

CHAPTER ii.

An Act to confirm a Provisional Order under the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1899 relating to the Edinburgh Chartered Accountants Annuity &c. Fund. A.D. 1924.

[18th December 1924.]

WHEREAS His Majesty's Secretary for Scotland has made the Provisional Order set forth in the schedule hereunto annexed under the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1899 and it is requisite that the said Order should be confirmed by Parliament : 62 & 63 Vict. c. 47.

Be it therefore enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

1. The Provisional Order contained in the schedule hereunto annexed shall be and the same is hereby confirmed. Confirmation of Order in schedule.

2. This Act may be cited as the Edinburgh Chartered Accountants Annuity &c. Fund Order Confirmation Act 1924. Short title.

A.D. 1924.

SCHEDULE.

EDINBURGH CHARTERED ACCOUNTANTS
ANNUITY &c. FUND.

Provisional Order to amend the provisions of the Edinburgh Chartered Accountants Annuity &c. Fund Act 1887 to extend the said Act so as to include female as well as male members of the Society of Accountants in Edinburgh to vary the provisions regulating the benefits to be provided out of the Fund to confer further powers of investment and other powers upon the Trustees to repeal the provision of the said Act conferring power to commute annual contributions to repeal existing benefit tables to substitute new benefit tables to make further provisions regarding the administration of the Fund and the purposes for which it is to be applied and for other purposes.

WHEREAS by the Edinburgh Chartered Accountants Annuity &c. Fund Act 1887 (hereinafter in this Order referred to as "the Act") a fund (hereinafter in this Order referred to as "the Fund") was established to consist of inter alia certain moneys paid or to be paid into the same by the Society of Accountants in Edinburgh incorporated by Royal Charter dated the twenty-third day of October and written to the seal and registered the eleventh day of December one thousand eight hundred and fifty-four (in the Act and in this Order called "the Society") as derived from one half of the entrance fees of entrants to the Society after the date of the passing of the Act and the contributions of the contributors to the Fund as set forth in the Act:

And whereas the Fund and the administration thereof were by the Act vested in the trustees thereby appointed and their successors in office and thereby incorporated under the name of "the Trustees of the Endowment and Annuity Fund of the Society of

“ Accountants in Edinburgh ” (hereinafter referred to as “ the Trustees ”): A.D. 1924

And whereas it was provided by the Act that the Fund should be applied to the purposes of the Act and to no other purpose :

And whereas under the provisions of the Act the benefits thereby conferred and the rights and obligations thereby created are so conferred and created on the basis that the members of the Society entitled to share in the said benefits and subject to the said rights and obligations are of the male sex and no provisions are contained in the Act for the contingency of females becoming members of the Society :

And whereas following upon the public statutory enactments which have been made for the removal of sex disqualification membership of the Society is now open to females and it is therefore expedient that provisions should be made for extending the Act to include female members of the Society and that the Act should be amended accordingly :

And whereas it is expedient that certain powers conferred on the Trustees under the Act should be cancelled that further powers of investment and other powers should be conferred upon the Trustees and that such other provisions should be made for the administration of the Fund as are contained in this Order :

And whereas the purposes aforesaid cannot be effected without an Order of the Secretary for Scotland confirmed by Parliament under the provisions of the Private Legislation Procedure (Scotland) Act 1899 :

Now therefore in pursuance of the powers contained in the last mentioned Act the Secretary for Scotland orders as follows vizt. :—

1. This Order may be cited for all purposes as the Edinburgh Chartered Accountants Annuity &c. Fund Order 1924, and this Order and the Act may be cited together as the Edinburgh Chartered Accountants Annuity &c. Fund Acts 1887 and 1924. Short title and citation.

2. This Order shall (except as otherwise in this Order provided) commence and have effect on and from the date of the passing of the Act confirming the same Commencement of Order.

A.D. 1924. — which date is hereinafter referred to as “ the commencement of this Order.”

Interpreta- 3. Subject to the provisions of this Order words tion. and expressions used in or to which meanings are assigned by the Act shall in this Order have the same respective meanings unless there be something in the subject or context repugnant to such construction.

