- “tenant” has the meaning given to it by section 194 of the Act; and
- “third party applicant” has the meaning given to it by section 22(1A) of the Act.

Service

36.—(1) Where any formal communication requires to be served upon the parties, it shall be deemed to have been served on a party if it is served on a person who is acting as the representative of that party.

(2) A member of staff of the Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service may send a formal communication on behalf of the First-tier Tribunal.

(3) Any requirement in these Rules for a document to be signed by a person is satisfied, in the case of a document which is transmitted by electronic communication in accordance with these Rules, by electronic signature of the person who is required to sign the document.

Hearing two or more applications together

37.—(1) The First-tier Tribunal may direct two or more applications or an application and an assured or regulated tenancy reference to be heard together where they are under consideration by the First-tier Tribunal at the same time and relate to the same—

- (a) property; or
- (b) required work.

(2) The First-tier Tribunal may require the parties to take any steps necessary to enable two or more applications to be heard together.

Directions

38.—(1) On its own initiative or on the application of a party, the First-tier Tribunal may give directions to the parties relating to the conduct or progress of an application or an assured or regulated tenancy reference.

(2) The power to give directions is to be exercised subject to other provision in these Rules.

(3) Directions may be given orally or in writing and must be intimated to every party.

(4) Directions of the First-tier Tribunal may, in particular—

(a) relate to any matter concerning the preparation for a hearing;

(b) set time limits for something to be done;

(c) vary any time limit given in a previous direction;

(d) provide for—

(i) a matter to be dealt with as a preliminary issue;

(ii) a party to provide further details of that party's case, or other information which appears to be necessary for the determination of the application or the assured or regulated tenancy reference;

(iii) witnesses to be heard;

(iv) the manner in which evidence is to be given;

(e) require a party to lodge and serve—

(i) statements of evidence which will be put forward at the hearing;

(ii) a paginated and indexed bundle of all the documents which will be relied on at the hearing;

(iii) a skeleton argument which summarises the submissions which will be made at the hearing and cites all the authorities which will be relied on, clearly identifying particular passages to be relied on;

(iv) a list of witnesses whom a party wishes to call to give evidence.

(5) When making directions the First-tier Tribunal must take into account the ability of parties to comply with the directions.

Evidence

39.—(1) The First-tier Tribunal must allow no less than 5 working days when requiring production of documents or information.

(2) The First-tier Tribunal must not consider written evidence which is lodged or served outwith a time limit it has set unless satisfied that there is good reason to do so.

(3) Where a party seeks to rely on a copy of a document as evidence, the First-tier Tribunal may require the original document to be produced.

(4) The First-tier Tribunal may allow evidence to be heard on any matter the First-tier Tribunal considers to be relevant whether or not this matter has been specified in the written representations.

Withdrawal of applications

40.—(1) An application or an assured or regulated tenancy reference may be withdrawn by the applicant or landlord orally at a hearing or in writing by serving a notice of withdrawal on the landlord or tenant and the First-tier Tribunal.

(2) A notice of withdrawal must be in writing and may be made on a form obtained from the First-tier Tribunal.

Exclusion of persons disrupting proceedings

41.—(1) Without prejudice to any other powers it may have, the First-tier Tribunal may exclude from a hearing, or part of it, a person whose conduct has disrupted the hearing or whose conduct has otherwise interfered with the administration of justice.

(2) In deciding whether to exercise the power conferred by paragraph (1) the First-tier Tribunal must, in particular, have regard to—

- (a) the interests of the parties; and
- (b) in the case of the exclusion of a party or a representative, whether the party will be adequately represented.

(3) If the First-tier Tribunal decides to exclude a party it must allow that party's representative sufficient opportunity to consult the party.

Procedure in respect of Repairing Standard Applications

Applications under section 22(1) or (1A) of the Act

42.—(1) An application under section 22(1) or (1A) of the Act must be by written notice and may be made on a form obtained from the First-tier Tribunal.

