(3) In the case of an individual who lives in two gender roles and who wishes details of both genders to be recorded in, or to continue to be recorded in the Register, a form made available for the purpose by the Identity and Passport Service must be completed in relation to each of the genders.

Prescribed information to accompany application for entry in Register

5.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the information prescribed for the purposes of section 5(3)(a) of the 2006 Act (Prescribed information to accompany application to be entered in the Register) in relation to an applicant is –

- (a) such of the information specified in Schedule 1 as is stated to apply in the case of all applicants, together with such other of the information so specified as is relevant to that applicant;
- (b) in the case of a relevant airside worker, the name of the employer with whom the applicant holds or has applied for employment that requires the employee to obtain an airside pass; and
- (c) in the case of an individual who lives in two gender roles and who is applying for details of both genders to be entered in the Register –
 - (i) the individual's second gender;
 - (ii) the individual's name in that second gender; and
 - (iii) the individual's signature in that name.

(2) Any information set out in Schedule 1 is not prescribed information in relation to an applicant where, in the circumstances of the particular case (including any urgency in relation to the application), it is not reasonably practicable for the applicant to provide the information.

Prescribed information to accompany an application which confirms, with or without changes, the contents of an entry in the Register

6.—(1) Subject to paragraph (4), the information prescribed for the purposes of section 5(3)(b) of the 2006 Act (Prescribed information to accompany an application which confirms, with or without changes, the contents of an entry in the Register) is as set out in paragraphs (2) and (3).

(2) In the case of an application to which section 6(6)(b) of the 2006 Act applies, the prescribed information in relation to an applicant is -

- (a) such of the information specified in Schedule 2 as is stated to apply in the case of all applicants, together with such other of the information so specified as is relevant to that applicant;
- (b) in the case of an individual who lives in two gender roles and who is confirming with changes an entry in the Register in connection with an application for a second ID card in a different gender –
 - (i) the individual's second gender;
 - (ii) the individual's name in that second gender; and
 - (iii) the individual's signature in that name.

(3) In the case of an application to which section 5(2)(b) or (c) of the 2006 Act applies, the prescribed information in relation to an applicant is such of the information specified in Schedule 3 as is stated to apply in the case of all applicants, together with such other of the information so specified as is relevant to that applicant.

(4) Any information referred to in paragraph (1) above is not prescribed information in relation to an applicant where, in the circumstances of the particular case (including any urgency in relation to the application) it is not reasonably practicable for the applicant to provide the information.

Issue of ID card

7.—(1) The cases specified in paragraph (2) are prescribed cases for the purposes of section 6(5) of the 2006 Act (Issue etc. of ID cards).

(2) The cases referred to in paragraph (1) are-

- (a) where an individual who lives in two gender roles and who has been issued with, or makes an application for, an ID card applies for a second ID card in a different gender; and
- (b) where an individual is a relevant airside worker who is not entitled to be entered in the Register and who resides outside the United Kingdom.

Prescribed registrable facts

8.—(1) Subject to paragraph (2), the following registrable facts about an individual are prescribed for the purposes of section 6(5)(b) of the 2006 Act (Issue etc. of ID cards) –

- (a) the individual's full name;
- (b) the address of a place of residence of the individual;
- (c) the individual's gender assigned at birth and, where applicable, acquired gender;
- (d) the individual's place of birth;
- (e) the individual's date of birth;
- (f) the individual's nationality;
- (g) a photograph of the individual's head and shoulders (showing the features of the face); and
- (h) the individual's ten fingerprints.

(2) Where fewer than ten of the individual's fingerprints are recorded in the Register or none of the individual's fingerprints is recorded in the Register, paragraph (1)(h) shall be modified so as to refer only to the number of the individual's fingerprints that are recorded in the Register or to the fact that no fingerprints have been recorded.

Manner of application for an ID card with designated document

9.—(1) The manner in which an application by an individual to be issued with an ID card is to be included in an application to be issued with a designated document is prescribed for the purposes of section 6(7) of the 2006 Act (Applications for the issue of an ID card) as set out in paragraph (2).

(2) The prescribed manner is –

- (a) by including in the application to be issued with the designated document a declaration that the individual is making their application for a designated document in connection with an application for the issue of an ID card;
- (b) by making the application for the issue of an ID card in person by prior appointment to an appropriate office of the Identity and Passport Service ;
- (c) subject to paragraph (4), by submitting the application on a form made available for the purpose by the Identity and Passport Service; and
- (d) by including in the application the reference number of the application for a designated document.

(3) The application shall be accompanied by the relevant prescribed fee.

(4) In the case of an individual who lives in two gender roles and who is applying to be issued with an ID card in each gender, a form made available for the purpose by the Identity and Passport Service must be completed in relation to each of the genders.

Manner of making other applications for the issue of an ID card

10.—(1) The manner in which other applications for the issue of an ID card are to be made is prescribed for the purposes of section 6(8) of the 2006 Act (Applications for the issue of an ID card) as set out in paragraph (2).

