

CHAPTER ccxxxviii.

An Act to authorise the urban district council of Menai Bridge to construct additional waterworks for the supply of their district to purchase and improve St. George's Pier to construct a sea wall and promenade and to make further and better provision for the improvement of the district and for other purposes. [8th August 1902.] A.D. 1902.

WHEREAS the district of Menai Bridge in the county of Anglesey is an urban district within the meaning of the Local Government Act 1894 and is under the control and management of the Menai Bridge Urban District Council :

And whereas the Council are the owners of the waterworks from which the inhabitants of the district are supplied with water and the same were constructed under the powers conferred upon the Council by the Public Health Act 1875 :

And whereas the demand for water in the district is increasing and it is expedient that the Council be authorised to construct the additional waterworks herein-after described for the better supply of water throughout their area of supply :

And whereas the Council have only a leasehold interest in the lands upon which their existing waterworks are situate and it is desirable that they should be empowered to acquire the freehold thereof :

And whereas it is expedient to empower the Council to construct the sea wall and promenade described or referred to in this Act and also to improve certain streets in the district :

And whereas the Council have acquired by a deed of assignment dated the twenty-fifth day of July one thousand nine hundred and one the Crown lease of the St. George's Pier and it would be of advantage to the district that such pier should be extended and improved and that the works proposed to be constructed by the

A.D. 1902. Council under the powers of this Act should be carried out and that the Council should be empowered to acquire by agreement the freehold thereof:

And whereas it is expedient that the Council should be invested with further powers of control over the seashore of the district:

And whereas it is expedient that further and better provision be made for the improvement and local government of the district and that the powers of the Council in relation thereto should be enlarged and extended:

And whereas estimates have been prepared by the Council for the purchase of the lands for and for the execution of the waterworks by this Act authorised and such estimates amount to the following sums:—

|  |   |       |
|--|---|-------|
| For the purchase of lands in connexion with the water undertaking of the Council and the extension and improvement of that undertaking   | £ | 2,500 |
| For the purchase of lands for and the construction of the promenade sea wall and street widening and improvements authorised by this Act | - | 2,310 |
| For the purchase of St. George's Pier and the extension and improvement thereof and for the purchase of the Princes Pier                 | - | 5,500 |

And whereas the several works included in such estimates respectively are permanent works within the meaning of section 234 of the Public Health Act 1875:

And whereas an absolute majority of the whole number of the council at a meeting held on the twenty-second day of October one thousand nine hundred and one after ten clear days' notice by public advertisement of such meeting and of the purpose thereof in y Clorianydd a local newspaper circulating in the district such notice being in addition to the ordinary notices required for summoning such meeting resolved that the Bill for this Act be promoted by the Council:

And whereas such resolution was published twice in the said newspaper called y Clorianydd and has received the approval of the Local Government Board:

And whereas the propriety of the promotion of the Bill for this Act was confirmed by an absolute majority of the whole number of the Council at a further special meeting held in pursuance of a similar notice on the twenty-first day of January one thousand nine hundred and two being not less than fourteen days after the deposit of the Bill in Parliament:

And whereas the owners and ratepayers of the district by resolution in the manner provided in the Third Schedule of the Public Health Act 1875 consented to the promotion of the Bill for this Act: A.D. 1902.

And whereas plans and sections showing the lines and levels of the works authorised by this Act and also a book of reference to the plans containing the names of the owners or reputed owners lessees or reputed lessees and of the occupiers of the lands required for the purposes of this Act were duly deposited with the clerk of the peace for the county of Anglesey which plans sections and book of reference are in this Act respectively referred to as the deposited plans sections and book of reference:

And whereas the objects of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament:

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows (that is to say):—

SECOND SCHEDULE.

MEMORANDUM OF AN AGREEMENT made the twenty-first day of January 1902 between the MENAI BRIDGE URBAN DISTRICT COUNCIL (herein-after called "the Council") of the one part and THE LIVERPOOL AND NORTH WALES STEAMSHIP COMPANY LIMITED (who with their successors and assigns are herein-after called "the Company") of the other part.

