Substitution of Title 2: Determination as to when the legislation of the United Kingdom is applicable

For Title 2 substitute—

“Title 2

Determination as to when the legislation of the United Kingdom is applicable

Article A11

Purpose of this Title

This Title contains provisions that determine for the purposes of this Regulation:

- (a) which persons to whom this Regulation applies are subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom; and
- (b) which persons to whom this Regulation applies are treated as subject to the legislation of a Member State.

Article 11

General rules

1. The persons subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom, and the persons treated as being subject to the legislation of a Member State, are to be determined in accordance with this Title.
2. For the purposes of this Title, persons receiving cash benefits because or as a consequence of their activity as an employed or self-employed person shall be considered to be pursuing the said activity. This shall not apply to invalidity, old-age or survivors' pensions or to pensions in respect of accidents at work or occupational diseases or to sickness benefits in cash covering treatment for an unlimited period.
3. The question of whether a person was subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom at a time before exit day is to be determined as it would have been determined immediately before exit day.
4. Subject to Articles 12 to 16, on or after exit day, the following persons are subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom:
  - (a) a person pursuing an activity as an employed or self-employed person in the United Kingdom;
  - (b) a civil servant if the administration employing the person is subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom;
  - (c) a person receiving unemployment benefits in accordance with Article 65 under the legislation of the United Kingdom as the person's state of residence;
  - (d) a person called up or recalled for service in the armed forces or for civilian service in the United Kingdom;
  - (e) any other person to whom sub-paragraphs (a) to (d) do not apply if:
    - (i) the United Kingdom is the person's state of residence; and
    - (ii) the person is not treated as being subject to the legislation of a Member State in accordance with paragraph 6.
5. The question of whether a person was subject to the legislation of a Member State (other than the United Kingdom) at a time before exit day is to be determined as it would have been determined immediately before exit day.

6. Subject to Articles 12 to 16, on or after exit day the following persons are treated as being subject to the legislation of a Member State:

- (a) a person pursuing an activity as an employed or self-employed person in that Member State;
- (b) a civil servant if the administration employing the person is subject to the legislation of that Member State;
- (c) a person receiving unemployment benefits in accordance with Article 65 under the legislation of that Member State as the person's state of residence;
- (d) a person called up or recalled for service in the armed forces or for civilian service in that Member State;
- (e) any other person to whom paragraphs (a) to (d) do not apply if that Member State is the person's state of residence.

7. For the purposes of this Title, subject to paragraph 8, an activity as an employed or self-employed person normally pursued on board a vessel at sea flying the flag of a State shall be deemed to be an activity pursued in that State.

8. A person employed on board a vessel flying the flag of the United Kingdom and remunerated for such activity by an undertaking or a person whose registered office or place of business is in a Member State ("the employer's Member State") shall be subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom if the employed person resides in the United Kingdom or a Member State other than the employer's Member State. The undertaking or person paying the remuneration shall be considered as the employer for these purposes.

9. An activity as a flight crew or cabin crew member performing air passenger or freight services shall be deemed to be an activity pursued in the United Kingdom where the home base, as defined in Annex III to Regulation (EEC) No 3922/91, is located in the United Kingdom.

Article 12

Special rules

1. A person ("P") who pursues an activity as an employed person in the United Kingdom on behalf of an employer which normally carries out its activities there and who is posted by that employer to a Member State to perform work on that employer's behalf shall continue to be subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom, provided that the anticipated duration of such work does not exceed 24 months and P is not sent to replace another posted person.

2. A person ("P") who pursues an activity as an employed person in a Member State on behalf of an employer which normally carries out its activities there and who is posted to the United Kingdom to perform work on that employer's behalf shall be treated as being subject to the legislation of that Member State provided that the anticipated duration of such work does not exceed 24 months and P is not sent to replace another posted person.

3. A person who normally pursues an activity as a self-employed person in the United Kingdom who goes to pursue a similar activity in a Member State shall continue to be subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom, provided that the anticipated duration of such activity does not exceed 24 months.

4. A person who normally pursues an activity as a self-employed person in a Member State who comes to the United Kingdom to pursue a similar activity shall be treated as being subject to the legislation of that Member State provided that the anticipated duration of such activity does not exceed 24 months.

Article 13

Pursuit of activities in two or more States

1. A person who normally pursues an activity as an employed person both in the United Kingdom and one or more Member States shall be subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom:

- (a) if the person resides in the United Kingdom and pursues a substantial part of that activity in the United Kingdom;
- (b) in the case of a person who does not pursue a substantial part of that activity in the state where that person resides, if:
  - (i) the registered office or place of business of the undertaking or employer or, where the person is employed by two or more undertakings or employers, all of the registered offices or places of business of the undertakings or employers employing the person are situated in the United Kingdom;
  - (ii) the person resides in a Member State (“the employed person’s Member State”) and is employed by two or more undertakings or employers whose registered offices or places of business are situated only in the United Kingdom and the employed person’s Member State; or
  - (iii) the person resides in the United Kingdom and is employed by two or more undertakings or employers whose registered offices or places of business are situated in two or more Member States.