(2) Where a tenant makes an application under section 22(1) of the Act—

- (a) in addition to the tenant's reasons as required by section 22(2) of the Act (reasons for considering that the landlord has failed to comply with the landlord's duty), the application must state—
 - (i) the name and address of the tenant;
 - (ii) that the application is made under section 22(1) of the Act;
 - (iii) the name, address, and profession of any representative of the tenant;
 - (iv) the name of the landlord;
 - (v) the address of the landlord or, if known, the name, address and profession of any representative of the landlord;
 - (vi) the landlord's registration number, if known;
 - (vii) the nature of the work requiring to be done;
 - (viii) that the landlord has been notified of the work; and
- (b) the application must be signed by the tenant or by a representative of the tenant.

(3) Where a third party applicant makes an application under section 22(1A)—

- (a) in addition to the third party applicant's reasons as required by section 22(2) of the Act, the application must state—
 - (i) the name and address of the third party applicant;
 - (ii) that the application is made under section 22(1A) of the Act;
 - (iii) the name and address of the tenant;
 - (iv) if known, the name, address and profession of any representative of the tenant;
 - (v) if known, whether or not the tenant wants to be a party to the proceedings;
 - (vi) the name of the landlord;
 - (vii) the address of the landlord or, if known, the name, address and profession of any representative of the landlord;
 - (viii) the landlord's registration number, if known;

- (ix) the nature of the work requiring to be done;
- (x) that the landlord has been notified of the work; and
- (b) the application must be signed by the third party applicant or by a representative of the third party applicant.
- (4) Where a property fails to meet the repairing standard in more than one respect, the applicant may raise multiple issues relating to the repairing standard in one application.
- (5) The application must be accompanied by—
 - (a) a copy of the lease or tenancy agreement, or if these are not available as much information about the tenancy as the applicant can give; and
 - (b) a copy of the notification referred to in paragraph (2)(a)(viii) or (3)(a)(x) and any subsequent correspondence relating to that notification.

Mediation

43. In cases identified by the Chamber President as suitable for mediation, the First-tier Tribunal must—

- (a) bring to the attention of the parties the availability of mediation as an alternative procedure for the resolution of the dispute;
- (b) provide information explaining what mediation involves; and
- (c) if the parties consent to mediation, facilitate that mediation.

Need for additional work

44. Where further relevant issues come to light in the course of investigation by the First-tier Tribunal, the tenant or third party applicant may make a further application in respect of those issues, but may not do so until that person has notified the landlord that further work requires to be done for the purposes of compliance with the landlord's duty.

Procedure for further applications

45.—(1) Any application under rule 44 must provide the information set out in rule 42(2) or, as the case may be, rule 42(3), and must follow the same procedure as the original application, except that any time scales applicable may be shortened with the consent of the parties.

(2) If the members of the First-tier Tribunal dealing with the original application are satisfied that it is expedient that the further application be made by way of amendment to the original application, they may allow such an amendment.

(3) The First-tier Tribunal must give suitable directions to the parties to ensure that the amended application is properly and fairly considered.

Inspections

46.—(1) An inspection of the property may be carried out before or during the hearing or after an adjournment of the hearing, or at such stage in relation to consideration of the written representations as the First-tier Tribunal shall determine.

(2) The First-tier Tribunal may make or commission such further inspections as it considers appropriate to enable it to determine whether or not the work required by a repairing standard enforcement order has been completed adequately, or to decide whether to grant a certificate under section 60 of the Act in relation to the work required by any such order.

(3) An inspection may be carried out by the First-tier Tribunal, a member of the First-tier Tribunal or any person authorised to do so by the First-tier Tribunal or the Chamber President.

(4) The First-tier Tribunal must give sufficient written notice of an inspection to the party or parties.

(5) Each party and any representative of a party are entitled to attend the inspection.

Hearings

47.—(1) The First-tier Tribunal must give each party reasonable notice of the time and place of the hearing (including any adjourned or postponed hearing) and any changes to the time and place of the hearing.

(2) The notice period for a hearing must be no less than 10 working days from the date of receipt of the notice, unless the parties consent to a shorter period or there are urgent or exceptional circumstances.

(3) A hearing must be in public unless the First-tier Tribunal decides that exclusion of the public is appropriate.

(4) At a hearing—

- (a) a party or a party's representative may conduct the party's case;
- (b) the parties shall be heard in such order and, subject to the provisions of these Rules, the procedure shall be such as the First-tier Tribunal shall determine;
- (c) a party may call witnesses, give evidence on his or her own behalf and cross-examine witnesses called by any other party.