Application 4. The Act and this Order shall be read and of Act to construed as if all words occurring therein respectively women. denoting or referring to members of the Society or contributors to the Fund include both males and females and as if all words denoting or referring to males or importing the masculine gender include the corresponding words denoting or referring to females or importing the feminine gender and in particular without prejudice to the foresaid generality except where the context otherwise requires the following words occurring in the Act or this Order vizt. “ member ”
“ future member ” “ entrant ” “ contributor ” “ trustee ” “ person ” “ apprentice ” shall include females as well as males and the word “ widow ” shall include “ widower.”

Application 5. The Fund shall be applied to the purposes of of Fund. the Act as amended by this Order and to no other purposes.

Forfeiture 6. In the event of any contributor being expelled of contribu- from the Society under and in accordance with the tors' rights. rules and regulations of the Society for the time being the Trustees shall on evidence of such expulsion being laid before them be entitled to declare that such contributor shall forfeit all his benefits rights and interests as a contributor and to remove such expelled member from the list of contributors to the Fund and in that case he shall cease to be a contributor accordingly
but notwithstanding such declaration and removal
the Trustees may as they in their sole discretion shall decide pay to such expelled member such amount if any as they may consider reasonable in respect of the contributions already paid by him and their decision as to such amount shall be final.

Widowers' 7. In the second class of benefits from the Fund annuity defined in section 19 of the Act there shall be included benefits.

annuities for life (hereinafter referred to as "widowers' annuity benefits") payable to the widowers of contributors from and after the death of their respective wives and whether they shall marry again or not conform to the table of such benefits hereinafter referred to and the expressions "widows' annuity benefit" and "a widow's annuity benefit" occurring in the Act shall be read and construed accordingly.

A.D. 1924.

8. The tables of benefits provided for under section 23 of the Act and contained in the schedule thereto are hereby repealed and the tables contained in the schedule to this Order shall until altered or superseded by other tables in the manner in the Act and hereinafter provided be the tables according to which the Fund shall be administered and the basis of all the calculations by which the amounts of the benefits shall be determined of all contributors whether existing at and prior to the commencement of this Order or subsequent thereto all as laid down in the said tables.

Repeal of existing benefit tables and substitution of other tables.

9. In any tables hereafter altered or substituted in terms of section 24 of the Act or of this Order allowance may be made for the different factors affecting the calculations of benefits as between male and female contributors and it may further be provided that any altered or substituted tables shall apply only to contributors who become such from and after the date when such tables are to take effect and the provisions of section 24 of the Act as amended by this Order shall apply to the tables contained in the schedule to this Order in like manner as they applied to the tables contained in the Act and to any altered or substituted tables prescribed by a resolution passed in terms of that section.

Application of section 24 of Act.

10. The Trustees shall be entitled to hold and apply for the purposes of the Act as amended by this Order any contributions received prior to the commencement of this Order from females who if this Order had been in force at the date of such contributions would have been eligible as contributors to the Fund and that as from the respective dates of payment thereof and they shall likewise be entitled out of the Fund to pay in respect of such females such benefits as are allowed by the Act as amended by this Order.

Commuta-
tion and transfer of
benefits.

11. In addition to the powers conferred upon the Trustees under the Act as amended by this Order of substituting for an endowment benefit payable to any contributor in the form of a capital sum an endowment benefit in the form of an annuity payable to such contributor or a widow's or widower's annuity benefit the Trustees shall have power on such terms and conditions (including medical examination) as they shall consider equitable or as may be laid down under the byelaws rules and regulations of the Fund for the time being in force in lieu of an endowment benefit in the form of an annuity payable to any contributor to substitute either a widow's or widower's annuity benefit or an endowment benefit payable in the form of a capital sum or in lieu of a widow's or widower's annuity benefit to substitute an endowment benefit in the form of an annuity payable to such contributor or an endowment benefit payable in the form of a capital sum provided such contributor shall have intimated in writing to the collector his or her desire to that effect within one month after the annual general meeting of the contributors held next after any of the periodical investigations of the Fund provided for in the Act but before he or she has received payment or part payment of any benefit Without prejudice to the general discretion conferred upon them the Trustees before agreeing to substitute one benefit for another whether under this section or under section 20 of the Act shall be entitled to require from the contributor seeking substitution that such contributor or his or her spouse shall be medically examined.

