(a) which is retained by or transferred to such council or other authority after or as from the appointed day who will thereby be relieved from providing accommodation ; or

(b) which was before the appointed day subject to beneficial user by the inhabitants of the added areas or any part thereof ; or

(c) which or some part of which is realisable ;

and due credit shall be given in such adjustment to the Corporation or any other council or authority in respect of such interest or share (if any) except to the extent to which the property will remain or become a burden on the council or other authority by whom it is retained or to whom it is transferred.

Saving for private street works. 55 & 56 Vict. c. 57.

40.—(1) No alteration effected by this Act shall affect any notices given or proceedings taken by or on behalf of the county council under the Private Street Works Act 1892 in relation to any street situate within the added areas or any part thereof but such proceedings may be continued and completed by such council in accordance with the provisions of the said Act as if this Act had not been passed.

(2) Where before the appointed day any works under the Private Street Works Act 1892 have been completed in a street situate within the added areas or any part thereof no alteration effected by this Act shall affect the liability of any owner to defray any sum which may be or has been apportioned upon him in respect of the cost of the works and any such sum shall be recoverable by the authority who would have been entitled to recover the same if this Act had not been passed and in the like manner.

Provisions as to register of electors.

41.—(1) For the purposes of the register of electors of the city prepared in the year nineteen hundred and fifty-one and of all matters connected with incidental to or consequent upon those purposes the added areas shall be deemed to have formed part of the city as from the qualifying date for elections for which that register is to be used.

(2) If the register of electors for any electoral area affected by this Act is not so framed as to show the persons entitled to vote at an election to be held for such electoral area—

(a) the registration officer of the city of Gloucester registration area in the case of an election for any electoral area within the city ; and

(b) the registration officer of the county of Gloucester registration area in the case of an election for any electoral area outside the city ;

shall make such alteration or rearrangement of the register as may be necessary for the purposes of such election.

(3) The additional expense (if any) incurred by either of the said registration officers which may be solely attributable to an alteration or rearrangement of the register of electors under this section shall be defrayed by the Corporation.

(4) Where in the opinion of the Secretary of State the circumstances so require he may make such order as appears to him to be necessary or desirable to give effect to the provisions of this section and may vary so far as is requisite the provisions in force with regard to the lists and registers of electors.

Jury service.

42. For the purpose only of summoning jurors and of jury service any parish affected by this Act shall be deemed to continue unaltered until a new jurors' book for the parish as altered comes into force.

43.—(1) The local registrars for the county and the rural district respectively under the Land Charges Act 1925 and the rules made thereunder shall within one month after the appointed day supply to the local registrar for the city an office copy of every entry in the local land charges register relating to any land situate within the added areas and shall be paid by the Corporation in respect thereof such fees as are prescribed by the said rules.

Local land
charges
registers.
15 Geo. 5.
c. 22.

(2) The local registrar for the city shall within one month after the receipt of the office copy mentioned in subsection (1) of this section enter the same with any necessary modifications in the appropriate part of the local land charges register of the city.

(3) Until the entries are made as aforesaid or until the expiration of two months from the appointed day whichever be the earlier day the following provisions shall have effect in respect of all land within the added areas:—

- (a) The local registrar for the city shall give notice to any person desiring to make a personal search that an additional search should be made in the register for the rural district and in the register for the county;
- (b) Where application is made for an official search the local registrar for the city shall issue free of charge a certificate of official search in the register of the city and shall forward to the local registrar for the rural district the application received by him together with the fees paid in respect thereof and shall also forward to the local registrar for the county a copy of the application;
- (c) The local registrar for the rural district and the local registrar for the county shall permit and make such searches and furnish such office copies and certificates as they would have been required to permit make and furnish and shall in relation thereto have the same powers and be subject to the same obligations as if this Act had not been passed;
- (d) The fees in respect of searches permitted or made and in respect of certificates furnished by the local registrar for the county in pursuance of the provisions of paragraph (c) of this subsection shall be paid by the Corporation;
- (e) Where an entry of a local land charge which has been duly made in the local land charges register of the county or of the rural district is required by this section to be transferred from the register of such county or district to the register of the city such charge shall not be void as against a purchaser for money or money's worth of a legal estate in the land affected thereby by reason only that it has not been entered in the register of the city.