(5) The First-tier Tribunal may postpone or adjourn a hearing, subject to rule 48.

Adjournment

48.—(1) Where a party applies for an adjournment of a hearing, that party must—

- (a) if practicable, notify all other parties of the application for adjournment;
- (b) show good reason why an adjournment is necessary; and
- (c) produce evidence of any fact or matter relied on in support of the application for adjournment.

(2) The First-tier Tribunal may only adjourn a hearing at the request of a party if satisfied that the application cannot otherwise be justly determined.

(3) If the reason for such an adjournment is to allow the party more time to produce evidence, the First-tier Tribunal may only adjourn the hearing if satisfied that—

- (a) the evidence relates to a matter in dispute;
- (b) it would be unjust to determine the case without permitting the party to produce the evidence; and
- (c) where the party has failed to comply with directions for the production of the evidence, the party has provided a satisfactory explanation for that failure.

Amendment

49.—(1) Subject to rule 50 and on such conditions as the First-tier Tribunal thinks fit, a party may amend that party's written representations—

- (a) any time up to 5 working days prior to the date fixed for a hearing;

(b) within 5 working days prior to the date fixed for the hearing or during the hearing, with the consent of the First-tier Tribunal.

(2) Such amendment must be in writing unless it is made during the hearing, in which case the terms of the amendment may be stated orally in the presence of the other party or parties and noted by the First-tier Tribunal.

(3) On receipt of a written amendment, the First-tier Tribunal must intimate the amendment to the other party or parties in writing.

Amendment to the party's written representations raising new issues of disrepair

50.—(1) Where the effect of any proposed amendment to written representations by the applicant would be to introduce a new issue of disrepair, such amendment may only be made with the consent of the First-tier Tribunal and on such conditions as the First-tier Tribunal thinks fit.

(2) Such an amendment may only be made if the applicant has notified the landlord that further work requires to be done for the purposes of complying with the landlord's duty.

(3) Where an application is amended to include a new issue of disrepair, the landlord may make written representations in response to the amendment, or request the opportunity to make oral representations, by a specified date not less than 14 days from the date on which intimation of the amendment is served.

(4) The applicant may also make further written representations or request the opportunity to make oral representations, by the specified date.

(5) The date by which such representations must be made may, at the request of a party, be changed to such later date as the First-tier Tribunal thinks fit.

(6) The First-tier Tribunal must notify all parties of any change under paragraph (5).

(7) Where an application is amended to include a new issue of disrepair and the landlord requests further time to complete the work necessary to effect the repair, the First-tier Tribunal must allow such further time as it considers reasonable for that work to be completed.

(8) The period of time allowed under paragraph (7) must not be less than 14 days unless the First-tier Tribunal considers that the repair is urgent.

Hearing case in the absence of a party

51. If a party or a party's representative does not appear at a hearing, the First-tier Tribunal, on being satisfied that the requirements of rule 47 regarding the giving of notice of a hearing have been duly complied with, may proceed to deal with the application upon the representations of any party present and all the material before it.

Voting for and giving of decision

52.—(1) The decision of the First-tier Tribunal on an application must be made by majority but, in the event of a tie, the chairing member has a casting vote.

(2) The decision must be recorded in a document signed by the chairing member.

(3) A statement of reasons must be prepared by the chairing member with the assistance of the other members of the First-tier Tribunal.

(4) Where the decision of the First-tier Tribunal is not unanimous, the chairing member must give a brief note of the opinion of the minority.

(5) In the absence or incapacity of the chairing member, the chairing member's functions under this rule may be carried out by another member of the First-tier Tribunal.

(6) The decision of the First-tier Tribunal, statement of reasons and note under paragraph (4) must be published.

Death, insolvency or incapacity of a party

53.—(1) Where a party dies, becomes insolvent, or becomes subject to a legal incapacity, while an application is under consideration, a person claiming to represent that party or that party's estate may apply to be a party to the cause.

(2) For the purposes of paragraph (1) a person is insolvent if—

- (a) the person's estate is sequestrated;
- (b) the person has granted a trust deed for creditors; or
- (c) the person is the subject of another kind of arrangement analogous to those described in sub-paragraphs (a) and (b), anywhere in the world.

