“Chamber President” means the Chamber President of the First-tier Tribunal,

“electronic communication” has the meaning given to it by section 15(1) of the Electronic Communications Act 2000⁽⁴⁾ and “electronic signature” has the same meaning as in section 7 of that Act⁽⁵⁾,

“First-tier Tribunal” means the General Regulatory Chamber⁽⁶⁾ of the First-tier Tribunal for Scotland as defined by section 1(1) of the 2014 Act,

“hearing” means an oral hearing and includes a form of hearing conducted in whole or in part by video link, telephone or other means of instantaneous multi-party electronic communication,

“notice of rejection” means a notice served by the respondent authority under—

- (a) subsection (6)(b) of section 71 of the 1991 Act that they do not accept that a ground on which representations were made under that section has been established,
- (b) paragraph 2(7) of schedule 6 of the 1991 Act that they do not accept that a ground under that paragraph has been established, or
- (c) regulation 10(3) of the 2011 Regulations,

“original representations” means the representations made to the respondent authority under—

- (a) section 71 or paragraph 2 of schedule 6 of the 1991 Act, or
- (b) regulation 9(1) of the 2011 Regulations,

“party” means the appellant or the respondent authority,

“penalty charge notice” means the notice issued under section 66 of the 1991 Act,

“proceedings” means proceedings before the First-tier Tribunal when convened to hear appeals,

“register” means the register of appeals and decisions kept in accordance with rule 24 (the register), and

“respondent authority” means—

- (a) an approved local authority in terms of section 44(2) of the Transport (Scotland) Act 2001⁽⁷⁾,
- (b) in relation to a parking place which was provided or authorised under section 32(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984⁽⁸⁾, the local authority as defined by section 32(4) (a) of that Act in relation to the parking place, or

(4) 2000 c.7. Section 15(1) was amended by paragraph 158 of schedule 17 of the Communications Act 2003 (c.21).

(5) Section 7 was amended by paragraph 1 of schedule 3 of the Electronic Identification and Trust Services for Electronic Transactions Regulations 2016/696.

(6) The First-tier Tribunal for Scotland General Regulatory Chamber was brought into being by S.S.I. 2016/341.

(7) 2001 asp 2.

(8) 1984 c.27.

- (c) in any other case, the traffic authority (other than the Scottish Ministers) as defined by section 121A of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984⁽⁹⁾,
“review” means the internal review provided for by section 43(1) of the 2014 Act, and “Upper Tribunal” means the Upper Tribunal for Scotland as defined by section 1(1) of the 2014 Act.

Overriding objective

- 2.—(1) The overriding objective of the First-tier Tribunal is to deal with the proceedings fairly and justly.
- (2) Dealing with proceedings fairly and justly includes—
 - (a) dealing with the proceedings in a manner which is proportionate to the complexity of the issues and the resources of the parties,
 - (b) avoiding unnecessary formality and seeking flexibility in the proceedings,
 - (c) ensuring, so far as practicable, that the parties are able to participate fully in proceedings,
 - (d) using any special expertise of the First-tier Tribunal effectively, and
 - (e) avoiding delay, so far as compatible with proper consideration of the issues.
- (3) The First-tier Tribunal must seek to give effect to the overriding objective when it—
 - (a) exercises any power under these Rules, or
 - (b) interprets any rule or practice direction.
- (4) In particular, the First-tier Tribunal must actively manage proceedings in accordance with the overriding objective.

Delegation to staff

- 3.—(1) Staff of the Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service⁽¹⁰⁾ may, with the approval of the Chamber President, carry out functions of a judicial nature permitted or required to be undertaken by the First-tier Tribunal, provided the functions are of a preliminary or an incidental nature.
- (2) The approval referred to in paragraph (1) may apply generally to the carrying out of specified functions by members of staff of a specified description in specified circumstances.

