

Ecclesiastical Judges and Legal Officers Measure 1976 (repealed)

1976 No. 2

2 Number of chancellorships to be held by one person may be limited.

After section 2 of the <sup>M1</sup>Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction Measure 1963 there shall be inserted the following section:—

“2A Number of chancellorships to be held by one person may be limited.

- (1) Regulations made by the House of Bishops of the General Synod may make provision with respect to the maximum number of chancellorships of dioceses which any one person may hold.
- (2) Nothing in any regulation made under this section shall be taken as prohibiting any person who at the date on which the regulation comes into force holds more than the maximum number of chancellorships prescribed by the regulation from continuing to hold such offices.
- (3) Regulations made under this section shall be laid before the General Synod and shall not come into operation until they have been approved by the General Synod.
- (4) The Statutory Instruments Act 1946 shall apply to any regulation approved under subsection (3) of this section as if they were a statutory instrument and were made when so approved, and as if this Measure were an Act providing that any such regulations should be subject to annulment in pursuance of a resolution of either House of Parliament.”

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 The text of ss. 1 and 2 is in the form in which it was originally enacted: it was not reproduced in Statutes in Force and does not reflect any amendments or repeals which may have been made prior to 1.2.1991.