(2) The prescribed manner is –

- (a) by making the application for the issue of an ID card in person by prior appointment to an appropriate office of the Identity and Passport Service; and
- (b) subject to paragraph (4), by submitting the application on a form made available for the purpose by the Identity and Passport Service.

(3) The application shall be accompanied by the relevant prescribed fee.

(4) In the case of an individual who lives in two gender roles and who is applying to be issued with an ID card in each gender, a form made available for the purpose by the Identity and Passport Service must be completed in relation to each of the genders.

Prescribed information to accompany application for issue of an ID card

11.—(1) Subject to paragraph (3), where an application by an individual for the issue of an ID card accompanies an application made by the individual to be entered in the Register, the information prescribed for the purposes of section 6(8)(c) of the 2006 Act (prescribed information to accompany application for an ID card) is the information prescribed by regulation 5 in so far as it is relevant to that application.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), where an application by an individual for the issue of an ID card confirms (with or without changes) the contents of an entry already made in the Register for that individual, the information prescribed for the purposes of section 6(8)(c) of the 2006 Act (Prescribed information to accompany application for an ID card) is the information set out in regulation 6, in so far as it is relevant to that application.

(3) Any information prescribed by paragraphs (1) or (2) is not prescribed information in relation to an applicant where it is not reasonably practicable in all the circumstances, including taking into account any urgency in relation to the application, for the applicant to provide the relevant information.

Requirements on designated documents authorities

12.—(1) A designated documents authority must comply with the requirements specified in paragraph (2) when handling an application made to it that confirms (with or without changes) the contents of an individual's entry in the Register.

(2) The requirements referred to in paragraph (1) are that the designated documents authority must, before issuing a designated document to the applicant –

- (a) ask the applicant to confirm whether the information provided by the applicant to it under regulation 6 –
 - (i) is, or
 - (ii) when the entry has been amended in accordance with an application or notification already made to the Identity and Passport Service, will be the same as that recorded in the applicant's entry in the Register;
- (b) if in response to the question posed under sub-paragraph (a) the applicant indicates that the information has changed in any respect, provide to the Identity and Passport Service details of the changed information;
- (c) verify with the Identity and Passport Service that the information provided to it by the applicant under regulation 6 is the same as that recorded in the applicant's entry in the Register in relation to those matters; and
- (d) immediately prior to issue of the designated document, obtain confirmation from the Identity and Passport Service that there is no outstanding –
 - (i) application by the applicant under section 6 of the 2006 Act for the issue of an ID card; or
 - (ii) notification by the applicant under section 10 of the 2006 Act of a change of circumstances affecting, or an error in, the information recorded about the applicant in the Register.

Prescribed changes of circumstances

13.—(1) The following changes of circumstances are prescribed for the purposes of section 10(1) (a) of the 2006 Act (Notification of changes affecting accuracy of Register) –

- (a) change of address of principal place of residence or of any other place of residence recorded in the individual's entry in the Register, including where an individual will no longer have a place of residence in the United Kingdom;
- (b) change of a name which has been recorded in the individual's entry in the Register;
- (c) the individual becoming known for official purposes by a name not recorded in the individual's entry in the Register;
- (d) change of nationality of the individual;
- (e) change of gender of the individual in a case where the individual has obtained a gender recognition certificate from the Gender Recognition Panel;

- (f) permanent and significant changes to the individual's signature as recorded on the ID card;
- (g) permanent and significant changes to the features of the individual's face such that the person cannot be identified from the photograph on the individual's ID card; and
- (h) the loss of, or permanent and significant changes to, the individual's fingerprints as recorded on the ID card.

Manner of notification

14.—(1) The manner in which a notification must be given for the purposes of section 10 of the 2006 Act is prescribed for the purposes of section 10(2)(a) as set out in paragraph (2).

- (2) The prescribed manner is by giving the notification either -
 - (a) by telephone to a number designated by the Identity and Passport Service, as being a number which is available for the notification of changes under section 10 of the 2006 Act and the notification of lost, stolen, damaged, tampered with or destroyed ID cards under section 11 of that Act; or
 - (b) in person –
 - (i) by prior appointment at an appropriate office of the Identity and Passport Service, and
 - (ii) by completing a form made available for the purpose by the Identity and Passport Service.

Period within which notification to be made

15. The period prescribed for the purposes of section 10(2)(b) of the 2006 Act, being the period within which a notification for the purposes of section 10 must be given, is a period of three months after the change of circumstances occurs or the individual in question becomes aware of the error.

Requirement to notify Secretary of State if ID card is lost, stolen etc.