WHEREAS the Company are the owners of a line of passenger steamers running to Menai Bridge And whereas they hold also under lease from the Crown for 25 years from the fifth day of July 1896 under indenture dated the twenty-third day of February 1898 a certain portion of the foreshore at Menai Bridge in the county of Anglesey (with certain reservations therein mentioned) together with the right to maintain amend repair and replace certain piles fixed by the Company in the bed of the sea opposite to the said foreshore and to use such piles for keeping in position a floating hulk for the purpose of supporting one end of a girder bridge from the land to such hulk And also with the right to repair and replace such girder bridge so far as it may be constructed over the bed of the sea paying therefor to the Crown the sum of five pounds per year and subject to certain covenants restrictions obligations and conditions in the said indenture contained And whereas the Company are the owners of the hulk and girder bridge referred to in the last recital And whereas the Company are also the assignees of a lease dated the ninth day of January 1891 granted by Messrs. R. and R. Davies to the City of Dublin Steam Packet Company of certain land in the parish of Llandisilio in the said county of Anglesey adjoining the said foreshore and girder bridge together with a warehouse dwelling-house stable quay and pier erected thereon for the term of 31 years from the 1st July 1890 subject to the payment of one hundred pounds per annum and the covenants restrictions obligations and conditions contained in the said lease And whereas the Council are desirous of acquiring the said pier girder bridge warehouse and other premises of the Company at Menai Bridge and the said Company have agreed to sell and assign the same to them on the terms and conditions herein-after contained Now therefore it is agreed:—

A.D. 1902.

1. The Company shall sell and assign to the Council and the Council shall purchase all the Company's right and interest under the afore-mentioned leases and in the hulk and girder bridge afore-mentioned the same to be taken over by the Council forthwith.

2. The Council accepts what title the Company can give and takes over the said leases subject to all covenants liabilities obligations and restrictions of the Company thereunder and will indemnify the Company therefrom.

3. The Council will on the first day of November next pay to the Company as part consideration for the sale the sum of four hundred and twenty-five pounds in cash.

4. As a further consideration for the said sale the Council agrees during ten years next after the date hereof to provide free of charge and at all times required by the Company covered space convenient to the Company's steamers for 120 tons of coal for the Company's use with all necessary access The Council will also at all times during the said period give the Company's steamers berthing precedence over all other ships and a ready berth at all times at the said hulk or pier or at any new piers which the Council may erect and control at Menai Bridge at the Company's option The Council also undertakes that no other shipowners shall have equal terms so far as regards rates or dues for the period aforesaid Ready berth means that when the Company's steamers arrive and depart they shall have without waiting as they have heretofore had a berth as above indicated even if from unforeseen circumstances they are prevented from keeping their advertised times but the Company undertake to exercise their rights reasonably.

5. The Company shall pay to the Council for the use of their piers during the said period the sum of one penny per head for each passenger embarking or disembarking at Menai Bridge but transfer passengers from one of the Company's steamers to another of the Company's steamers and not landing at the pier are not to count nor are passengers holding return tickets to pay more than one penny for the double journey Such payment is to be in full of all rates or dues of any kind soever against the Company or their steamers and no dues of any kind shall be levied upon the persons embarking or disembarking upon or from the Company's steamers either in respect of themselves or their property.

A.D. 1902. 6. The Company is to have the use of the Council's piers for laying their steamers alongside overnight when necessary.

7. This agreement is subject to such modifications (if any) as Parliament may think fit to make therein but should the Council in consequence of any action of Parliament in connexion with their pending Improvement Bill or otherwise be legally unable to carry out any of the provisions of this agreement or should Parliament require modifications in this agreement prejudicial to the interests of the Company the Council shall pay to the Company compensation in lieu of such obligations hereunder as they are unable to comply with or the Company at its option may terminate this agreement each party in such case being placed so far as possible in statu quo In case the Company elect to require compensation the amount shall failing agreement be decided by arbitration (two arbitrators and an umpire) under the Arbitration Act 1889.

8. In the event of the Council withdrawing their Bill or of its not passing this session then ipso facto this agreement shall terminate and the Company shall repay to the Council any expenses they have meantime incurred with the sanction of the Company in the maintenance of the premises at Menai Bridge with interest at the rate of four pounds per cent. per annum.

In witness whereof the Menai Bridge Urban District Council and the Liverpool and North Wales Steamship Company Limited have caused their respective common seals to be hereunto affixed the day and year first before written.
