

Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction and Care of Churches Measure 2018

2018 No. 3

PART 2

LEGAL OFFICERS

32 Registrars: term of office

- (1) The term of a person's appointment as registrar of a province or diocese ends with the day on which the person reaches—
 - (a) the age of 70, or
 - (b) such lower age as the House of Bishops may specify in regulations.
- (2) Provision made in regulations under subsection (1)(b) does not apply to a person who, at the date on which the provision comes into force, is the holder of an office to which the provision applies.
- (3) The registrar of a province may resign the office by instrument in writing signed by him or her and addressed to, and served on, the archbishop of the province.
- (4) The registrar of a diocese may resign the office by instrument in writing signed by him or her and addressed to, and served on, the bishop of the diocese.
- (5) An instrument of the kind referred to in subsection (3) or (4) must specify the date on which the resignation is to take effect; and that date must be—
 - (a) at least twelve months after the service of the instrument, or
 - (b) such earlier date as the archbishop or bishop in question may allow.
- (6) The archbishop of a province may, with the consent of the other archbishop, terminate the appointment of a person as registrar of the province; the power is exercisable by instrument in writing signed by the archbishop and addressed to, and served on, the person.

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted).

- (7) The bishop of a diocese may, with the consent of the archbishop of the province in which the diocese is situated, terminate the appointment of a person as registrar of the diocese; the power is exercisable by instrument in writing signed by the bishop and addressed to, and served on, the person.
- (8) An instrument of the kind referred to in subsection (6) or (7) must specify the date on which the termination is to take effect; and that date must be at least twelve months after the service of the instrument.
- (9) Regulations under this section—
 - (a) must be laid before the General Synod, and
 - (b) may not come into force unless they have been approved by the Synod.
