PART 3

CHARGING SCHEDULES

Correction of errors in examiner's recommendations

- 24.—(1) This regulation applies if—
- (a) the document recording the examiner's recommendations and reasons contains a correctable error; and
  - (b) the draft charging schedule in respect of which the recommendations were made has not been approved by the charging authority in accordance with section 213 of PA 2008.
- (2) The examiner may correct the error—
- (a) of the examiner's own volition; or
  - (b) if requested to do so in writing by the charging authority.
- (3) If a correction is made under this regulation—
- (a) the examiner's original recommendations and reasons cease to have effect;
  - (b) the charging authority must give notice of the correction to those persons who requested to be notified of the publication of the examiner's recommendations and reasons;
  - (c) the revised recommendations and reasons must be published in accordance with regulation 23; and
  - (d) the revised recommendations and reasons have effect on the day they are received by the charging authority.
- (4) In paragraph (1) "correctable error" means an error which—
- (a) does not alter the substance of the recommendations or reasons; or
  - (b) must be corrected to make the recommendations consistent with the reasons given for those recommendations.
