

Derbyshire Mining Customs and Mineral Courts Act 1852

1852 CHAPTER clxiii 16 and 17 Vict

LXV Not to extend Customs to Lands not now subject to them.

Provided always, That nothing in this Act contained shall extend the Mineral Laws, Usages, and Customs herein-before mentioned, and by this Act defined and amended, over any Lands or Hereditaments within any of the Manors or Liberties herein-before mentioned which are not now subject to Mining Customs, nor be held to subject or make liable any Lands or Hereditaments to the said Customs which are now exempt therefrom, nor to give Authority to search for Mines and Veins of Lead Ore in or upon any Lands or Hereditaments over which the Mineral Customs of the said King's Field, or of the said Manors or Liberties, or some of them respectively, have not heretofore extended.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Derbyshire Mining Customs and Mineral Courts Act 1852, Section LXV.