(3) The First-tier Tribunal may continue to consider and determine the application despite the death, insolvency or legal incapacity of either the landlord or the tenant.

Procedure in respect of Landlord applications to the First-tier Tribunal

Application

54.—(1) An application under section 28A of the Act must be made by written notice, and may be made on a form obtained from the First-tier Tribunal.

(2) The application must state—

- (a) the name and address of the landlord;
- (b) that the application is made under section 28A of the Act;
- (c) the address of the house in respect of which the application is made;
- (d) the name, address and profession of any representative appointed by the landlord;
- (e) a telephone number to enable contact to be made with the landlord or any representative appointed by the landlord and any email address which may be used for such contact;
- (f) the landlord registration number of the landlord or that an application for registration has been made in accordance with section 83 of the Antisocial Behaviour etc. (Scotland) Act 2004⁽⁹⁾ and has not been determined;
- (g) the name, telephone number (if known), and email address (if known) of the tenant;
- (h) that the tenant has been notified in writing that the landlord wishes to exercise the landlord's right of entry;
- (i) that entry to the house is sought for the purpose of paragraph (a) of section 181(4) of the Act or of paragraph (b) of that section or of both;
- (j) whether or not the landlord has, within the 12 months prior to the date of making of the application, made another application under section 28A of the Act in respect of the same house; and
- (k) the name of any person the landlord intends to authorise to enter the house.

(3) The application must be signed and dated by the landlord or by any representative appointed by the landlord.

(4) The application must be accompanied by—

(9) 2004 asp 8.

- (a) a copy of the lease or the tenancy agreement or, if these are not available, as much information about the tenancy as the landlord can give; and
- (b) a copy of the notification referred to in paragraph (2)(h) and any subsequent correspondence relating to that notification.

Rejection of applications

55.—(1) The First-tier Tribunal must reject an application if—

- (a) the First-tier Tribunal considers that the application is frivolous or vexatious;
- (b) the dispute to which the application relates has been resolved or the landlord has been able to enter the house for the purpose specified in the application;
- (c) the First-tier Tribunal has good reason to believe that it would not be appropriate to assist either the landlord or any person the landlord intends to authorise to enter the house, or both, to gain entry to the house;
- (d) the First-tier Tribunal considers that the application is being made for a purpose other than a purpose specified in section 181(4) of the Act; or
- (e) the landlord has previously made an identical or substantially similar application in relation to the same house and in the First-tier Tribunal's opinion there has been no significant change in any material considerations since the identical or substantially similar application was determined.

(2) Where the First-tier Tribunal makes a decision under section 28A(3) of the Act to reject an application the notification to the landlord under that section must state—

- (a) the name of the tenant and the address of the house;
- (b) the reason for the decision; and
- (c) that in terms of section 28A(8) of the Act the decision is final.

Person authorised to enter

56. If the First-tier Tribunal does not consider the person the landlord intends to authorise to enter the house to be a suitable person, it may allow the landlord to amend the application in this regard.

Decision to assist

57. Where the First-tier Tribunal decides to assist the landlord under subsection (3) of section 28A of the Act, the notice sent to the landlord and the tenant under subsection (5) of that section must, in addition to the information required under that subsection, state—

- (a) the name and address of the landlord;
- (b) the name and address of the landlord's representative, if any;
- (c) the name of the tenant and the address of the house;
- (d) the name of any person the landlord intends to authorise to enter the house;
- (e) whether the landlord is seeking entry to the house for the purpose of—
 - (i) viewing its state and condition for the purpose of determining whether the house meets the repairing standard;
 - (ii) carrying out any work necessary to comply with the duty in section 14(1)(b) of the Act; or
 - (iii) both;

- (f) that if the tenant (without reasonable excuse) fails or refuses, within a reasonable time, to—
- (i) respond to the First-tier Tribunal; or
 - (ii) agree a suitable date and time (or dates and times) for the landlord to exercise the landlord's right of entry,
- the First-tier Tribunal may fix a date and time (or dates and times) for the landlord to exercise the landlord's right of entry.

