EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Act of Sederunt)

This Act of Sederunt amends Chapter 74 of the Rules of the Court of Session 1994 and the Act of Sederunt (Sheriff Court Company Insolvency Rules) 1986 in consequence of the amendments made to the Insolvency (Scotland) Rules 1986 (“the Insolvency Rules”) by the Insolvency (Scotland) Amendment Rules 2014.

Paragraph 2(3) substitutes a new rule 74.32A (replacement liquidators: block transfer orders) into Chapter 74. The new rule specifies that applications under rule 4.26B(1) of the Insolvency Rules are to be made by petition. Where the application relates to one or more sheriff court petition, the Deputy Principal Clerk of Session is required to notify the sheriff clerk of every sheriff court where an affected petition is proceeding. It also enables the Court to give directions to ensure that a copy of the block transfer order is put in the process of every affected sheriff court and Court of Session petition, and to make such orders as the Court sees fit for the intimation of advertisement of the replacement liquidator’s appointment.

Paragraph 3(3) inserts a new rule into Part V (general provisions) of the Sheriff Court Company Insolvency Rules. This is as a result of the extension of applications for limited disclosure of the statement of affairs to petitions involving the appointment of a receiver or the winding-up of a company. New rule 31AA provides that such an application is to be made by petition where there are no existing proceedings in relation to any liquidation, administration or receivership, or otherwise by note in the process of the existing petition.

Paragraphs 2(2) and 3(2) make consequential amendments to rule 74.28 (appeals against adjudication of claims) of the Rules of the Court of Session 1994 and rule 25 (appeals against adjudication of claims) of the Sheriff Court Company Insolvency Rules as a result of changes made to the right of appeal against the liquidator’s decision to accept or reject a claim. That appeal is now provided for in rule 4.16B(6) of the Insolvency Rules and so the previously-mentioned provisions, which specify the form of such an appeal, are being amended to reflect the change to the Insolvency Rules.
