(This note is not part of the Regulations)

Section 115 of the Police Act 1997 (“the Act”) provides for the issue by the Secretary of State of an enhanced criminal record certificate. Applications for such a certificate must be accompanied by a statement from a person registered under section 120 of the Act that the certificate is required for the purpose of an exempted question (defined at section 113(5) of the Act) in the course of considering the applicant’s suitability for a position involving the regular care, training, supervision or being in sole charge of children and certain adults or for the purposes of issuing gaming and other types of certificates and licences.

Regulation 2 defines the term vulnerable adult and other terms used in the Regulations.

Regulation 3 prescribes the range of positions involving the regular care, training, supervision or being in sole charge of adults to which section 115 of the Act applies to those involving regular contact with vulnerable adults.
