

Ordination of Women (Financial Provisions) Measure 1993

1993 No. 3

3 Resettlement grants.

- (1) A resettlement grant under section 1(1)(b) above shall be a single payment of an amount equal to three-tenths of the national minimum stipend for the year in which application for the grant was made or such greater amount as the Board may, with the concurrence of the Commissioners, determine.
- (2) Such a grant shall not be paid unless the Board is satisfied that the applicant was, immediately before the material time, residing in accommodation made available to him in order to enable him to undertake the service from which he has resigned.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Ordination of Women (Financial Provisions) Measure 1993, Section 3.