

Firearms (Amendment) Act 1936

CHAPTER 39

FIREARMS (AMENDMENT) ACT 1936

- 1 Amendments as to firearms certificates
- 2 Application of s.1 of principal Act to Crown, servants
- 3 Entry of places of business on register of firearms dealers
- 4 Further amendments as to registration of firearms dealers
- 5 Appeals from chief officer of police in England
- 6 Miscellaneous offences in connection with firearm certificates, permits and register of firearms dealers
- 7 Amendments as to prohibited weapons and ammunition
- 8 Power to remove prohibition under s.5 of the principal Act
- 9 Provisions as to shortening guns and converting imitation firearms into firearms
- 10 Time for commencing summary proceedings
- 11 Service of notices
- 12 Minor amendments
- 13 Provisions as to Scotland
- 14 Provisions as to Northern Ireland
- 15 Interpretation
- 16 Short title, construction, repeal and commencement

SCHEDULES.

FIRST SCHEDULE — Provisions as to certain Appeals and Applications

- 1 Notice of an appeal or application, signed by the appellant...
- 2 A notice of an appeal shall be given within twenty-one...
- 3 On receiving notice of an appeal or application, the clerk...
- 4 The appellant or applicant may at any time, not less...
- 5 The chief officer of police may appear and be heard...

Status: This is the original version (as it was originally enacted). This item of legislation is currently only available in its original format.

- 6 The court of quarter sessions may from time to time...
- 7 On the hearing of an appeal the court may either...
- 8 On the determination of the appeal or application the court...
- 9 The powers and duties of the court of quarter sessions...

SECOND — Minor Amendments of principal Act
SCHEDULE

THIRD SCHEDULE — Provisions of principal Act repealed