(ii) for the second subparagraph substitute—

“The first subparagraph of this paragraph 1a does not prevent the exercise by the appropriate authority of any power to disapply the requirement for the annual monitoring programme with respect to animals mentioned in that point in remote areas with a low animal density, where no collection of dead animals takes place, provided that the total number of animals excluded from the monitoring programme in the United Kingdom as a whole is not more than 10% of the bovine population in the United Kingdom.”;

(c) for paragraph 1b substitute—

“1b. Annual monitoring programmes may be revised by the appropriate authority to determine the effectiveness of the measures in place and ensure protection of human and animal health based on a comprehensive risk analysis.”

(6) In Article 6a, for paragraph 2 substitute—

“2. The appropriate authority may by regulations provide for ovine breeding programmes to select breeds that show evidence of resistance to TSEs.”

(7) In Article 7—

(a) for paragraphs 3 and 4 substitute—

“3. The appropriate authority may, on the basis of a scientific assessment of the dietary needs of young ruminants decide to use any power that the appropriate authority has to allow the feeding to them of proteins derived from fish.

4. No imports or exports are permitted of—

(a) feed intended for farmed animals which contains protein derived from mammals from countries, or regions thereof, with an undetermined BSE risk; or

(b) feed, other than feed for dogs, cats and fur animals, which contains processed protein derived from mammals intended for mammals from countries or regions thereof with an undetermined BSE risk;

except in accordance with a tolerance level prescribed by regulations under paragraph 5 or an individual exemption in regulations under Article 23a.”;

(b) for paragraph 4a substitute—

“5. On the basis of a favourable risk assessment the appropriate authority may by regulations prescribe a tolerance level for insignificant amounts of animal proteins in feedingstuffs caused through adventitious and technically unavoidable contamination.”;

(c) for paragraph 5 substitute—

“6. The appropriate authority may by regulations make rules on the prevention of cross-contamination and on the methods of sampling and analysis required to check compliance with this Article.”.

(8) In Article 8, for paragraphs 5 and 6 substitute—

“5. Each authority which in relation to any part of the United Kingdom is the appropriate authority may by regulations—

- (a) prescribe the age of bovine animals from which the vertebral column is to be treated as specified risk material;
- (b) amend the list of specified risk material in Annex 5;
- (c) prescribe an alternative test to be listed in point 5 of Chapter C of Annex 10;
- (d) provide for exemptions;
- (e) prescribe, as respects any country or region with a controlled BSE risk—
  - (i) the date considered by the appropriate authority to be the date from which effective enforcement of a ban on use of mammalian protein in ruminant feed began, and
  - (ii) that only animals born before that date must have specified risk material removed and destroyed before being moved into or placed on the market.”.

(9) In Article 9—

- (a) in paragraph 1, for “the procedure referred to in Article 24(3)” substitute “regulations made by the appropriate authority”;
- (b) in paragraph 2, omit the words from “Before 1 July 2008” to the end;

PART 3

Saving and transitional provision

Saving and transitional provision for retained direct EU legislation in relation to model documents

12.—(1) Notwithstanding anything in these Regulations, a document in the form of any standard model set out in retained direct EU legislation, as it had effect immediately before exit day, may continue to be used in relation to a matter in connection with which the model form is provided for such period as the appropriate authority or appropriate Minister may determine.

(2) Where these Regulations amend any provision of retained direct EU legislation which, on or after exit day, forms part of domestic law to enable the use of a document “made available or published for the time being”, “made available or published from time to time” or “published from time to time”, that amendment does not preclude the use of that document in the model form set out in the text of any such retained direct EU legislation (as it appeared immediately before the date on which these Regulations come into force) from being presented or otherwise used—

- (a) on or after exit day, in relation to the matter in connection with which the model form is provided instead of the equivalent document as published in accordance with that amendment; and
- (b) as described in paragraph (a), for such further period after that date as the appropriate authority or appropriate Minister decides is necessary for transitional purposes.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made in exercise of the powers conferred by the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c. 16) in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively and other deficiencies (in particular under section 8(2)(a), (b), (d), (f) and (g)) arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union.

These Regulations make amendments to legislation in the field of animal health and welfare and food composition and labelling providing for functions of the European Commission of making an instrument of a legislative character to be exercisable instead by the Secretary of State or the “appropriate authority” as defined.

An impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private or voluntary sector is foreseen.
