The Police Service of Scotland (Conduct) Regulations 2014

PART 2

Misconduct investigations

Investigator's report

- 13.—(1) At the conclusion of the misconduct investigation, the investigator must—
- (a) determine whether, in the investigator's opinion, the constable has a case to answer in relation to the misconduct allegation; and
 - (b) submit a written report to the deputy chief constable.
- (2) A report submitted in accordance with paragraph (1) must contain—
- (a) a summary of any evidence obtained by the investigator; and
 - (b) the investigator's opinion as to whether the misconduct allegation should be referred to misconduct proceedings.
- (3) The investigator must send with the report mentioned in paragraph (1) any documents or other information relevant to that report or to the investigation including, in particular—
- (a) a copy of any audio recording made of an interview under regulation 12(7); and
 - (b) a copy of any written record of such an interview prepared under regulation 12(8).