2. A person:

- (a) who normally pursues an activity as an employed person both in the United Kingdom and one or more Member States; and
- (b) who is not subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom determined in accordance with paragraph 1, shall be treated as being subject to the legislation of a Member State.

3. A person who normally pursues an activity as a self-employed person in the United Kingdom and one or more Member States shall be subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom:

- (a) if the person resides in the United Kingdom and pursues a substantial part of that activity in the United Kingdom;
- (b) in the case of a person who does not pursue a substantial part of that person’s activity in the State where the person resides, if the centre of interest of that person’s activities is in the United Kingdom.

4. A person:

- (a) who normally pursues an activity as a self-employed person in the United Kingdom and one or more Member States; and
- (b) who is not subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom determined in accordance with paragraph 3, shall be treated as being subject to the legislation of a Member State.

5. A person who normally pursues an activity as an employed person in the United Kingdom and as a self-employed person in a Member State shall be subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom.

6. A person who:

- (a) normally pursues an activity as an employed person in the United Kingdom and as a self-employed person in a Member State; and
- (b) also pursues an activity as an employed person in a Member State, shall be subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom or treated as being subject to the legislation of that Member State if that person would be so regarded in accordance with paragraphs 1 or 2 (disregarding the person's activity as a self-employed person).

7. A person who normally pursues an activity as a self-employed person in the United Kingdom and as an employed person in a Member State shall be treated as being subject to the legislation of that Member State.

8. A person:

- (a) who normally pursues an activity as a self-employed person in the United Kingdom and as an employed person in a Member State; and
- (b) who also pursues an activity as an employed person in the United Kingdom, shall be subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom or treated as being subject to the legislation of that Member State if that person would be so regarded in accordance with paragraphs 1 or 2 (disregarding the person's activity as a self-employed person).

9. A person:

- (a) who is employed as a civil servant by the United Kingdom; and
- (b) who pursues an activity as an employed person or as a self-employed person in one or more Member States, shall be subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom;

10. A person:

- (a) who is employed as a civil servant by a Member State; and
- (b) who pursues an activity as an employed person or as a self-employed person in the United Kingdom, shall be treated as being subject to the legislation of that Member State.

11. A person who is subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom determined in accordance with paragraphs 1 to 9 shall be treated as though that person were pursuing all that person's activities as an employed or self-employed person and receiving all that person's income in the United Kingdom.

Article 14

Voluntary insurance or optional continued insurance

1. Articles 11 to 13 shall not apply to voluntary insurance or to optional continued insurance unless, in respect of one of the branches referred to in Article 3(1), only a voluntary scheme of insurance exists in a Member State.

2. If the legislation of the United Kingdom makes admission to voluntary insurance or optional continued insurance conditional upon residence in the United Kingdom or upon previous activity as an employed or self-employed person, Article 5(b) shall apply only to persons who have been subject, at some earlier stage, to the legislation of the United Kingdom on the basis of an activity as an employed or self-employed person.

Article 15

Contract staff of the European Communities

1. Contract staff of the European Communities may opt to be subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom, in respect of benefits other than those relating to family allowances, provided by virtue of their employment with the European Communities if:

- (a) they are employed in the United Kingdom;
- (b) they were subject to the legislation of the United Kingdom immediately before their last employment preceding the commencement of their employment with the European Communities; or

(c) they are nationals of the United Kingdom.

2. This right of option, which may be exercised once only, shall take effect from the date of entry into employment with the European Communities.

Article 16

7. In Annex 11 at the end add—

“ICELAND

1. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 6, persons who have not been gainfully employed in one or more EC Member States or EFTA States are entitled to an Icelandic social pension only if they have been, or have previously been, permanent residents of Iceland for at least three years, subject to the age limits prescribed by Icelandic legislation.
(b) The above mentioned provisions do not apply to Icelandic social pension entitlement for the members of the family of persons who are or have been gainfully employed in Iceland, or for students or the members of their families.
2. Where employment or self-employment in Iceland has terminated and the contingency occurs during employment or self-employment in another State to which this Regulation applies and where the disability pension of both the social security and the supplementary pension schemes (pension funds) in Iceland no longer includes the period between the contingency and the pensionable age (future periods), periods of insurance under the legislation of another State to which this Regulation applies shall be taken into consideration for the requirement of the future periods as if they were periods of insurance in Iceland.

NORWAY

1. The transitional provisions of the Norwegian legislation entailing a reduction of the insurance period which is required for a full supplementary pension for persons born before 1937 shall be applicable to persons covered by the Regulation provided that they have been residents of Norway, or engaged in gainful occupation as employed or self-employed in Norway, for such a number of years as is required after their sixteenth birthday and before 1 January 1967. This requirement shall be one year for each year the person’s year of birth falls before 1937.
2. A person insured under the National Insurance Act who provides care to insured care-needing old, disabled or sick persons shall, according to prescribed conditions, be credited pension points for such periods. Likewise, and without prejudice to Article 44 of Regulation (EC) No 987/2009, a person who takes care of small children shall be credited pension points when staying in another State to which this Regulation applies, provided that the person concerned is on parental leave under Norwegian labour law.
3. (a) Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 6, persons who have not been gainfully employed in one or more EC Member States or EFTA States are entitled to a Norwegian social pension only if they have been, or have previously been, permanent residents of Norway for at least three years, subject to the age limits prescribed by Norwegian legislation.
(b) The above mentioned provisions do not apply to Norwegian social pension entitlement for the members of the family of persons who are or have been gainfully employed in Norway, or for students or the members of their families.

