the name of any use class specified in an order under section 26(2)(f) of the Act which the applicant considers applicable to the existing use;
- (d) in the case of an application under section 150(1)(c) of the Act, sufficient details of the relevant planning permission to enable it to be identified;
- (e) in the case of an application under section 151(1)(a) of the Act, the use of the land at the date of the application (or, when the land is not in use at that date, the purpose for which

- it was last used) and the name of any use class specified in an order under section 26(2) (f) of the Act which the applicant considers applicable to the proposed use;
- (f) the applicant's reasons, if any, for regarding the use, operations or other matter described in the application as lawful; and
- (g) such other information as the applicant considers to be relevant to the application.

Documentation accompanying applications

- 43.—(1) An application to which regulation 42 applies must be accompanied by—
- (a) a plan identifying the land to which the application relates;
  - (b) such evidence verifying the information included in the application as the applicant can provide; and
  - (c) a statement setting out the applicant's interest in the land, the name and address of any other person known to the applicant to have an interest in the land and whether any such other person has been notified of the application.
- (2) Where such an application specifies two or more uses, operations or other matters, the plan which accompanies the application is to indicate to which part of the land each such use, operation or matter relates.

Procedure on receipt of application

- 44.—(1) When a planning authority receive an application to which regulation 42 applies and any fee required to be paid in respect of the application, they must, as soon as reasonably practicable, send to the applicant an acknowledgement of the application.
- (2) Where, after sending an acknowledgement as required by paragraph (1), the planning authority consider that the application is invalid by reason of the failure to comply with regulations 42 and 43 or any other statutory requirement, they must, as soon as practicable, notify the applicant that the application is invalid.
- (3) The planning authority may by notice in writing require the applicant to provide such further information as may be specified to enable them to deal with the application.
- (4) The planning authority must give the applicant written notice of their decision within a period of 2 months beginning with the date of receipt by the authority of—
- (a) the application; or
  - (b) if later, any fee required to be paid in respect of the application.
- (5) Where an application is refused in whole or in part (including a case in which the authority modify the description of the use, operations or other matter in the application or substitute an alternative description for that description), the notice of decision must be in writing and must—
- (a) state the authority's reasons for their decision; and
  - (b) include a statement to the effect that the applicant may appeal to the Scottish Ministers under section 154 of the Act (appeals).
- (6) A certificate under section 150 or 151 of the Act is to be in the form set out in Schedule 8.
- (7) Regulation 31 applies to applications for a certificate to which regulation 42 applies as it applies to applications for planning permission.

Applications for certificate of lawful use or development - national security

- 45. The validity of an application for a certificate of lawful use or development is not affected by failure to disclose information as to—

- (a) national security; and
- (b) the measures taken or to be taken to ensure the security of any premises or property,

where the application is accompanied by a written statement from the applicant that, in the opinion of the applicant, the information relates to the matters mentioned in (a) or (b) above, and that public disclosure of that information would be contrary to the national interest.

Revocations of certificate of lawful use or development

46.—(1) Where a planning authority propose to revoke a certificate issued under section 150 or 151 of the Act in accordance with section 152(7) of the Act (certificates under sections 150 and 151: supplementary provisions), they must, before they revoke the certificate, give notice of that proposal to—

- (a) the owner of the land affected;
- (b) the occupier of the land affected;
- (c) any other person who will in their opinion be affected by the revocation; and
- (d) in the case of a certificate issued by the Scottish Ministers under section 154 of the Act, the Scottish Ministers.

(2) A notice issued under paragraph (1) is to invite the person on whom the notice is served to make representations on the proposal to the authority within 14 days of service of the notice and the authority must not revoke the certificate until all such periods allowed for making representations have expired.

(3) An authority must give written notice of any revocation under section 152(7) of the Act to every person on whom notice of the proposed revocation was served under paragraph (1).

PART 9

General

Electronic communications

47.—(1) Where the criteria in paragraph (2) are met, any document required or authorised to be sent by these Regulations may be sent by electronic communications and any requirement in these Regulations that any document is to be in writing is fulfilled.

(2) The criteria are—

- (a) the recipient consents, or is deemed to have agreed under paragraph (3), to receive it electronically; and
- (b) that document transmitted by the electronic communication is—
  - (i) capable of being accessed by the recipient;
  - (ii) legible in all material respects; and
  - (iii) sufficiently permanent to be used for subsequent reference.

(3) Any person sending a document using electronic communications is to be taken to have agreed—

- (a) to the use of such communications for all purposes relating to the application which are capable of being carried out electronically; and
- (b) that the address for the purpose of such communications is the address incorporated into, or otherwise logically associated with, that communication.

(4) Deemed agreement under paragraph (3) subsists until that person gives notice to revoke the agreement.

(5) Notice of withdrawal of consent to the use of electronic communications or of revocation of agreement under paragraph (4) takes effect on a date specified by the person in the notice, but not less than seven days after the date on which the notice is given.

(6) In this regulation—

“address” includes any number or address used for the purpose of such communications or storage;

“document” includes any notice, consent, decision, representation, statement, list, report, form, plan, certificate or other information or communication; and

“electronic communication” has the meaning given in section 15(1) of the Electronic Communications Act 2000(20) (general interpretation);

“legible in all material respects” means that the information contained in the document is available to the recipient to no lesser extent than it would be if sent or given by means of a document in printed form; and “sent” includes served, submitted or given and cognate expressions are to be construed accordingly.

