

University of London Act 2018

2018 CHAPTER iii

3 Power to make statutes

- (1) The Board may alter, revoke or add to the statutes by passing a resolution in accordance with subsection (5).
- (2) The Collegiate Council may submit proposals to the Board for altering, revoking or adding to the statutes under subsection (1), which the Board must consider.
- (3) If the Board is minded to exercise the power in subsection (1), it must first consult—
  - (a) the Collegiate Council unless the Collegiate Council has submitted proposals under subsection (2) which the Board intends materially to implement;
  - (b) a trade union officially recognised by the University if any proposed alteration, revocation or addition relates to the employment of staff of the University; and
  - (c) such other persons as it considers appropriate.
- (4) The Board must give the Collegiate Council reasons if it is not minded to give effect to, or is minded materially to alter, any proposals submitted by the Collegiate Council under subsection (2).
- (5) A resolution under subsection (1) must be passed at a meeting of the Board—
  - (a) at which not less than two-thirds of its members are present; and
  - (b) by not less than two-thirds of those present and voting.
