

South Yorkshire Light Rail Transit Act 1993

1993 CHAPTER ii

PART IV

PROTECTIVE PROVISIONS

10 Application of protective provisions of Act of 1988

The following protective provisions of the Act of 1988 shall, so far as applicable and subject to any necessary modifications, apply for the purposes of this Act as they apply for the purposes of that Act:—

- section 32 (As to highways, traffic, etc.);
- section 33 (For protection of public sewers);
- section 34 (For protection of certain statutory undertakers);
- section 36 (For protection of telecommunications operators); and
- section 38 (Crown rights).

11 Notice of interference with streets

Before breaking up or otherwise interfering with any street in connection with the construction of the LRT system, the Executive shall give not less than 14 days' notice to the chief officer of police and to the fire authority of their intention to do so, except in case of emergency when such notice as is practicable shall be given.