58. Where the First-tier Tribunal makes a decision to stop assisting the landlord under section 28A(7) or section 28C(9)(10) of the Act the First-tier Tribunal must notify the landlord and the tenant and that notice must state—

- (a) the name and address of the landlord;
- (b) the name and address of the landlord's representative, if any;
- (c) the name of the person the landlord intended to authorise to enter the house;
- (d) the name of the tenant and the address of the house;
- (e) the reason for the decision; and
- (f) that in terms of section 28A(8) of the Act the decision to stop assisting the landlord is final.

Procedure in respect of Assured Tenancy References to the First-tier Tribunal

Assured Tenancy References to the First-tier Tribunal

59.—(1) When an assured tenancy reference is made to the First-tier Tribunal, the First-tier Tribunal shall as soon as practicable thereafter serve on the landlord and the tenant a notice specifying a period of not less than 14 days from the service of the notice during which either representations in writing or a request to make oral representations may be made to the First-tier Tribunal by either party.

(2) Where within the period specified in paragraph (1), or such further period as the First-tier Tribunal may allow, the landlord or the tenant requests to make oral representations, the First-tier Tribunal shall give the landlord or the tenant an opportunity of being heard at a hearing in accordance with rule 60 below.

(3) The First-tier Tribunal may make such inquiries as they think fit and consider information supplied or representations made to them relevant to the matters to be determined by them, but shall give the parties adequate opportunity for considering such information and representations and may hold a hearing whether or not the parties have requested one.

Assured Tenancy Reference Hearings

60.—(1) Where an assured tenancy reference is to be subject to a hearing, the First-tier Tribunal shall appoint a date, time and place for a hearing.

(2) The First-tier Tribunal shall give not less than 10 days' notice in writing to the landlord and the tenant of the date, time and place so appointed for a hearing.

(3) A hearing shall be in public unless for special reasons the First-tier Tribunal otherwise decides.

(4) At a hearing—

- (a) a party may be heard either in person or by a person authorised by him in that behalf, whether or not that person is an advocate or a solicitor;

(10) Section 28C was inserted by section 35(4) of the Private Rented Housing (Scotland) Act 2011.

(b) the parties shall be heard in such order and, subject to the provision of these Rules, the procedure shall be such as the First-tier Tribunal shall determine; and

(c) a party may call witnesses, give evidence on the party's own behalf and cross-examine any witnesses called by the other party.

(5) The First-tier Tribunal at its discretion may on its own motion, or at the request of the parties or one of them, at any time and from time to time postpone or adjourn a hearing; but it shall not do so at the request of one party only unless, having regard to the grounds upon which and the time at which such request is made and to the convenience of the parties, it deems it reasonable to do so.

(6) The First-tier Tribunal shall give to the parties reasonable notice of the postponed or adjourned hearing.

(7) If a party does not appear at a hearing, the First-tier Tribunal, on being satisfied that the requirements of this rule regarding the giving of notice of a hearing have been duly complied with, may proceed to deal with the reference upon the representations of any party present and upon the documents and information which it may properly consider.

Documents at Assured Tenancy Reference Hearings

61.—(1) Where the assured tenancy reference is to be subject to a hearing, the First-tier Tribunal shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that there is supplied to each of the parties before the date of the hearing—

(a) a copy of, or sufficient extracts from, or particulars of, each document relevant to the reference which has been received from a party (other than a document which is already in the possession of the party or of which the party has previously been supplied with a copy); and

(b) a copy of each document which embodies results of enquiries made by or for the First-tier Tribunal for the purposes of that reference, or which contains relevant information in relation to rents or other tenancy terms previously determined for other houses and which has been prepared for the First-tier Tribunal for the purposes of that reference.

(2) At a hearing where—

(a) a document relevant to the reference is not in the possession of a party present at the hearing; and

(b) that party has not been supplied with a copy of, or relevant extracts from, or particulars of, the document by the First-tier Tribunal in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1) of this rule, then unless—

(i) the party consents to the continuation of the hearing; or

(ii) the First-tier Tribunal consider that the party has a sufficient opportunity of dealing with the document without an adjournment of the hearing,

the First-tier Tribunal shall not consider the document until after it has adjourned the hearing for a period which it considers will afford the party a sufficient opportunity of dealing with the document.