Service of notices

48. Section 271 of the Act (services of notices) applies to notices or other documents required or authorised to be served or given under these Regulations on the owners or occupiers of land as it applies to notices or other documents required or authorised to be served or given under the Act.

PART 10

Transitional provisions, revocations and savings

Transitional provisions

49.—(1) The provisions specified in paragraph (2) apply with the modifications specified in paragraph (3) to—

- (a) applications for planning permission;
- (b) applications for approval, consent or agreement required by a condition imposed on a grant of planning permission; and
- (c) applications for approval of reserved matters in connection with the grant of outline planning permission, made before 3rd August 2009 but in respect of which no notice of the decision of the planning authority was given to the applicant before 3rd August 2009.

(2) The provisions are—

- (a) regulation 16;
- (b) regulations 26 to 28; and
- (c) Schedule 2.

(3) In regulation 26—

(20) 2000 c.7. Section 15 was amended by paragraph 158 of Schedule 17 to the Communications Act 2003 (c.21).

(a) in paragraph (2)(a) and (b) for “validation date” substitute “the date of receipt of the application”; and

(b) omit paragraph (4).

(4) The following provisions of these Regulations apply only in relation to applications for planning permission made on or after the date on which these Regulations come into force—

(a) regulation 9(3)(c) and (h);

(b) regulation 10(3)(b) and (f);

(c) regulation 20(3); and

(d) paragraph 9(a) of Schedule 5.

(5) Regulation 11 applies only to applications for planning permission made on or after 2nd February 2013 and regulation 11 of the 2008 Regulations has effect as it did immediately before that date in relation to an application for planning permission made before that date.

(6) References in regulations 26 and 28 and in Schedule 2 to applications made under regulations 9 to 12 of these Regulations are in the case of an application mentioned in paragraph (1) to be treated for the purposes of the application of those provisions as references to an application made under articles 3, 4, 5 or 6, as the case may be, of the 1992 Order.

(7) For the purposes of the interpretation of these Regulations in relation to their application to an application made under any of regulations 9 to 12 of the 2008 Regulations before 30th June 2013 “neighbouring land” is to have the meaning given in the 2008 Regulations as they had effect immediately before that date.

(8) For the purposes of the interpretation of regulation 13(3)(b)(ii) in relation to an application for planning permission made before 30th June 2013 “householder development” it to be taken to mean development which consists of—

(a) the development of an existing dwellinghouse; or

(b) development within the curtilage of such a dwellinghouse for any purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse as such.

(9) Paragraph 5(5) of Schedule 5 applies only in relation to applications for planning permission made on or after 1st August 2012 and for the purposes of the interpretation of that paragraph in relation to an application for planning permission made on or after that date but before 30th June 2013 “householder development” it to be taken to mean development which consists of—

(a) the alteration or extension of an existing building; or

(b) development within the curtilage of a dwellinghouse for a purpose incidental to the enjoyment of the dwellinghouse.

(10) In this Part—

“the 1992 Order” means Town and Country Planning (General Development Procedure) (Scotland) Order 1992(21);

“the 2008 Regulations” mean the Town and Country Planning (Development Management Procedure) (Scotland) Regulations 2008(22); and “reserved matters” and “outline planning permission” have the same meaning as in section 59 of the Act as it applied immediately before section 21 of the Planning etc. (Scotland) Act 2006 (planning permission in principle) came into force.

(21) S.I. 1992/224 as amended by S.I. 1992/2083, S.I. 1994/2585, S.I. 1994/3293, S.I. 1996/467, S.I. 1997/749, S.S.I. 2000/179, S.S.I. 2001/245, S.S.I. 2003/1, S.I. 2003/2155, S.S.I. 2004/332, S.S.I. 2007/177 and S.S.I. 2007/268.

(22) S.S.I. 2008/432 as amended by S.S.I. 2009/220, 2010/60, 2010/460, 2011/138, 2011/139, 2011/377, 2012/165 and 2012/325.

Applications for approval of reserved matters made on or after 3rd August 2009

50. An application for approval of reserved matters made on or after 3rd August 2009 in respect of the grant of outline planning permission before that date is to be treated for the purposes of these Regulations as an application for approval required by a condition imposed on the grant of planning permission in principle.

Revocations and savings

51.—(1) Subject to paragraphs (2) to (4) and regulation 49, the provisions specified in column 1 of the Table in Schedule 9 are revoked to the extent specified in Column 3 of that Table.

(2) The provisions of regulation 47(2) to (4A) of the 2008 Regulations shall continue to have effect as they did immediately before 30th June 2013 in respect of any application for planning permission, for approval of reserved matters, for an approval under a development order, or for a certificate of lawful use or development made before 3rd August 2009.

(3) Parts 1 and 2 and Schedules 2 and 4 to the 1992 Order shall continue to apply as they did immediately before 3rd August 2009 for the purposes of paragraph 7(5) of Schedule 9 and paragraph 6(3) of Schedule 10 to the Act.

(4) Any directions in force immediately before the coming into force of these Regulations by virtue of the Town and Country Planning (General Development) (Scotland) Orders 1950 to 1970(23), the Town and Country Planning (General Development) (Scotland) Order 1975(24), the Town and Country Planning (General Development) (Scotland) Order 1981(25), the 1992 Order(26) and the 2008 Regulations continue in force and have effect as if given under the corresponding provisions of these Regulations.
