

Amendments to the 2001 Regulations

2. In regulation 35 of the 2001 Regulations (registration officer's right to inspect certain records), in paragraph (2), after sub-paragraph (a) (but before the "and" following it) insert—

“(aa) where the council by which he was appointed is a council for a district in a county for which there is a county council, that county council;”.

3. After regulation 35 of the 2001 Regulations insert—

“Disclosure of certain local authorities' records

35A.—(1) A local authority listed in paragraph (2) may disclose to a registration officer information contained in records held by that authority, for any of the purposes mentioned in paragraph 1A(1) of Schedule 2 to the 1983 Act.

(2) The authorities are—

- (a) the authority by which the registration officer was appointed; and
- (b) where the council by which the registration officer was appointed is a council for a district in a county for which there is a county council, that county council.

(3) A disclosure under paragraph (1) may be made only in accordance with a written agreement between the authority and the registration officer regulating the processing of the information, including its transfer, storage, destruction and security.

(4) Where an authority refuses a request by a registration officer to disclose information under paragraph (1) it must give the registration officer written reasons for its refusal.”

Amendments to the Representation of the People (England and Wales) (Description of Electoral Registers and Amendment) Regulations 2013

4. In regulation 22 of the Representation of the People (England and Wales) (Description of Electoral Registers and Amendment) Regulations 2013(a) (amendments in relation to invitations to apply for registration etc.), in regulation 32ZD of the 2001 Regulations (steps following invitation to apply for registration), as inserted by regulation 22, after paragraph (5) insert—

“(6) Paragraphs (1) to (3) do not apply in relation to a person whom the registration officer has reason to believe would, if registered, be registered—

- (a) in pursuance of an application made by virtue of section 7(2) or 7A(2) of the 1983 Act(b);
- (b) in pursuance of a declaration of local connection, service declaration or overseas elector's declaration; or
- (c) with an anonymous entry.”

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Representation of the People (England and Wales) Regulations 2001 (S.I. 2001/341). Regulation 2 enables a registration officer appointed by a district council where there is a two-tier authority to have access to records held by the relevant county council. Regulation 3 authorises the district council and the county council to disclose information to a registration officer for certain registration purposes.

The Regulations also amend the Representation of the People (England and Wales) (Description of Electoral Registers and Amendment) Regulations 2013 (S.I. 2013/3198), which amend the 2001 Regulations as part of the introduction of a new system of individual electoral registration in Great Britain.

Regulation 4 provides that, where a registration officer has invited a person whom he has reason to believe would be a special category elector such as an overseas elector or a person with a service declaration, or would have an anonymous entry in the register, to apply to be registered, the officer does not have to carry out follow-up steps such as visiting the elector.

An overall impact assessment in relation to the individual electoral registration scheme is available on the Cabinet Office website at <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/individual-electoral-registration-impact-assessment>.