(3) Where a reference is not to be subject to a hearing, the First-tier Tribunal shall supply to each of the parties a copy of, or sufficient extracts from, or particulars of, each such document as is mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) of this rule (other than a document excepted from that paragraph) and a copy of each such document as is mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) of this rule, and it shall not reach its decision until it is satisfied that each party has been given a sufficient opportunity of commenting upon each document of which a copy or from which extracts or of which particulars has or have been so supplied, and upon the other party's case.

Inspection of house

62.—(1) The First-tier Tribunal may on its own motion and must at the request of one of the parties (subject in either case to any necessary consent being obtained) inspect the house which is the subject of the assured tenancy reference.

(2) An inspection may be made before, during or after the close of the hearing, or at such stage in relation to the consideration of the representations in writing as the First-tier Tribunal shall determine.

(3) The First-tier Tribunal must give in writing sufficient notice of an inspection to the parties.

(4) The parties and the representative of each party are entitled to attend the inspection.

(5) Where an inspection is made after the close of a hearing, the First-tier Tribunal may, if it considers that it is expedient to do so on account of a matter arising from the inspection, re-open the hearing; and if the hearing is to be re-opened, paragraph (2) of rule 60 of these Rules shall apply as it applied to the original hearing, save in so far as its requirements may be dispensed with or relaxed with the consent of the parties.

Decisions

63.—(1) The decision of the First-tier Tribunal upon an assured tenancy reference shall be recorded in a document signed by the chairing member (or, in the event of that person's absence or incapacity, by another member of the First-tier Tribunal) which shall contain no reference to the decision being a majority (if that be the case) or to the opinion of a minority, if any.

(2) Where the First-tier Tribunal is requested, on or before the giving or notification of the decision, to state the reasons for the decision, those reasons shall be recorded in the said document.

(3) The decision of the First-tier Tribunal and a statement of reasons, if any, are to be made publicly available.

Giving of notices in respect of assured tenancy references, etc.

64. Where a notice or other written matter is required under the provisions of these Rules in respect of assured tenancy references to the First-tier Tribunal to be served, given or supplied by the First-tier Tribunal to a party or parties, it shall be sufficient compliance with the Rules if the notice or matter is served, given or supplied—

(a) by delivering it to the party or to the party's agent where a party has appointed an agent to act on the party's behalf;

(b) by leaving it at the last known address of the party or the party's agent; or

(c) by sending it by recorded delivery letter to the party or the party's agent at that address.

Procedure in respect of regulated tenancy references

Hearings

65.—(1) Where a regulated tenancy reference is to be subject to a hearing, the First-tier Tribunal shall appoint a date, time and place for the hearing.

(2) The First-tier Tribunal shall give not less than 10 days' notice in writing of the date, time and place so appointed for a hearing—

(a) to the landlord and the tenant where the reference is a matter referred to the First-tier Tribunal under paragraph 7 of schedule 5 of the 1984 Act;

- (b) to the applicant where the reference is a matter relating to an application for the registration of a rent for a dwelling-house in accordance with a certificate of fair rent referred to the First-tier Tribunal under paragraph 9 of schedule 6 of the 1984 Act;
 - (c) to the applicant where the reference is an application for a certificate of fair rent referred to the First-tier Tribunal under paragraph 2 or 6 of schedule 6 of the 1984 Act and, in a case to which paragraph 9 of that schedule applies, to the tenant;
 - (d) to the lessor and the lessee where the reference is a Part VII contract referred to the First-tier Tribunal by either the lessor or the lessee; or
 - (e) to the lessor and the lessee and the local authority where the reference is a Part VII contract referred to the First-tier Tribunal by the local authority.
- (3) A hearing shall be in public unless for special reasons the First-tier Tribunal decides otherwise.
- (4) At a hearing—
- (a) the parties shall be heard in such order and, subject to the provisions of these Rules, the procedure shall be such as the First-tier Tribunal shall determine; and
 - (b) a party may call witnesses, give evidence on their own behalf and cross-examine any witnesses called by the other party.
- (5) The First-tier Tribunal at its discretion may on its own motion, or at the request of the parties or one of them, at any time and from time to time postpone or adjourn a hearing; but it shall not do so at the request of one party only unless, having regard to the grounds upon which and the time at which such request is made and to the convenience of the parties, it deems it reasonable to do so.
- (6) The First-tier Tribunal shall give to the parties such notice of any postponed or adjourned hearing as it deems to be reasonable in the circumstances.
- (7) If a party does not appear at a hearing, the First-tier Tribunal, on being satisfied that the requirements of this rule regarding the giving of notice of a hearing have been duly complied with, may proceed to deal with the reference upon the representations of any party present and upon the documents and information which they may properly consider.

