CHAPTER 15.

[27th June 1872.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to protect from injury the Royal parks, gardens, and possessions under the management of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, herein-after called the Commissioners, and to secure the public from molestation and annoyance while enjoying such parks, gardens, and possessions:

And whereas a list of such of the said parks and gardens and possessions as are now under the management of the Commissioners is contained in the second schedule hereto:

Be it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. This Act may be cited for all purposes as "The Parks Regulation Act, 1872."

2. This Act shall apply to all the Royal parks, gardens, and possessions, the management of which is for the time being vested in the Commissioners, and such parks, gardens, and possessions are herein-after included under the term "park."

3. "Park-keeper" shall mean any person who, previously to the passing of this Act, has been or may hereafter be appointed keeper of a park as defined by this Act.

4. If any person does any act in contravention of any regulation contained in the first schedule annexed hereto, he shall, on conviction by a court of summary jurisdiction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds; but the regulations contained in the said schedule shall not take effect until the expiration of one calendar month after the passing of this Act.
A.D. 1872.

5. Any park-keeper in uniform, and any persons whom he may call to his assistance, may take into custody, without a warrant, any offender who in the park where such keeper has jurisdiction, and within the view of such keeper, acts in contravention of any of the said regulations, provided that the name or residence of such offender is unknown to and cannot be ascertained by such park-keeper.

If any such offender, when required by any park-keeper or by any police constable to give his name and address, gives a false name or false address, he shall, on conviction by a court of summary jurisdiction, be liable to a penalty not exceeding five pounds.

6. Where any person is convicted of an assault on any park-keeper when in the execution of his duty, such person shall, on conviction by a court of summary jurisdiction, in the discretion of the court, be liable either to pay a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds, and in default of payment to be imprisoned, with or without hard labour, for a term not exceeding six months, or to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding six months, with or without hard labour.

7. Every park-keeper, in addition to any powers and immunities specially conferred on him by this Act, shall, within the limits of the park of which he is keeper, have all such powers, privileges, and immunities, and be liable to all such duties and responsibilities, as any police constable has within the police district in which such park is situated; and any person so appointed a park-keeper as aforesaid shall obey such lawful commands as he may from time to time receive from the Commissioners in respect of his conduct in the execution of his office.

8. Every police constable belonging to the police force of the district in which any park, garden, or possession to which this Act applies is situate shall have the powers, privileges, and immunities of a park-keeper within such park, garden, or possession.

9. Any rule made in pursuance of the first schedule to this Act shall be forthwith laid before both Houses of Parliament, if Parliament be sitting; or if not, then within three weeks after the beginning of the then next ensuing session of Parliament; and if any such rules shall be disapproved of by either House of Parliament within one month after the same shall have been so laid before Parliament, such rules, or such parts thereof as shall be disapproved of, shall not be enforced.
10. Copies of regulations to be observed in pursuance of this Act by persons using a Royal park to which this Act applies shall be put up in such park in such conspicuous manner as the Commissioners may deem best calculated to give information to the persons using the park.

11. Nothing in this Act shall authorise any interference with any rights of way or any right whatever to which any person or persons may be by law entitled.

12. All powers conferred by this Act shall be deemed to be in addition to and not in derogation of any powers conferred by any other Act of Parliament, and any such powers may be exercised as if this Act had not been passed.

13. Nothing in this Act contained shall be deemed to prejudice or affect any prerogative or right of Her Majesty, or any power, right, or duty of the Commissioners, or any powers or duties of any officers, clerks, or servants, appointed by Her Majesty or by the Commissioners.

14. Nothing in this Act contained shall affect the Metropolitan Streets Act, 1867, or the application thereof to any park to which it is by law applicable.

15. Any offence against this Act may be prosecuted before a court of summary jurisdiction, as follows:

In England, in manner directed by the Act of the session of the eleventh and twelfth years of the reign of Her present Majesty, chapter forty-three, intituled "An Act to facilitate the performance of the duties of justices of the peace out of sessions within England and Wales with respect to summary convictions and orders," and any Act amending the last-mentioned Act.

In Scotland, the court of summary jurisdiction shall include any justice or justices of the peace, sheriff or sheriff substitute, police or other magistrate, proceedings before whom may be regulated by "The Summary Procedure Act, 1864," upon whom all jurisdictions, powers, and authorities necessary for the purposes of this Act are hereby conferred.

All offences under this Act in Scotland shall be prosecuted and all penalties recovered under the provisions of the Summary Procedure Act, 1864, at the instance of the procurator fiscal of the court before which such proceedings are instituted.
A.D. 1872.

17. No person shall wilfully disturb any animal grazing in a park, or otherwise worry or ill-treat any animal in a park, or in the waters thereof.

18. No person shall enter into or remain in any part of a park during any time between sunset and sunrise appointed for closing the same, except for the purpose of passing along a way kept open for the use of the public.

19. For the purposes of this schedule "the rules of the park" shall be deemed to be such rules as may in relation to any matter within the jurisdiction of the ranger (if any) of the park be from time to time made by the ranger, and in relation to any other matter to which these regulations are applicable be from time to time made by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings.

20. Any rules, whether made by the ranger or by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Works and Public Buildings, shall be issued under the common seal of the said Commissioners; and any rules purporting to be the rules of the park may be proved by the production of a copy thereof purporting to be printed by the printers of Her Majesty.