Case management powers

- 4.—(1) Subject to the provisions of the 2014 Act and these Rules, the First-tier Tribunal may regulate its own procedure.
- (2) The First-tier Tribunal may give an order in relation to the conduct or disposal of proceedings at any time, including an order amending, suspending or setting aside an earlier order.
- (3) In particular, and without restricting the general powers in paragraphs (1) and (2), the First-tier Tribunal may by order—
 - (a) extend or shorten the time for complying with any rule, practice direction or order,
 - (b) conjoin or hear together two or more sets of proceedings or parts of proceedings raising common issues,
 - (c) permit or require a party to amend a document,

⁽⁹⁾ 1984 c.27.

⁽¹⁰⁾ The Scottish Courts and Tribunals Service was established by section 60 of the Judiciary and Courts (Scotland) Act 2008 (2008 asp 6).

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

- (d) permit or require a party to provide documents, information, evidence or submissions to the First-tier Tribunal or a party,
- (e) deal with an issue in the proceedings as a preliminary issue,
- (f) hold a hearing to consider any matter, including a case management hearing,
- (g) decide the form of any hearing having considered both parties' preferences,
- (h) adjourn or postpone a hearing,
- (i) with the agreement of both or all of the parties, bring forward a hearing,
- (j) require a party to produce a file of documents for a hearing,
- (k) sist proceedings, and
- (l) suspend the effect of its own decision pending the determination by the First-tier Tribunal or the Upper Tribunal, as the case may be, of an application for permission to appeal against, and any appeal or review of, that decision.

Dismissal of a case

5.—(1) The First-tier Tribunal must dismiss the whole or a part of the proceedings if—

- (a) the First-tier Tribunal does not have jurisdiction in relation to the proceedings or that part of them,
- (b) the appellant has failed to comply with an order which stated that failure by the appellant to comply with the order could lead to the dismissal of the proceedings or part of them, or
- (c) the appellant has failed to co-operate with the First-tier Tribunal to such an extent that the First-tier Tribunal cannot deal with the proceedings fairly and justly.

(2) The First-tier Tribunal may dismiss the whole or a part of the proceedings if the First-tier Tribunal considers there is no reasonable prospect of the appellant's case, or part of it, succeeding.

(3) The First-tier Tribunal may not dismiss the whole or a part of the proceedings under paragraphs (1) or (2) without first giving the appellant an opportunity to make representations in relation to the proposed dismissal.

Notice of appeal

6.—(1) An appeal to the First-tier Tribunal is to be made by giving written notice in accordance with the following paragraphs.

(2) A notice of appeal must include—

- (a) the full name and address of the appellant,
- (b) the full name and address of any authorised representative,
- (c) any other specified address as being the address of the appellant for receipt of any documents from the First-tier Tribunal in connection with the appeal,
- (d) the date and reference number of the notice of rejection,
- (e) any additional representations on any of the statutory grounds of appeal which the appellant wishes to make (but need not include the original representations),
- (f) the name of the respondent authority,
- (g) a statement that the notice is a notice of appeal, and
- (h) the signature of the appellant or the authorised representative.

(3) A notice of appeal is to be received by the First-tier Tribunal within the period of 28 days beginning with the date of service by the respondent authority of a notice of rejection on the appellant.

(4) If the appellant sends the notice of appeal after the end of the 28-day period in paragraph (3), the notice of appeal must include a statement of the reasons on which the appellant relies for justifying the delay, and the First-tier Tribunal must treat any such statement as a request for extending that time limit.

Confirmation of receipt of appeal by the First-tier Tribunal

7.—(1) Within 14 days of receipt of the notice of appeal, the First-tier Tribunal must—

- (a) send an acknowledgement of receipt of the notice of appeal to the appellant,
- (b) enter the particulars of the appeal in the register, and
- (c) send to the respondent authority a copy of the notice of appeal and any order extending the time limit for appealing.

(2) Upon receiving a copy of the notice of appeal in accordance with paragraph (1)(c), the respondent authority must within 21 days—

- (a) send to the First-tier Tribunal a copy of—
 - (i) the original representations,
 - (ii) the penalty charge notice or the bus lane charge notice, and
 - (iii) the notice of rejection, and
- (b) notify the First-tier Tribunal as to the respondent authority's preferred form for a hearing or, if no preference, notification of such, and
- (c) send to the appellant—
 - (i) notification that the documents set out in paragraph 7(2)(a) are available to view electronically through the case management system, or
 - (ii) in cases where the appellant is not conducting the appeal through the case management system, a paper copy of those documents.

