
SCOTTISH STATUTORY INSTRUMENTS

2017 No. 147

The Road Works (Qualifications of Operatives and Supervisors) (Scotland) Regulations 2017

Qualification registration

8.—(1) The bodies approved for the purpose of issuing certificates of competence are—

- (a) The Scottish Qualifications Authority;
- (b) The City and Guilds of London Institute⁽¹⁾; and
- (c) The CABWI Awarding Body⁽²⁾.

(2) The register approved for the purpose of registering certificates is the register kept by the registration body.

(3) Where an approved body has issued a certificate of competence, the approved assessment centre which carried out the assessment referred to in regulation 2(2)(a) must, within one month beginning with the date of issue, request the registration body to register that certificate in the approved register.

(4) Where an approved body has issued a renewal certificate, the approved assessment centre which carried out the reassessment referred to in regulation 2(2)(b) must, within one month beginning with the date of issue, request the registration body to re-register the certificate to which the renewal certificate relates in the approved register.

(5) The registration body must register or re-register (as the case may be) a certificate within one month beginning with the date of—

- (a) receipt of a request for registration made under paragraph (3);
- (b) the issue by a competent authority of a certificate of recognition of a type described in regulation 3(3)(b) or (c); or
- (c) receipt of a request for re-registration made under paragraph (4).

(1) The City and Guilds of London Institute is a Royal Chartered Institute with the number RC117, and a charity registered in England and Wales under charity number 312832.

(2) The CABWI Awarding Body is a company limited by guarantee, registered in England and Wales under company number 2638349 and is a charity registered in England and Wales under charity number 1157706. This body was previously incorporated under the name “the Certification and Association Board for the Water Industry” until 17th July 1998.