EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Order)

This Order amends Schedule 1 to the Legal Aid, Sentencing and Punishment of Offenders Act 2012 (c. 10) (“the Act”), which sets out the scope of civil legal aid.

(a) OJ No L 192, 22.7.11, p 51-70.

(b) 1981 c. 54; section 31 was amended by S.I. 2004/1033 and the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (c. 15), section 141.

Article 3 adds a new paragraph 7A to Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act to provide that civil legal services are available in relation to a review by the First-tier Tribunal under section 9 of the Tribunals, Courts and Enforcement Act 2007 (c. 15) of a decision made by it in a case relating to welfare benefits, if one of two conditions is met. The first condition is that the civil legal services are provided to the individual in relation to making representations to the First-tier Tribunal in circumstances where the Tribunal has invited such representations as part of a review of its decision. The second condition is that the civil legal services are provided to an individual in relation to an application to the First-tier Tribunal for any action taken following a review to be set aside and for the First-tier Tribunal's decision to be reviewed again, in circumstances where the Tribunal has taken that action without first giving every party an opportunity to make representations. This new paragraph is subject to the exclusions in Part 2 of Schedule 1 of the Act, except for paragraphs 1 and 15, and to the exclusion in Part 3 of Schedule 1 to the Act.

Article 4 amends paragraph 18 of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act to provide that civil legal services are available in relation to an application under Article 10 of the Convention on the international recovery of child support and other forms of family maintenance concluded at The Hague on 23 November 2007, for the recognition, enforcement or establishment of a decision in relation to maintenance. Civil legal services will also be available to an individual for proceedings in England and Wales in relation to recognition and enforcement of a maintenance decision where the individual makes a request directly to a competent authority for recognition and enforcement of the decision. Legal aid will only be available in these circumstances if the individual previously received legal aid in the State of origin.

Articles 5 and 6 amend Schedule 1 to the Act in respect of civil legal services provided in relation to judicial review. Article 6 adds to Part 2 of Schedule 1 a new exclusion for civil legal services provided in relation to judicial review of an enactment, decision, act or omission. Article 5 provides an exception to this exclusion in paragraph 19(2) of Part 1 of Schedule 1. This ensures that legal aid is available for judicial review only as set out in paragraph 19 of Part 1 of Schedule 1 to the Act, which continues to be subject to a number of general and specific exclusions.