(3) Upon receiving a copy of the documents in paragraph (2)(a), the First-tier Tribunal must within 14 days invite the appellant's views as to the appellant's preferred form for a hearing.

Withdrawal of appeal

8.—(1) The appellant may withdraw the appeal—

- (a) at any time before the hearing of the appeal by sending a notice of withdrawal in writing to the First-tier Tribunal, or
- (b) at the hearing of the appeal.

(2) Where an appeal is withdrawn, no further appeal may be made in relation to the same matter.

Further representations

9.—(1) Either party to an appeal may send representations to the First-tier Tribunal at any time before that appeal is determined.

(2) The First-tier Tribunal may invite either party to send to the First-tier Tribunal representations dealing with any matter relating to an appeal within such time, and in such a manner, as may be specified.

(3) Where a party fails to respond to an invitation under paragraph (2), the First-tier Tribunal may draw such inferences as appear to it proper.

(4) Any representations sent under this rule must be signed by the party concerned or the authorised representative.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

(5) Where the appellant sends representations to the First-tier Tribunal under this rule, the First-tier Tribunal must thereafter send, or make electronically available, a copy of the representations to the respondent authority.

(6) Where the respondent authority sends representations to the First-tier Tribunal under this rule, the respondent authority must at the same time send, or make electronically available, a copy of the representations to the appellant.

Attendance of witnesses

10.—(1) The First-tier Tribunal may—

- (a) by citation require any person to attend, at a time and place specified in the citation, to answer any questions as a witness, or
- (b) order any person to produce any document in the person’s custody or control which relates to any matter in the proceedings.

(2) A person receiving a citation under paragraph (1) may apply to the First-tier Tribunal to vary or set aside the citation.

(3) A person is not bound to comply with a citation unless the person has been given at least 7 clear days’ notice of the hearing or, if given less than 7 clear days’ notice, the person has informed the First-tier Tribunal that they accept the notice period given.

(4) A person, other than the parties, is not bound to comply with a citation under paragraph (1) unless the necessary expenses of the person’s attendance are paid or tendered to them.

(5) No person is required under paragraph (1) to give any evidence or produce any document which that person would be entitled to refuse to give or produce in proceedings in a court.

(6) If any person required under paragraph (1) to attend a hearing by the First-tier Tribunal, or to produce any document to the First-tier Tribunal, fails without reasonable excuse to do so, that person will be guilty of an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 2 on the standard scale.

Decision of an appeal without a hearing

11.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the First-tier Tribunal may decide an appeal without a hearing.

(2) The First-tier Tribunal must not decide an appeal without a hearing if either party has requested a hearing unless—

- (a) the party who made the request withdraws said request before notice of a hearing has been sent to the other party under rule 12 (notice of time and place of hearing),
- (b) the party who made the request fails to attend or be represented at the hearing,
- (c) where both parties have been sent a notice of the hearing of an appeal in accordance with rule 12, both parties fail to attend or be represented at the hearing, or
- (d) both parties have subsequently consented to the appeal being decided without a hearing.

(3) Unless both parties consent to the decision taking place on an earlier date, the First-tier Tribunal must not decide an appeal without a hearing until after the expiry of 28 days beginning on the day an acknowledgement is sent in accordance with rule 7(1) (confirmation of receipt of appeal by the First-tier Tribunal).

Notice of time and place of hearing

12.—(1) This rule has effect where a hearing is to be held for the purpose of deciding an appeal.

(2) The First-tier Tribunal must give each party entitled to attend a hearing reasonable notice of the time and place of any hearing and not less than 28 days (or such shorter time as the parties may agree) before the date so fixed, send to each party a notice of hearing or notify the parties in such other manner as it thinks fit.

(3) The First-tier Tribunal may alter the time and place of any hearing and must, not less than 7 days (or such shorter time as the parties may agree) before the date of the hearing, send to the parties a notice of the time and place of the hearing as altered or notify the parties in such other manner as it thinks fit.