Restoration
benefits.

12. Notwithstanding the exercise by the Trustees of the power of forfeiture of benefits rights and interests by declaration conferred on them by section 18 of the Act they shall nevertheless have power on sufficient cause shown of which they shall be sole judges to cancel any such forfeiture whether made before or after the commencement of this Order by a declaration minuted in terms of the said section and to reinstate the contributor affected by such declaration of forfeiture in the benefits rights and interests declared by such declaration to be forfeited and extinguished subject to such conditions as to payment by such contributor of such sum by way of contributions to the Fund and to such other conditions and limitations as the Trustees in their sole discretion may determine Provided always that such contributor shall not have been previously expelled in consequence of such declaration of forfeiture or otherwise from the membership of the Society. A.D. 1924.

13. Without prejudice to the provisions of section 31 of the Act in regard to the ascertainment and allocation of additions to the benefits of contributors at each periodical investigation of the state of the Fund the Trustees shall have power in any case where a benefit falls due at any time between two periodical investigations of the Fund to allocate to such contributor or to his or her representatives or widow or widower as the case may be such an amount by way of interim addition to such benefit as the Trustees may determine to have accrued to such benefit from the date of the immediately preceding periodical investigation and in determining the amount of such interim addition the Trustees may (subject as hereinafter provided) adopt such method or basis of calculating the amount of such interim addition as they may think reasonable Provided always that in calculating such interim addition there shall be taken into account only the one half of the fees paid by entrants to the Society from year to year. Interim additions to benefits.

14. In addition to the contribution of £5 5s. payable under section 15 of the Act it shall be in the power of the Trustees to demand and recover from any contributor who shall take up residence in any part of the world outside Great Britain where by reason of climate or other conditions a less favourable expectation of life prevails such additional contribution as the Trustees in their sole discretion may decide to be adequate to compensate for such less favourable expectation of life and that for each year or part of a year exceeding six months of such residence Every contributor shall on or before the first day of March in each year sign and forward to the Trustees or the collector a declaration stating his then existing permanent residence and further shall in the event of any change in the said permanent residence to a place outwith Great Britain give intimation of such change within fourteen days from the date thereof to the Trustees or the collector and in the event of any contributor failing to sign and Additional contributions in the case of contributors residing abroad.

A.D. 1924. — forward such declaration or to give such intimation it shall be in the power of the Trustees to impose such fine or fines on such contributor as they in their sole discretion may decide. In the event of a contributor becoming liable for any additional contribution under this section and failing to pay any such additional contribution within such time as may be specified by the Trustees for payment thereof the whole provisions and the whole powers of the Trustees contained in the Act with regard to the forfeiture of rights in respect of the non-payment of any contribution and the recovery of arrears and interest thereof shall apply equally to such additional contribution. Further without prejudice to the foresaid provisions and powers the Trustees shall have power where any contributor who is liable to pay any additional contribution under this section has failed to give intimation as required herein in addition to imposing a fine as aforesaid to fix the amount of the additional contribution for which such contributor is liable as at the date when such liability was incurred and to deduct the amount of such additional contribution and arrears thereof and of any fine or fines imposed as aforesaid and of interest in respect of such arrears or fines from any benefit payable to such contributor or his or her representatives. Nothing contained in this section shall enable additional contributions to be imposed on contributors in respect of their place of residence at the date of the commencement of this Order.

Restricted benefits to contributors unable to pay contributions.

15. The Trustees shall have the same powers with reference to the benefits specified in section 19 of the Act as amended by this Order as are conferred on them by section 26 of the Act with reference to additional benefits.

Age limit for Trustees.

16. Notwithstanding anything contained in section 5 of the Act no contributor (other than the President of the Society) who is over the age of sixty-five shall continue to be or shall be eligible to be elected a trustee of the Fund and on any Trustee (other than the President of the Society) attaining the age of sixty-five years such Trustee shall cease to be a trustee and the remaining trustees may elect another contributor to be a trustee in his place who shall continue in office so long only as the person in whose place he is elected would have been entitled
