

CHAPTER cxiv.

An Act to authorise the Trustees of the Town and Harbour of Whitehaven to make Arrangements with their Bondholders and other Creditors and for other purposes. A.D. 1887.

[19th July 1887.]

WHEREAS under and by virtue of the several Local Acts enumerated in the First Schedule to this Act (herein-after referred to as "the former Acts" and separately as Acts of the respective years in which they were respectively passed) and which are wholly or partially in force the town port and harbour of Whitehaven (which town is hereinafter called "the town" and which port and harbour is herein-after called "the harbour") are governed both for town purposes and for harbour purposes by a body of trustees (hereinafter called "the Trustees") and the property of the Trustees relating to the harbour includes a dock and certain railways recently constructed :

And whereas by the Act of 1885 the Trustees were incorporated and it was thereby enacted that all property of the Trustees and all money applicable to town purposes should not be subjected to any liabilities for harbour purposes and that all property of the Trustees and all money applicable to harbour purposes should not be subjected to any liabilities for town purposes :

And whereas the amount of money borrowed by the Trustees under the powers of the former Acts for harbour purposes and the amount of debts owing by the Trustees for harbour purposes are as follows :—

On bonds assignments or mortgages	244,685	9	3
Judgment debt due to the Cumberland Union Banking Company Limited	18,491	19	5
Other liabilities and debts	1,508	0	7

and the total gross receipts and income derived from the harbour in the financial year commencing in March 1884 and ending in

A.D. 1887. March 1885 amounted to 13,549*l.* and the total amount of interest on the said bonds assignments or mortgages amounted to 10,584*l.* which interest has been duly paid up to the first day of July 1885 and the yearly working expenses of the Trustees for harbour purposes amounts to 5,000*l.* or thereabouts :

And whereas the Trustees are at present unable to satisfy in full the legal claims of the bondholders mortgagees judgment and other creditors and in order to render the harbour property and revenues of the harbour available as far as practicable to the parties having claims thereon it is expedient that a scheme should be authorised by Parliament in order to determine not only the rights of the several parties aforesaid but also the most equitable method of re-arranging modifying and reconstituting the capital and borrowing powers of the Trustees and of providing for the satisfaction of the rights of judgment and other creditors and for the settlement of the financial affairs of the Trustees :

And whereas for the purpose of settling disputes it is expedient that special provision should be made for effecting a settlement of such disputes by arbitration :

And whereas it is expedient to authorise the Trustees to raise further money by borrowing and to secure the repayment thereof together with the interest thereon by a special charge upon the harbour of the Trustees in priority to all existing charges except rent-charges existing at the passing of this Act and of such an amount and subject to such conditions as are hereinafter prescribed and defined :

And whereas it is expedient to enable Trustees executors guardians and persons having a limited interest to consent to any arrangements made under the powers hereof and to take and hold debentures and first mortgages and securities to be granted or created by this Act in lieu of existing bonds securities debts or claims :

And whereas it is expedient that the Trustees should be authorised to levy new tolls rates and duties in respect of the dock and railways connected with the said harbour :

And whereas it is expedient to extend the time limited by the former Acts or some or one of them for the commencement of the sinking funds for repayment of moneys borrowed for harbour purposes and that further provision should be made with reference to sinking funds and for the redemption of mortgages and bonds :

And whereas in order to effectuate the purposes of this Act it is expedient that the former Acts be in divers particulars altered amended or repealed or the powers therein contained extended and made applicable for the purposes of this Act :

And whereas the purposes of this Act cannot be effected without the authority of Parliament: A.D. 1887.

May it therefore please Your Majesty that it may be enacted and be it enacted by the Queen's most excellent Majesty by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the authority of the same as follows :—

- (4) In payment to the holders of C Bonds pari passu of interest half-yearly at the rate of one and a-half per centum per annum upon their respective bonds;
- (5) In payment to the holders of D Bonds pari passu of interest half-yearly at the rate of one per centum per annum upon their respective bonds;
- (6) In payment to the holders of A Bonds pari passu of such additional sums (if any) half-yearly as shall be required to make up the interest on their bonds to three and a-half per centum per annum as from the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven;
- (7) In payment to the holders of B Bonds pari passu of such additional sums (if any) half-yearly as shall be required to make up the interest on their bonds to two and a-half per centum per annum as from the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven;
- (8) In payment to the holders of C Bonds pari passu of such additional sums (if any) half-yearly as shall be required to make up the interest on their bonds to one and a-half per centum per annum as from the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven;
- (9) In payment to the holders of D Bonds pari passu of such additional sums (if any) half-yearly as shall be required to make up the interest on their bonds to one per centum per annum as from the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven;
- (10) In forming or in aid of any contingency fund which the Trustees under the powers of the Act of 1885 or this Act may create;
- (11) If and whenever in any half-year the residue (after the purposes aforesaid shall have been effected) is sufficient to pay interest on all the B C and D bonds at the rate of not less than one quarter per centum per annum then in payment of such an amount of interest to the holders of such respective bonds pari passu as will with the payments herein-before in this section provided for on each such class of bonds not exceed in any year the rate of three and a-half per centum per annum on each such bond;
- (12) If and whenever in any half-year the residue (after the purposes aforesaid shall have been effected) is sufficient to pay interest on all the A B C and D Bonds at the rate of not less than one quarter per centum per annum then in payment of such an amount of interest to the holders of such respective bonds pari passu as will with the payments herein-before in this section provided for on each class of bond not exceed in any year the rate of four per centum per annum on each bond ;

