The Telecommunications Restriction Orders
(Custodial Institutions) (Scotland) Regulations 2017

Interpretation

2. In these Regulations—

“affected person” means a person who has been affected by a telecommunications restriction order or is likely to be affected by it if it is made, and includes a person who claims to have authorisation, as defined in regulation 3(2), to possess a communications device to which the application or order relates, but does not include an individual imprisoned or detained in a custodial institution;

“further order” means an order discharging or varying the telecommunications restriction order under regulation 9;

“working day” means a day other than—

- (a) Saturday or Sunday;
- (b) Christmas Day or Good Friday; or
- (c) a day that is a bank holiday in England and Wales, as prescribed in the Banking and Financial Dealings Act 1971⁽¹⁾.
