2013 No.

The Social Security (Personal Independence Payment) Regulations 2013

PART 3

Required period condition

The prescribed date

- 14. Except where paragraph (2) or (3) of regulation 15 applies, the prescribed date is—
- (a) where C has made a claim for personal independence payment which has not been determined, the date of that claim or, if later, the earliest date in relation to which, if C had been assessed in relation to C's ability to carry out daily living activities or, as the case may be, mobility activities, at every time in the previous 3 months, it is likely that the Secretary of State would have determined at that time that C had limited ability or, as the case may be, severely limited ability to carry out those activities; and
  - (b) where C has an award of either or both components, each day of that award.
