1 Simplified transfer of securities. U.K.

- (1) Registered securities to which this section applies may be transferred by means of an instrument under hand in the form set out in Schedule 1 to this Act (in this Act referred to as a stock transfer), executed by the transferor only and specifying (in addition to the particulars of the consideration, of the description and number or amount of the securities, and of the person by whom the transfer is made) the full name and address of the transferee.
- (2) The execution of a stock transfer need not be attested; and where such a transfer has been executed for the purpose of a stock exchange transaction, the particulars of the consideration and of the transferee may either be inserted in that transfer or, as the case may require, supplied by means of separate instruments in the form set out in Schedule 2 to this Act (in this Act referred to as brokers transfers), identifying the stock transfer and specifying the securities to which each such instrument relates and the consideration paid for those securities.
- (3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as affecting the validity of any instrument which would be effective to transfer securities apart from this section; and any instrument purporting to be made in any form which was common or usual before the commencement of this Act, or in any other form authorised or required for that purpose apart from this section, shall be sufficient, whether or not it is completed in accordance with the form, if it complies with the requirements as to execution and contents which apply to a stock transfer.

- (4) This section applies to fully paid up registered securities of any description, being—
- (a) securities issued by any company within the meaning of the ^{F1}Companies Act 1985] except a company limited by guarantee or an unlimited company;
 - (b) securities issued by any body (other than a company within the meaning of the said Act) incorporated in Great Britain by or under any enactment or by Royal Charter except a building society within the meaning of the ^{M1}Building Societies Act [^{F2}1986] or a society registered under [^{F3}the ^{M2}Industrial and Provident Societies Act 1965;]
 - (c) securities issued by the Government of the United Kingdom, except stock or bonds in the [^{F4}the National Savings Stock Register] . . . ^{F5}, and except national savings certificates;
 - (d) securities issued by any local authority;
 - ^{F6}(e) units of an authorised unit trust scheme or a recognised scheme within the meaning of the Financial Services Act 1986].

2 Supplementary provisions as to simplified transfer. U.K.

(1) Section 1 of this Act shall have effect in relation to the transfer of any securities to which that section applies notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any enactment or instrument relating to the transfer of those securities; but nothing in that section affects—

- (a) any right to refuse to register a person as the holder of any securities on any ground other than the form in which those securities purport to be transferred to him: or

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Stock Transfer Act 1963. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) any enactment or rule of law regulating the execution of documents by companies or other bodies corporate, or any articles of association or other instrument regulating the execution of documents by any particular company or body corporate.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this section, any enactment or instrument relating to the transfer of securities to which section 1 of this Act applies shall, with any necessary modifications, apply in relation to an instrument of transfer authorised by that section as it applies in relation to an instrument of transfer to which it applies apart from this subsection; and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provision, the reference in [F7section 184 of the Companies Act 1985] (certification of transfers) to any instrument of transfer shall be construed as including a reference to a brokers transfer.
- (3) In relation to the transfer of securities by means of a stock transfer and a brokers transfer—
- (a) any reference in any enactment or instrument (including in particular [F7section 183(1) and (2) of the Companies Act 1985] . . . F8) to the delivery or lodging of an instrument (or proper instrument) of transfer shall be construed as a reference to the delivery or lodging of the stock transfer and the brokers transfer;
- (b) any such reference to the date on which an instrument of transfer is delivered or lodged shall be construed as a reference to the date by which the later of those transfers to be delivered or lodged has been delivered or lodged; and
- (c) subject to the foregoing provisions of this subsection, the brokers transfer (and not the stock transfer) shall be deemed to be the conveyance or transfer for the purposes of the enactments related to stamp duty.
- (4) Without prejudice to subsection (1) of this section, section 1 of this Act shall have effect, in its application to Scotland, notwithstanding anything to the contrary in any enactment relating to the execution of instruments or the validity of instruments delivered with particulars left blank; but so much of subsection (2) of that section as provides that the execution of a stock transfer need not be attested shall not apply to a transfer executed in accordance with section 18 of the M3Conveyancing (Scotland) Act 1924 on behalf of a person who is blind or unable to write.