Apportionment of balances
and sums received under precepts.

44.—(1) As soon as practicable after the appointed day the county council and the rural council shall as regards any cash balances in their hands respectively at the appointed day estimate the proportion thereof derived from contributions paid by or on account of any part of the added areas and subject to a deduction on account of undischarged liabilities in respect of such part of the added areas accruing up to the appointed day shall transfer such amount to the Corporation.

(2) Any sum received after the appointed day by the county council or the rural council under a precept issued or rate made before that day in respect of any part of the added areas shall be dealt with in the manner prescribed by subsection (1) of this section.

(3) The apportionment under this section of any balance or sum received shall be subject to review on an adjustment under this Act.

Contribution
orders
precepts
and arrears

45.—(1) Notwithstanding the alteration of areas effected by this Act all contribution orders and precepts made or issued before the appointed day shall be as valid in law as if this Act had not been passed.

(2) All rates not collected immediately before the appointed day in respect of hereditaments within the added areas shall be collected and recovered by the Corporation.

(3) Any rates or sums so collected or recovered shall be a matter for adjustment under this Act.

Parish books and documents.

46.—(1) All public books writings and papers of any existing parish affected by this Act in relation exclusively to any part of the added areas and all documents relating to any part of the added areas and directed by law to be kept with the public books writings and papers of such parish (except any book or document relating to the affairs of the church or to ecclesiastical charities or to a parochial non-ecclesiastical charity) and all plans papers and writings of the county council and the rural council relating exclusively to any part of the added areas shall be deposited in such custody as the Corporation may direct.

(2) Any ratepayer of any of the existing parishes any part of which is comprised in the added areas shall at all times have the same right of inspection and of making extracts from the public books writings papers and documents referred to in this section as he would have had if this Act had not been passed.

Town
planning.

47.—(1) As from the passing of this Act the Corporation shall be entitled at all reasonable times to inspect and take copies of all plans or documents relating to any land within the added areas which are in the possession or under the control of the county council for the purposes of or in connection with the Town and Country Planning Act 1947 and the county council shall supply to the Corporation such information and shall afford to them such assistance for the purposes of or in connection with the said Act as the Corporation may reasonably require. 10 & 11 Geo. 6.

c. 51.

(2) The clerk of the county council shall within one month after the appointed day supply to the town clerk an office copy of every entry in the register kept by the county council under section 14 of the said Act of 1947 relating to any land within the added areas.

(3) The town clerk shall within one month after the receipt of the office copy mentioned in subsection (2) of this section enter the same with any necessary modifications in the register kept by the Corporation under section 14 of the said Act of 1947.

(4) Any application for planning permission or for any consent or approval under the said Act of 1947 or for a determination under section 17 of that Act made to the county council before the appointed day and not determined before that day shall so far as it relates to land within the added areas be treated as a like application made to the Corporation and shall be treated as having been so made on the appointed day:

Provided that it shall not be necessary for the Corporation to consult with any authority person or body with whom the county council have already consulted in relation to that application.

(5) Any order agreement permission approval determination consent notice proceeding or decision made taken or given by the county council as local planning authority under the said Act of 1947 or having effect as if so made taken or given and in force immediately before the appointed day shall so far as it relates to any land within the added areas have effect as if it had been made taken or given by the Corporation as such authority in respect of that land.

(6) Any direction approval consent or decision given by the Minister of Town and Country Planning or the Minister of Transport under or in pursuance of the said Act of 1947 or any enactment thereby repealed affecting the county council as local planning authority and in force immediately before the appointed day shall so far as it relates to any land within the added areas have effect as if the same had been given to the Corporation as local planning authority.

48. Nothing in this Act shall affect the area of any existing registration district or sub-district without prejudice however to the exercise of the powers contained in sections 24 and 131 of the Act of 1929. As to registration districts.

49. The clerk of the county council shall before the appointed day send to the town clerk a copy of every entry in the list of persons in the borough required to be kept under section 21 Pharmacy poisons and medicine.