16.—(1) An individual to whom an ID card has been issued must notify the Secretary of State if such individual knows or has reason to suspect that the card has been –

- (a) lost;
 - (b) stolen;
 - (c) damaged;
 - (d) tampered with; or
 - (e) destroyed.
- (2) A notification for the purposes of this regulation must -
- (a) be given in one of the following ways -
 - (i) by telephone to a number designated by the Identity and Passport Service, as being a number which is available for the notification of changes under section 10 of the 2006 Act and the notification of lost, stolen, damaged, tampered with or destroyed ID cards under section 11 of that Act;
 - (ii) in person by prior appointment at an appropriate office of the Identity and Passport Service, or
 - (iii) if overseas, in person by prior appointment at a United Kingdom embassy or consulate;

- (b) be given within a period of one month, beginning with the day on which the individual becomes aware that the card has, or may have, been lost, stolen, damaged, tampered with or destroyed; and
- (c) include the provision of sufficient evidence to establish that the individual giving the notification is the individual to whom the ID card has been issued.

Prescribed part of entry in Register

17. The part of an individual’s entry in the Register that is prescribed for the purposes of section 6(2)(b) of the 2006 Act (Issue etc. of ID cards) is the part containing all the information for the time being recorded in the individual’s entry in the Register other than information falling within paragraph 9 of Schedule 1 to that Act (Records of provision of information).

Validity period of ID cards

18. The period prescribed for the purposes of section 6(3)(c) of the 2006 Act is the period which ends on the date after the expiry of ten years beginning with the date of issue.

Place of residence and principal place of residence

19.—(1) A place is only to be regarded as a place of residence of an individual in circumstances where it is a place of abode of that person.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3), a place is to be regarded as the principal place of residence in the United Kingdom of an individual in circumstances where it is the place of residence of the individual where the individual resides most frequently.

(3) In applying the test set out in paragraph (2), no regard is to be had to a temporary change in the place where a person most frequently resides.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations prescribe various matters in relation to applications for entry on the National Identity Register (established under section 1 of the Identity Cards Act 2006 (“the 2006 Act”), applications for an ID card and notification of changes. They also make provision in relation to the circumstances in which a place will be regarded as a place in which an individual resides or a person's principal place of residence in the United Kingdom.

A list of designated offices can be found in the Identity and Passport Service Guidance IDCG-01 which may be obtained on request from the Identity and Passport Service. All forms required by these regulations may also be obtained on request from the Identity and Passport Service.

Regulation 2 prescribes the manner in which an application for entry in the National Identity Register (“the Register”) is to be included in an application for a designated document. Regulation 3 prescribes the manner in which an application for entry in the Register is to be made in other cases.

Regulation 4 prescribes the manner of confirming, with or without changes, the contents of an entry already made in the Register.

Regulation 5, together with Schedule 1, prescribes the information which is to accompany an application to be entered in the Register. Regulation 6, together with Schedules 2 and 3 prescribes the information which is to accompany an application which confirms, with or without changes, the contents of the applicant's entry in the Register. Part 1 of Schedule 1 deals with information to accompany the application form, whereas Part 2 lists documents to be included with the form. Paragraphs 1 and 2 of Part 1 list information to be included by all applicants. Paragraphs 3 to 10 list additional information to be included by particular categories of individual, depending on their nationality and, in the case of a British citizen, whether the individual holds a valid United Kingdom passport. Regulations 5(2) and 6(4) provide that information set out in the Schedule is not prescribed information in relation to an applicant where it is not practicable for the applicant to provide the information.

Regulations 7 to 11 deal with the issue of ID cards. Regulation 7 prescribes, for the purposes of section 6(5), the cases of a person who is dual gendered and who applies for a second ID card in the second gender and a relevant airside worker who resides outside the United Kingdom. The effect of being so prescribed is that in those circumstances a card may be issued to the individual provided that the prescribed registrable facts are entered in the Register. Regulation 8 prescribes the registrable facts for the purposes of section 6(5).

Regulations 9 and 10 prescribe the manner in which an application for an ID card is to be made. Regulation 11 prescribes the information which is to accompany an application for the issue of an ID card.

Regulation 12 imposes requirements on designated documents authorities regulating how they handle applications made to them that confirm (with or without changes) the contents of an individual's entry in the Register.

Regulation 13 prescribes changes of circumstances affecting the information recorded about an individual in the Register which need to be notified by the individual to the Secretary of State under section 10 of the 2006 Act.

Regulation 14 prescribes the manner in which a notification under section 10 must be given. It provides that notification is to be given either by telephone to a number designated by the Identity and Passport Service, or in person at an appropriate office of the Identity and Passport Service.

Regulation 15 provides that a notification under section 10 must be given within a period of three months, beginning with the day on which the change of circumstances occurs or the individual becomes aware of the error affecting the information recorded in the Register.

Regulation 16 provides that an individual to whom an ID card has been issued must notify the Secretary of State if the individual knows or has reason to suspect that the card has been lost, stolen, damaged, tampered with or destroyed. Paragraph (2) makes supplemental provision concerning the manner of giving a notification and the period within which a notification must be given.

Regulation 17 prescribes the part of the Register, the data that is to be carried on the card, that is prescribed for the purposes of section 6(2)(b) of the 2006 Act.

Regulation 18 deals with the validity period for an ID card. This will be ten years.

Regulations 19 makes provision about the circumstances in which, in relation to an individual, a place is to be regarded as a place where the individual resides and the individual's principal place of residence in the United Kingdom.