(4) This rule applies to an adjourned hearing but where the parties are present, if the time and place of the adjourned hearing are announced before the adjournment, no further notice is required.

Procedure at hearing

13.—(1) At the beginning of the hearing the First-tier Tribunal must explain the procedure which it proposes to adopt.

(2) A hearing must be held in public unless the First-tier Tribunal, on its own initiative or on an application by an appellant, decides that it is necessary to do otherwise to ensure a fair hearing.

(3) The First-tier Tribunal may, with the agreement of both parties, receive evidence by telephone, through a video link or by using any other method of communication if the First-tier Tribunal is satisfied that this would not prejudice the administration of justice and that there is no important public interest consideration which requires a hearing in person.

(4) The First-tier Tribunal may, with the agreement of both parties, permit any other person to attend the hearing of an appeal which is held in private.

(5) The First-tier Tribunal may exclude from the hearing of an appeal, or part of it, any person whose conduct has disrupted or is likely, in the opinion of the First-tier Tribunal, to disrupt the hearing.

(6) Subject to paragraph (7), at the hearing of an appeal a party may conduct the case themselves (with the assistance of any person the party may wish) or may appear and be represented by any person whether or not legally qualified.

(7) If the First-tier Tribunal is satisfied that there are good and sufficient reasons for doing so, it may refuse to permit a particular person to assist or represent a party at the hearing.

(8) At the hearing of an appeal—

(a) the parties are entitled to give evidence, to call witnesses, to question any witnesses and to address the First-tier Tribunal both on the evidence and generally on the subject matter of the appeal, and

(b) the First-tier Tribunal may receive, and take account of, evidence of any fact which appears to it to be relevant notwithstanding that such evidence would be inadmissible in civil proceedings in Scotland.

Evidence and submissions

14.—(1) Without restriction on the general powers in rule 4(1) and (2) (case management powers), the First-tier Tribunal may give orders as to—

(a) any issue on which it requires evidence or submission, and

(b) the nature of the evidence or submission it requires.

(2) The First-tier Tribunal may permit evidence of a bus lane contravention to be given by the production of—

(a) a record produced by an approved device, and

(b) in the same or another document, a certificate as to the circumstances in which the record was produced, signed by a person authorised to do so by the respondent authority.

(3) For the purposes of this rule, an “approved device” means a device certified by the Scottish Ministers under article 2 of the Bus Lanes (Approved Devices) (Scotland) Order 2011⁽¹¹⁾.

(4) A document stated in evidence to be such a record as is mentioned in paragraph (2)(b), or such a certificate as is mentioned in paragraph (2)(b), is to be treated as such a record or certificate, unless the contrary is proved.

Decision of the First-tier Tribunal

15.—(1) Where an appeal is decided at a hearing, the decision of the First-tier Tribunal may be given orally at the end of the hearing or reserved until a later date.

(2) Where, in advance of a decision being made by the First-tier Tribunal the parties reach agreement in writing, the First-tier Tribunal may make such a decision as it thinks fit.

(3) Where, in advance of a decision being made by the First-tier Tribunal the respondent authority agrees to concede their position in writing, the First-tier Tribunal may make such a decision as it thinks fit.

(4) As soon as possible after making a decision, the First-tier Tribunal must issue the decision in writing including a statement of facts and the findings and reasons for the decision to the parties.

(5) The decision referred to in paragraph (4) must be—

(a) signed and dated by a legal member of the First-tier Tribunal, and

(b) accompanied by a notice explaining the parties’ right to request a review of the decision or to request permission to appeal on a point of law, and which is to include the time within which, and the manner in which, such right to request a review or permission to appeal may be exercised.

(6) A record of the decision referred to in paragraph (4) must be recorded as soon as possible in the register, and a copy of the entry in the register sent by the First-tier Tribunal to the parties.

(7) Except where a decision is given orally at the end of the hearing, it is treated as having been made on the date on which a legal member signs the decision referred to in paragraph (4).

