The Regulations revoke and replace the Food Labelling Regulations 1996 (“the 1996 Regulations”), as amended, with effect from 13th December 2014, so far as those Regulations apply to Scotland, except for the purposes of certain provisions of those Regulations (regulation 43, regulation 42(1) for the purposes of the entries in Part I of Schedule 8 relating to the descriptions “alcohol-free”, “dealcoholised”, “low alcohol” (or any other word or description which implies that the drink being described is low in alcohol) and “non-alcoholic”; regulation 42(2) to (4); the entries in Part I of Schedule 8 relating to the descriptions “alcohol-free”, “dealcoholised”, “low alcohol” (or any other word or description which implies that the drink being described is low in alcohol) and “non-alcoholic”; and Parts II and III of Schedule 8), which are revoked with effect from 13th December 2018 (regulation 13 and Schedule 4). The Regulations amend the 1996 Regulations, so far as those Regulations apply to Scotland, during the period before those Regulations are revoked (regulation 14 and Schedule 5). They make amendments to other legislation to take account of the repeal and replacement of the relevant EU legislation and the revocation of the 1996 Regulations. The Regulations also amend the Food (Lot Marking) Regulations 1996, in their application to Scotland, to take account of the repeal and replacement of Council Directive 89/396/EEC by Directive 2011/91/EU of the European Parliament and of the Council on indications or marks identifying the lot to which a foodstuff belongs (OJ L 334, 16.12.2011, p.1).