SWITZERLAND

1. Article 2 of the Federal Old-Age and Survivors' Insurance Act and Article 1 of the Federal Invalidity Insurance Act, which govern voluntary insurance in these insurance branches for Swiss nationals resident in States not subject to this Agreement, shall be applicable to persons resident outside Switzerland who are nationals of the other States to which this Agreement applies, and to refugees and stateless persons resident in the territory of these States, where these persons join the voluntary insurance scheme not later than one year after the date on which they ceased to be covered by old-age, survivors' and invalidity insurance after a continuous period of insurance of at least five years.

2. Where a person ceases to be insured under Swiss old-age, survivors' and invalidity insurance after a continuous period of insurance of at least five years, he shall continue to be entitled to be insured with the agreement of the employer if he works in a State to which this Agreement does not apply for an employer in Switzerland and if he submits an application to this effect within six months of the date on which he ceases to be insured.

3. Compulsory insurance under Swiss sickness insurance and possible exemptions.

(a) The Swiss legal provisions governing compulsory sickness insurance shall apply to the following persons not resident in Switzerland:

- (i) persons subject to Swiss legal provisions under Title II of the Regulation;
- (ii) persons for whom Switzerland shall bear the costs of benefits according to Articles 24, 25, 26 of the Regulation;
- (iii) persons receiving Swiss unemployment insurance benefits;
- (iv) family members of persons referred to in (i) and (iii) or of an employed or self-employed person resident in Switzerland who is insured under the Swiss sickness insurance scheme, unless these family members are resident in one of the following States: Denmark, Spain, Hungary, Portugal, Sweden or the United Kingdom;
- (v) family members of persons referred to in (ii) or of a pensioner resident in Switzerland who is insured under the Swiss sickness insurance scheme, unless these family members are resident in one of the following States: Denmark, Portugal, Sweden or the United Kingdom.

As family members are considered those persons who are defined as family members according to the legislation of the state of residence.

(b) Persons referred to in (a) may, on request, be exempted from compulsory insurance if and as long as they are resident in one of the following States and can prove that they are eligible for cover in the event of sickness: Germany, France, Italy, Austria, and, with regard to persons referred to in (a) (iv) and (v), Finland and, with regard to persons referred to in (a)(ii), Portugal.

This request:

- (aa) must be submitted within three months of the date on which the obligation to take out insurance in Switzerland comes into effect; where, in justified cases, the request is submitted after this deadline, the exemption shall take effect as from the commencement of the insurance obligation;
- (bb) shall apply to all family members residing in the same State.

4. Persons who are working, but not residing in Switzerland and who have statutory insurance cover in their State of residence in accordance with point 3(b), as well as their family members, shall benefit from the provisions of Article 19 of the Regulation during a stay in Switzerland.

5. For the purposes of applying Articles 18, 19, 20, 27 of the Regulation in Switzerland, the competent insurer shall bear all invoiced costs.

6. Periods of daily allowance insurance completed under the insurance scheme of another State to which this Agreement applies shall be taken into account for reducing or lifting a possible reserve in daily allowance insurance in the event of maternity or sickness where the person becomes insured with a Swiss insurer within three months of ceasing to be covered by insurance in another country.

7. Where a person who was gainfully employed or self-employed in Switzerland and covering his vital needs has had to cease his activity owing to an accident or illness and is no longer subject to Swiss legislation on invalidity insurance, he shall be considered to be covered by that insurance for the purpose of eligibility for rehabilitation measures until the payment of an invalidity pension and throughout the period during which he benefits from these measures, provided that he has not taken up a new activity outside Switzerland.”

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations are made in exercise of the powers conferred by section 8(1) of the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018 (c.16) (the “EU(W)A”) in order to address failures of retained EU law to operate effectively and other deficiencies (in particular under section 8(2) and section 8(3)) arising from the withdrawal of the United Kingdom from the European Union.

These Regulations make amendments to Regulation (EC) No 883/2004 which is one of the EU Regulations which relate to social security co-ordination. In particular they make amendments to prevent, remedy or mitigate the deficiencies under section 8(2)(a), (b), (c) and (d) and under section 8(3) of the EUWA in relation to cash benefits, pensions and the determination of applicable law.

They also amend the EEA Agreement and modify the Agreement between the European Community and its Member States, of the one part, and the Swiss Confederation, of the other, on the free movement of persons, done at Luxembourg on 21st June 1999. The modifications to Regulation (EC) No 833/2004 made by those Agreements are added to the Regulation as it forms part of retained EU law and ensures that those Agreements apply to EU law as retained by the EU(W)A.

An impact assessment has not been prepared for this instrument as it has no impact on businesses, charities or the public sector.