Documents

- 66.—(1) Where a regulated tenancy reference is to be subject to a hearing, the First-tier Tribunal shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that there is supplied to each of the parties before the date of the hearing—
- (a) a copy of, or sufficient extracts from, or particulars of, any document relevant to the reference which has been received from the rent officer or from a party (other than a document which is already in the possession of the party or of which the party has previously been supplied with a copy by the rent officer); and
 - (b) a copy of any document which embodies results of any enquiries made by or for the First-tier Tribunal for the purposes of that reference, or which contains relevant information in relation to fair rents previously determined for other dwelling-houses and which has been prepared for the First-tier Tribunal for the purposes of that reference.
- (2) At any hearing where—
- (a) any document relevant to the reference is not in the possession of a party present at the hearing; and
 - (b) that party has not been supplied with a copy of, or relevant extracts from, or particulars of, the document by the rent officer or by the First-tier Tribunal in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (1) of this rule, then unless—
 - (i) the party consents to the continuation of the hearing; or

(ii) the First-tier Tribunal consider that the party has a sufficient opportunity of dealing with the document without an adjournment of the hearing,

the First-tier Tribunal shall not consider the document until after it has adjourned the hearing for a period which it considers will afford the party a sufficient opportunity of dealing with the document.

(3) Where a reference is not to be subject to a hearing the First-tier Tribunal shall supply to each of the parties a copy of, or sufficient extracts from, or particulars of, any such document as is mentioned in paragraph (1)(a) of this rule (other than a document excepted from that paragraph) and a copy of any such document as is mentioned in paragraph (1)(b) of this rule, and it shall not reach its decision until it is satisfied that each party has been given a sufficient opportunity of commenting upon any document of which a copy or from which extracts or of which particulars has or have been so supplied, and upon the other party's case.

Inspection of dwelling-house

67.—(1) The First-tier Tribunal may on its own motion and shall at the request of one of the parties (subject in either case to any necessary consent being obtained) inspect the dwelling-house which is the subject of the reference.

(2) An inspection may be made before, during or after the close of the hearing, or at such stage in relation to the consideration of the representations in writing as the First-tier Tribunal shall determine.

(3) The First-tier Tribunal shall give such notice in writing as they deem sufficient of an inspection to the party or parties and shall allow each party and their representative to attend any inspection.

(4) Where an inspection is made after the close of a hearing the First-tier Tribunal may, if it considers that it is expedient to do so on account of any matter arising from the inspection, re-open the hearing; and if the hearing is to be re-opened paragraph (2) of rule 65 shall apply as it applied to the original hearing, save in so far as its requirements may be dispensed with or relaxed with the consent of the parties.

Decisions

68.—(1) The decision of the First-tier Tribunal upon a reference shall be recorded in a document signed by the chairing member (or in the event of that person's absence or incapacity, by another member of the First-tier Tribunal) which shall contain no reference to the decision being a majority (if that be the case) or to any opinion of a minority.

(2) Where the First-tier Tribunal is requested, on or before the giving or notification of the decision, to state the reasons for the decision, those reasons shall be recorded in a document.

(3) This rule shall apply to the document recording the reasons as it applies to the document recording the decision.

(4) The decision of the First-tier Tribunal and a statement of reasons, if any, are to be made publicly available.

Giving of Notices

69. Where any notice or other written matter is required under the provisions of these Rules to be given or supplied by the First-tier Tribunal to a party or parties, it shall be sufficient compliance with the Rules if the notice or matter is sent by post to the party for whom it is intended at their usual or last known address or if that party has appointed an agent to act on their behalf in relation to the reference, to that agent at the address of the agent supplied to the First-tier Tribunal.