Publication of decisions

16.—(1) The First-tier Tribunal must make arrangements for the public pronouncement of its decisions, whether by giving its decisions orally at a public hearing or by publishing its decisions in writing.

(2) A record of decisions will be published in the register and may be published electronically.

(3) Where any decision refers to any evidence that has been heard in private, the reference to that evidence must be omitted from the decision and the First-tier Tribunal may make any necessary amendments to the text of the decision for the purposes of publication.

(4) A decision may be published in edited form, or subject to such deletion or redaction of sensitive data and information as the First-tier Tribunal considers appropriate, bearing in mind any representations on the matter which any person has provided in writing to the First-tier Tribunal at any time prior to publication.

(11) S.S.I. 2011/444.

Review of a decision

17.—(1) The First-tier Tribunal may, at its own instance or at the request of a party, review a decision made by it.

(2) The grounds on which a decision may be reviewed are that—

- (a) the decision was wrongly made as a result of an error on the part of its administrative staff,
- (b) an appellant who had failed to appear or be represented at a hearing had good and sufficient reason for the appellant’s failure to appear,
- (c) where the decision was made after a hearing, new evidence has become available since the conclusion of the hearing, the existence of which could not have been reasonably known about or foreseen by the parties,
- (d) where the decision was made without a hearing, new evidence has become available since the decision was made, the existence of which could not have been reasonably known about or foreseen, or
- (e) the interests of justice require such a review.

(3) A request for a review by a party must—

- (a) be made in writing and copied to the other party,
- (b) be made within 14 days of the date on which the decision is made or within 14 days of the date that the written reasons (if any) were sent to parties, and
- (c) set out why a review of the decision is necessary.

(4) If the First-tier Tribunal considers the request is wholly without merit, the First-tier Tribunal must refuse the request and inform the parties of the reasons for refusal.

(5) Except where the request is rejected under paragraph (4), the First-tier Tribunal must send a notice to the parties—

- (a) setting a time limit for any response to the request by the parties and seek the views of the parties on whether the request is to be determined without a hearing, and
- (b) setting out, if the First-tier Tribunal considers it appropriate to do so, its provisional views on the request for review.

(6) Where the First-tier Tribunal proposes to review a decision at its own instance, it must—

- (a) inform the parties in writing within 14 days of the date on which the decision is made or within 14 days of the date that the written reasons (if any) were sent to the parties, of the reasons why the decision is being reviewed, and
- (b) review the decision as if a request for a review has been made and not refused.

(7) In accordance with rule 11 (decision of an appeal without a hearing), the decision may be reviewed without a hearing.

(8) Where practicable, the review must be undertaken by a different member of the First-tier Tribunal from the member who made the original decision to which the review relates.

Consideration of application for permission to appeal to the Upper Tribunal

18.—(1) A party seeking permission to appeal under section 46(3)(a) of the 2014 Act must make a written application to the First-tier Tribunal.

(2) For the purposes of this rule, the definition of “appeal” set out in rule 1 (interpretation) is not to apply.

(3) An application under paragraph (1) must—

- (a) identify the decision of the First-tier Tribunal to which it relates,

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

- (b) identify the alleged point or points of law on which the party making the application wishes to appeal, and
 - (c) state the result the party making the application is seeking.
- (4) The First-tier Tribunal must decide whether to give permission to appeal to the Upper Tribunal on any point of law.
- (5) The First-tier Tribunal must issue its decision in writing as soon as reasonably practicable to the parties.
- (6) If the First-tier Tribunal refuses permission to appeal, it must provide the parties with its decision under paragraph (5)—
- (a) a statement of its findings and reasons for the refusal, and
 - (b) notification of the right to make an application to the Upper Tribunal for permission to appeal and the time within which, and the method by which, such an application must be made.
- (7) The time limits⁽¹²⁾ within which an application under paragraph (1) can be made exclude any review period in terms of rule 17 (review of a decision).
- (8) For the purposes of this rule, a review period—
- (a) starts on the day the request for review under rule 17 is received by the First-tier Tribunal or, if the review is at the instance of the First-tier Tribunal, the day on which notice is sent to the parties, and
 - (b) ends on the day that the First-tier Tribunal decision on the review is sent to the parties.

