

CHAPTER 20

An Act to empower the National Film Finance Corporation to borrow otherwise than from the Board of Trade.
[30th April 1952.]

BE it enacted by the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

1.—(1) In addition to any sums which they have power to borrow from the Board of Trade by virtue of section four of the Cinematograph Film Production (Special Loans) Act, 1949, as amended by the Cinematograph Film Production (Special Loans) Act, 1950, the National Film Finance Corporation may, with the consent of the Board of Trade and the Treasury, borrow from any other persons such sums as the Corporation may require for performing their functions under the said Act of 1949:

Power of National Film Finance Corporation to borrow otherwise than from Board of Trade.
12, 13 & 14 Geo. 6. c. 20.
14 Geo. 6. c. 18.

Provided that the aggregate amount of the principal outstanding in respect of sums borrowed under this subsection shall not at any time exceed two million pounds.

(2) Any increase attributable to this section in the sums which, under paragraph 8 of the Schedule to the said Act of 1949, are payable out of moneys provided by Parliament, shall be paid out of moneys so provided.

2.—(1) This Act may be cited as the Cinematograph Film Production (Special Loans) Act, 1952.

Short title and citation.

(2) This Act and the Cinematograph Film Production (Special Loans) Acts, 1949 and 1950, may be cited together as the Cinematograph Film Production (Special Loans) Acts, 1949 to 1952.