(13) The residue (after the purposes aforesaid shall have been effected) shall be paid and applied in the manner prescribed by the sixth provision of section 45 of the Act of 1885 :

Provision as to sinking funds.

Provided that at the end of seven years from the passing of this Act or at such earlier period as the Trustees commence to form the sinking fund under the fourth provision of section 45 of the Act of 1885 they shall make the payment of the sum or sums required to be annually set apart and appropriated as required by that provision after applying the tolls rates duties and charges aforesaid as hereby provided by sub-sections 1 to 12 inclusive of this section.

Further provision as to interest on bonds.

9. The amount of interest to be paid under the provisions of this Act to the respective bondholders on the bonds comprised in Classes A B C and D shall be in full satisfaction of the amounts of interest payable upon the said bonds.

Indorsement to be made on the bonds.

10. Each of the bonds in the Classes A B C and D shall after the passing of this Act be endorsed as follows:—"This bond is subject to the provisions of the Whitehaven Harbour and Dock Act 1887" and the holders of such bonds shall within six months after the passing of this Act transmit or produce to the secretary of the trustees their respective bonds for the purpose of having such indorsement made thereon and no further interest due after the first day of July one thousand eight hundred and eighty-seven shall be paid on any bond until the said indorsement has been made thereon.

Contingent provision as to remedies of bondholders.

11. If in any one year after the expiration of the period of five years from the passing of this Act after providing for the expenditure mentioned in the first and second subsections of section 45 of the Act of 1885 and the interest upon the moneys raised by first mortgages as aforesaid and the sums required to be annually set apart for the purposes of the sinking funds with reference to the moneys so raised the amount of the revenue of the harbour falls below a sum sufficient to pay two pounds per centum per annum if equally divided among all the holders of A B C and D Bonds then the ordinary remedies of the holders of such bonds shall revive and apply for the purpose of recovering the payment of the principal moneys due on such bonds and the interest thereon not exceeding four pounds per centum per annum.

12. Subject to the provisions of this Act the Trustees may (if they shall think fit) yearly or in any year apply so much of the annual receipts for harbour purposes (except borrowed money and other receipts on capital account) not exceeding five per centum of the gross receipts of such year to form or aid in forming a contingency fund for the purposes authorised in that behalf by the Act of 1885 and to be applied accordingly.

Provision as to contingency fund.

13. The Trustees shall at any time after the revenue from the harbour shall be sufficient to provide for the sinking fund required to be set aside by the former Acts or this Act and for the payment of four pounds per centum per annum upon the existing bonds of the Trustees have the option after giving six months' previous notice in writing of their intention so to do to redeem and pay off all or any of the existing bonds according to the respective priorities A B C and D specified under this Act and the provisions of section 15 of the Act of 1871 with respect to the mode of redemption shall apply Provided that except as in this Act expressed no holder of any such bond shall be entitled to call for repayment of the principal money secured by his bond.

Redemption of bonds.

14. The Trustees shall pay off the said sum of twenty-five thousand pounds which they are authorised to borrow under the provisions of this Act or so much thereof as may be so borrowed for harbour purposes by any one or more of the methods including a sinking fund mentioned in the Local Loans Act 1875 with respect to the discharge of loans borrowed in the manner provided by that Act within sixty years from the time or times when the same shall be respectively borrowed and section 15 of the Local Loans Act 1875 shall apply accordingly Provided always that any borrowed moneys applied in paying the costs charges and expenses of this Act shall be paid off within twenty years from the time of borrowing.

Mode of discharge of moneys borrowed.

15. The sixty-seventh section of the Act of 1885 relative to making an annual return by the clerk to the Trustees to the Board of Trade shall apply to this Act as if the same were re-enacted herein with reference to the money to be raised under the powers hereof.

Annual return to Board of Trade with respect to sinking funds.

