- (b) in the acquisition of freehold land in England and Wales or of leasehold land in England and Wales of which the unexpired term at the time of acquisition is not less than sixty years, and
- (c) in any investment fund or deposit fund constituted under the Church Funds Investment Measure 1958.

(2) The Board may retain any investment given to them by way of legacy or otherwise notwithstanding that it is not an investment which the Board would have power to acquire under subsection (1) above.]

(3) Not more than one-half of the property of any fund administered by the Board, as valued at the date of acquisition thereof, may at any time be invested in [<sup>F35</sup>any investment falling within Part III of Schedule 1 to the Trustee Investments Act 1961]; and for the purposes of this subsection the value of property at the date of the acquisition thereof means:—

- (a) if the property was acquired by purchase, the purchase price thereof;
- (b) if the property was acquired by gift, inter vivos, the value of the property as valued by a person who in the opinion of the Board is qualified to value that property; and
- (c) if the property was acquired under a testamentary disposition, the value thereof for probate purposes.

[<sup>F36</sup>This subsection does not apply to a fund to which section 32A of this Measure applies.]

(4) ..... <sup>F37</sup>

(8) In this section, unless the context otherwise requires, the following expressions have the meanings hereby respectively assigned to them, that is to say—

“property” includes real or personal property of any description, but does not include any land or building used for the purposes of a home of residence under section twenty-six of this Measure;
