ANIMAL HEALTH

The Animal By-Products, Pet Passport and Animal Health (Fees) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2023

- - - - -
Coming into force - - 1st July 2023

The Secretary of State makes these Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by paragraph 7(2) of Schedule 4 and paragraph 21(b) of Schedule 7 to the European Union (Withdrawal) Act 2018⁽¹⁾ (“the 2018 Act”), and section 10 of the Animal Health and Welfare Act 1984 (“the 1984 Act”)⁽²⁾.

In accordance with paragraph 10 of Schedule 4 to the 2018 Act, regulations 2 and 3(1) to (7) and (11) (and, so far as it relates to those regulations, regulation 1) are made with the consent of the Treasury.

In accordance with section 10(3)(c) of the 1984 Act, regulation 3(3) and (8) to (10) (and, so far as it relates to that regulation, regulation 1) are made with the approval of the Treasury.

In accordance with paragraph 12(1) of Schedule 7 to the 2018 Act, a draft of these Regulations has been laid before, and approved by resolution of, each House of Parliament.

Citation, commencement, extent and interpretation

1.—(1) These Regulations may be cited as the Animal By-Products, Pet Passport and Animal Health (Fees) (England) (Amendment) Regulations 2023 and come into force on 1st July 2023.

(2) These Regulations extend to England and Wales.

(1) 2018 c. 16. The Secretary of State is an “appropriate authority” within the meaning given to that term by paragraph 8 of Schedule 4 to the 2018 Act. Paragraph 8 of Schedule 4 was amended by section 41(4) of, and paragraph 47(5) of Schedule 5 to, the European Union (Withdrawal Agreement) Act 2020 \(c. 1\) (“the 2020 Act”); paragraph 21 of Schedule 7 of the 2018 Act was amended by paragraph 53 of Schedule 5 to the 2020 Act. There are other amendments to the 2018 Act but they are not relevant to these Regulations.

(2) 1984 c. 40. The Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food is, in relation to England, the “appropriate Minister” within the meaning of given in section 10(8). The functions of the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food under section 10 were transferred to the Secretary of State by article 2(2) of S.I. 2002/794.

(3) In these Regulations, a reference to the numbered position of a row in a table is a reference to its position not counting the row containing the column headings of that table.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the Animal By-Products and Pet Passport Fees (England) Regulations 2018 (S.I. 2018 No. 666) (“the Animal By-Products Regulations”) and the Animal Health (Miscellaneous Fees) (England) Regulations 2018 (S.I. 2018 No. 664) (“the Animal Health Regulations”) (together, “the 2018 Regulations”). The amendments modify the fees payable to the Secretary of State under the 2018 Regulations for services provided in the field of animal health by the Animal and Plant Health Agency, an executive agency of the Department for Environment, Food and Rural Affairs so as to reflect full cost recovery of those services.

Regulation 2(3) amends the Animal By-Products Regulations to revoke the fees payable to the Secretary of State for services carried out in relation to pet passport identification documents.

Regulation 2(4) amends the Animal By-Products Regulations to modify the fees payable to the Secretary of State for services carried out in relation to animal by-products. The fees, where increased, are increased by the medium average uplift of 41% from the current fees in two steps: the first increase applies on or after 1st July 2023, the second increase applies on or after 1st July 2024.

Regulation 3(6) amends the Animal Health Regulations to modify the fees payable to the Secretary of State for services carried out in relation to salmonella controls. The fees, where increased, are increased by the medium average uplift of 53% from the current fees in two steps: the first increase applies on or after 1st July 2023, the second increase applies on or after 1st July 2024.

Regulation 3(7) amends the Animal Health Regulations to modify the fees payable to the Secretary of State for services carried out in relation to the poultry health scheme. The fees are increased by the medium average uplift of 21% from the current fees. Regulation 3(6)(a) increases certain poultry health scheme fees in two steps: the first increase applies on or after 1st July 2023, the second increase applies on or after 1st July 2024. Regulation 3(6)(b) increases the remainder of the specified poultry health scheme fees in a single step, the increase applies on or after 1st July 2023.

Regulations 3(8) to (10) amend the Animal Health Regulations to modify the fees payable to the Secretary of State for services carried out in relation to artificial breeding controls. The fees are increased by the medium average uplift of 65% from the current fees in two steps: the first increase applies on or after 1st July 2023, the second increase applies on or after 1st July 2024.

Regulation 3(11) amends the Animal Health Regulations to modify the fees payable to the Secretary of State for services carried out in relation to border control posts. The fees are increased by the medium average uplift of 34% from the current fees in a single step, the increase applies on or after 1st July 2023.

These Regulations also make minor and consequential amendments to the 2018 Regulations.

Further detail as to the fee increases is contained in the Explanatory Memorandum published at www.legislation.gov.uk alongside this instrument.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for these regulations as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