Conjoining of appeals

19.—(1) Where there are pending two or more appeals before the First-tier Tribunal and at any time it appears to the First-tier Tribunal that—

- (a) some common question of law or fact arises in both or all of the appeals, or
- (b) for some other reason it is desirable to make an order under this rule, the First-tier Tribunal may order that some or all of the appeals as may be specified in the order are to be considered together and may give such consequential orders as it may consider necessary.

(2) An order is not to be made under this rule unless all parties concerned have been given an opportunity to make representations about the making of such an order.

Expenses

20.—(1) The First-tier Tribunal may, subject to paragraph (2), make an award of expenses by way of an order but only in the following circumstances—

- (a) where it considers that a party has acted frivolously or vexatiously or that the party's conduct in making, pursuing or resisting an appeal was wholly unreasonable, or
- (b) where it considers that the respondent authority's original decision was wholly unreasonable.

(2) An order is not to be made under paragraph (1) against a party unless that party has been given an opportunity to make representations.

(3) An order under paragraph (1) is to require the party against whom it is made to pay to the other party a specified sum in respect of the expenses incurred by that other party in connection with the proceedings.

⁽¹²⁾ The time limits for applying for permission to appeal are set out in regulation 2(1) of S.S.I. 2016/231.

Correction of clerical mistakes or accidental slips or omissions

21. The First-tier Tribunal may at any time correct any clerical mistake or other accidental slip or omission contained in a decision, order or any other document of the First-tier Tribunal, or any document produced by it, by—

- (a) sending notification of the amended decision or order, or a copy of the amended document, to all parties, and
- (b) making any necessary amendment to any information published in relation to the decision, order or document.

Signature of documents

22. Where any of these Rules requires a document to be signed, that requirement will be satisfied—

- (a) if the signature is written, or
- (b) in the case of a document which is communicated electronically in accordance with these Rules—
 - (i) by the electronic signature of the individual who is required to sign it, or
 - (ii) by authentication through the case management system, including by way of the unique personal identification number issued by the respondent authority in respect of the charge notice.

Sending and delivery of notices and documents

23.—(1) This regulation has effect in relation to any notice or other document required or authorised to be provided under a practice direction, an order or these Rules.

(2) Any such notice or document must be—

- (a) sent by pre-paid post properly addressed, delivered by hand or transmitted by electronic communication including through the electronic case management system, or
- (b) sent or delivered by such other method as the First-tier Tribunal may permit or direct.

(3) Subject to paragraph (4), where a party or authorised representative provides an email address (or other details for the electronic transmission of documents to them) and agreement in writing that they will accept notices and documents transmitted in that manner to that specified email address, that party or authorised representative must accept delivery of documents by that method.

(4) If a party informs the First-tier Tribunal and all other parties that a particular form of communication (other than pre-paid post or delivery by hand) should not be used to provide documents to that party, that form of communication must not be so used.

(5) If the First-tier Tribunal or a party sends by email, or any other means of electronic communication, to a party or the First-tier Tribunal—

- (a) a document, or
- (b) notification of a document's availability for electronic viewing including through the case management system, the recipient may request that the sender provide a paper copy of the document to the recipient provided that such a request is made by the recipient within 14 days of receiving said document or notification electronically.

(6) The First-tier Tribunal and each party may assume that the address provided by a party or its authorised representative is and remains the address to which documents should be sent or delivered until receiving notification to the contrary.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally made).

The register

24.—(1) A register must be kept by the First-tier Tribunal and must be open for inspection during reasonable hours by any person without charge.

(2) The register may be kept in electronic form via a dedicated website.

(3) If the register is kept in electronic form, the duty to allow inspection is to be treated as a duty to allow inspection of a reproduction in legible form of the recording of the entry the inspection of which is being sought.

(4) A document purporting to be certified by the First-tier Tribunal to be a true copy of any entry of a decision in a register is to be evidence of the entry and of the matters contained in it.
