The Ivory Act 2018 (Meaning of “Ivory” and Miscellaneous Amendments) Regulations 2024

Made - - - -

Coming into force in accordance with regulation 1(2)

The Secretary of State makes these Regulations in exercise of the powers conferred by sections 2(5), 37(2) and 39(1) of, and paragraph 14(1) of Schedule 1 to, the Ivory Act 2018<sup>(1)</sup> (“the Act”).

The Secretary of State, in accordance with section 2(5) of the Act, being of the opinion that the institutions specified in the Schedule to the Ivory Prohibitions (Exemptions) (Process and Procedure) Regulations 2022<sup>(2)</sup> have the necessary knowledge and expertise to provide the Secretary of State with advice on applications for exemption certificates and having obtained the consent of the persons in charge of each institution to the prescription of that institution as able to provide such advice, in accordance with section 2(6) of the Act, prescribes those institutions as able to provide such advice to the Secretary of State.

In accordance with section 39(3) of the Act, the Welsh Ministers, the Scottish Ministers and the Northern Ireland department<sup>(3)</sup> have consented to the making of these Regulations.

In accordance with section 37(3) of the Act, a draft of this instrument has been laid before Parliament and approved by a resolution of each House of Parliament.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

(This note is not part of the Regulations)

These Regulations amend the meaning of “ivory” in section 37 of the Ivory Act 2018 (c. 30) (“the Act”) and make miscellaneous amendments to the Ivory Prohibitions (Exemptions) (Process and Procedure) Regulations 2022 (S.I. 2022/94) and the Ivory Prohibition (Civil Sanctions) Regulations 2022 (S.I. 2022/311). The Act currently prohibits dealing in elephant ivory only, subject to exemptions and exceptions.

Regulation 2 amends section 37 of the Act to extend the definition of “ivory” (and so the prohibitions in dealing with ivory under the Act) from “the tusk or tooth of an elephant” to “the tusk or tooth” of any of an elephant, a common hippopotamus, a killer whale, a narwhal or a sperm whale.

Regulation 3 amends the Ivory Prohibitions (Exemptions) (Process and Procedure) Regulations 2022 (S.I. 2022/94) to give the formal names of five prescribed institutions who may provide the Secretary of State with advice on applications for exemption certificates.

Regulation 4 amends the Ivory Prohibition (Civil Sanctions) Regulations (S.I. 2022/311) to make consistent the use of the terms referring to service throughout those Regulations.

A full impact assessment has not been produced for this instrument as no, or no significant, impact on the private, voluntary or public sector is foreseen.
