2018 No. 347

The Insolvency (Scotland) (Receivership and Winding up) Rules 2018

PART 5

WINDING UP BY THE COURT

CHAPTER 6

The liquidator

Relief from, or variation of, duty to report

5.34.—(1) The court may, on the application of the liquidator, relieve the liquidator of any duty imposed on the liquidator by rule 5.33, or authorise the liquidator to carry out the duty in a way other than required by that rule.

(2) In considering whether to act under this rule, the court must have regard to the cost of carrying out the duty, to the amount of the assets available, and to the extent of the interest of creditors or contributories, or any particular class of them.