16. Nothing in this Act contained shall operate to empower the Trustees to borrow any loan from the Public Works Loan Commissioners Provided that if the Public Works Loan Commissioners shall advance any loan to the Trustees under the Harbours and Passing Tolls &c. Act 1861 and the Acts amending the same :

As to borrowing from Public Works Loan Commissioners.

A.D. 1887.

- (1) That loan and the security therefor shall not have priority over any loan previously borrowed under this Act or any of the former Acts for harbour purposes or the security therefor except so far as the creditors consent to such priority under the Public Works Loans Act 1875 or otherwise but shall have priority over any loan subsequently borrowed in pursuance of this Act or any other special Act for harbour purposes and the security therefor; and
- (2) The amount which the Trustees are authorised by this Act or any other special Act to borrow for harbour purposes shall be diminished by the amount of any loan borrowed from the Public Works Loan Commissioners under the Harbours and Passing Tolls &c. Act 1861 and the Acts amending the same.

Commencement of period for sinking funds for harbour purposes.

17. The period for the formation of a sinking fund for the repayment of moneys borrowed under the Acts of 1871 1876 1882 and 1885 for harbour purposes shall notwithstanding anything contained in those Acts or the former Acts or this Act commence and be calculated from the end of seven years from the passing of this Act Provided that the Trustees may form a sinking fund or part of a sinking fund for harbour purposes as aforesaid at an earlier period if they shall think fit.

Reborrowing.

18. If the Trustees pay off any money borrowed under any statutory authority except by means of the sinking funds or by means of instalments or appropriations or annual repayments or by the sale of surplus lands or other moneys received on capital account it shall be lawful for them again to borrow the amount so paid off and so from time to time Provided that all moneys so reborrowed shall be repaid within the period prescribed for the repayment of the moneys in lieu of which such reborrowing has been made and any amounts from time to time reborrowed shall be deemed to form the same loan as the moneys in lieu of which such reborrowing has been made and the obligations of the Trustees with respect to the repayment of such moneys by instalments or appropriations or annual repayments or by means of a sinking fund shall not be in any way affected by such reborrowing.

Provision as to sinking funds.

19. Except as is by this Act otherwise expressly provided nothing in this Act contained shall operate to diminish or vary any obligation to provide sinking funds or otherwise to redeem and pay off the moneys borrowed or authorised to be borrowed or raised by the Trustees under the provision of any statutory authority authorising money to be borrowed for harbour purposes.

Power to refer disputes to arbitration.

20. From and after the passing of this Act any question or matter in dispute existing at the passing of this Act or which may arise within five years thereafter between the Trustees and any bondholder as to the rights or liabilities of the Trustees or any bondholder with reference to the bonds shall be referred to arbitration in the manner hereinafter provided.

A.D. 1887.

21. For the purpose of determining the matters which by this Act may be referred to arbitration an arbitrator shall be appointed by the Lord High Chancellor of England for the time being on the application of the Trustees or of any bondholder or bondholders on behalf of himself or themselves or of any class or classes of bondholders and any arbitrator so appointed shall be and remain a standing arbitrator for the purpose of finally settling such questions or matters in dispute and such arbitrator shall have all the powers of an arbitrator under the Common Law Procedure Act 1854 or any then subsisting statutory modification thereof and his decision upon any question shall be final and binding upon the Trustees and upon all the bondholders. Provided that in the event of any such arbitrator dying or becoming incapable or unwilling to act before making his award the Lord High Chancellor shall upon such application as aforesaid from time to time appoint another arbitrator in his place.

Appoint-
arbitrator.

22. Subject to the provisions of the sections of this Act of which the marginal notes are respectively "power to raise money by first mortgages" and "application of money raised by first mortgages" from and after the passing of this Act no actions suits executions attachments motions rules or other proceedings by bondholders or judgment creditors (except proceedings by arbitration) against the Trustees or affecting the harbour or the harbour undertaking shall be continued or commenced in respect of liabilities contracted or questions which may have arisen prior to the passing of this Act or which may arise during the period of five years after the passing of this Act. Provided always that the Cumberland Union Banking Company Limited may take proceedings on their hereinbefore mentioned judgment debt with interest at the rate aforesaid in case the same is not paid within twelve months after the passing of this Act. Provided also that the necessary proceedings in the Chancery Division of the High Court of Justice may be taken for the discharge of the present receiver of the harbour dues.

litigation.

23. All Trustees executors and administrators corporations and persons having a limited interest holding or being entitled to or interested in any bond judgment security or debenture stock and the guardians and committee respectively of any infants and lunatics respectively who may hold or be entitled to or interested in any bond judgment security or debenture stock may consent to any
