Exceptions

63 Exceptions from prohibition of sale, etc. of intoxicating liquor outside permitted hours.

- (1) Where any intoxicating liquor is supplied in any premises during the permitted hours, section 59 of this Act does not prohibit or restrict—
- (a) during the first [^{F21}twenty minutes] after the end of any period forming part of those hours, the consumption of the liquor on the premises, nor, unless the liquor was supplied or is taken away in an open vessel, the taking of the liquor from the premises;
 - (b) during the first half hour after the end of such a period, the consumption of the liquor on the premises by persons taking meals there, if the liquor was supplied for consumption as an ancillary to their meals.
- (2) Section 59 of this Act does not prohibit or restrict—
- (a) the sale or supply to, or consumption by, any person of intoxicating liquor in any premises where he is residing;
 - (b) the ordering of intoxicating liquor to be consumed off the premises, or the despatch by the vendor of liquor so ordered;
 - (c) the sale of intoxicating liquor to a trader for the purposes of his trade, or to a registered club for the purposes of the club; or
 - (d) the sale or supply of intoxicating liquor to any canteen or mess.
- (3) Section 59 of this Act does not prohibit or restrict as regards licensed premises—
- (a) the taking of intoxicating liquor from the premises by a person residing there; or
 - (b) the supply of intoxicating liquor for consumption on the premises to any private friends of a person residing there who are bona fide entertained by him at his own expense, or the consumption of intoxicating liquor by persons so supplied; or
 - (c) the supply of intoxicating liquor for consumption on the premises to persons employed there for the purposes of the business carried on by the holder of the licence, or the consumption of liquor so supplied, if the liquor is supplied at the expense of their employer or of the person carrying on or in charge of the business on the premises.
- (4) In subsection (2) of this section, as it applies to licensed premises, and in subsection (3) of this section, references to a person residing in the premises shall be construed as including a person not residing there but carrying on or in charge of the business on the premises.

67 Supplementary provisions for Welsh Sunday polls.

- (1) The following provisions of this section shall apply in relation to a poll under section 66 of this Act.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of Schedule 8 to this Act—
 - (a) the poll shall be conducted, and the expenses thereof paid, in all respects as if polls were being held throughout the [^{F33}county or county borough] at an ordinary election of [^{F33}councillors of the county or (as the case may be) county borough]; and
 - (b) all persons having any duties in connection with the conduct of such an election shall have the like duties in connection with the poll.
- (3) When the number of votes cast on either side has been ascertained for the whole of any [^{F34}county or county borough], the [^{F35}chairman of the [^{F34}county council or (as the case may be) county borough council]] shall declare the result of the poll, and shall deliver a certificate of the result, signed by him, to the [^{F35}proper officer of the [^{F34}county council or (as the case may be) county borough council]].
- (4) If the decision on the poll is that subsection (1) of section 66 of this Act shall not apply where it applied before, or shall apply where it did not apply before, the decision shall take effect with the first Sunday not earlier than the fourth day after the date of the poll; and if the decision is that that subsection shall not apply where it applied before, any condition in a licence previously granted for premises in the [^{F36}county or county borough] under which the licence is a six-day licence shall be void (but without prejudice to the right to have such a condition re-inserted on the next or any subsequent application for a licence).
- (5) The following provisions of the [^{F37}Representation of the ^{M1}People Act 1983] shall apply as if the poll were a poll at an ordinary election of [^{F38}councillors of the county or county borough], that is to say—
 - (a) [^{F37}section 60, section 61] except subsections (1) and (4), and in [^{F37}section 65] subsection (1), except paragraph (a), and subsection (5) (which relate to personation, plural voting and other frauds in connection with voting);
 - (b) [^{F37}section 66] (which contains provision for preventing disclosure of the candidate for whom a person votes and generally for securing the secrecy of the ballot);
 - (c) [^{F37}sections 113 to 115] (which make bribery, treating and undue influence corrupt practices);
 - (d) [^{F37}sections 168 to 170 and 173], so far as they relate to offences under any provision mentioned in the foregoing paragraphs prosecuted on indictment or in a magistrates' court;

Extension of permitted hours in licensed premises and clubs

68 Extension of permitted hours in restaurants, etc.

- (1) In any premises to which either of the following paragraphs applies there shall be added to the permitted hours (so far as not otherwise comprised in them) for the purpose and in the part of the premises mentioned in subsection (2) of this section—
 - (a) where this paragraph applies, the period [^{F46}, on [^{F47}Christmas Day,] between the first and second parts of the general licensing hours;]
 - (b) where this paragraph applies, the hour following the general licensing hours; but for other purposes, or in other parts of the premises, the permitted hours shall be the same as if that paragraph did not apply to the premises.
- (2) The addition shall be for the purpose of the sale or supply to persons taking table meals in the premises, and the consumption, of intoxicating liquor which is supplied—
 - (a) in a part of the premises usually set apart for the service of such persons; and
 - (b) for consumption by such a person in that part of the premises as an ancillary to his meal.
- (3) Either or both paragraphs of subsection (1) of this section may be applied, in accordance with section 69 of this Act, to licensed premises or to premises in respect of which a club is registered, if the licensing justices for the district in which the licensed premises are situated are satisfied or, in the case of premises in respect of which a club is registered, the magistrates' court is satisfied, that the premises are structurally adapted and bona fide used, or intended to be used for the purpose of habitually providing, for the accommodation of persons frequenting the premises, substantial refreshment to which the sale and supply of intoxicating liquor is ancillary.

69 Application of paragraph (a) or (b) of s. 68(1).

- (1) Each paragraph of section 68(1) of this Act may be applied by the holder of the licence or, as the case may be, the secretary of the club, as from such day as he may fix by notice to the chief officer of police served not less than fourteen days before that day and, if so applied, shall continue to apply until its application is terminated under subsection (2) of this section or—
 - (a) in the case of licensed premises, the licensing justices cease to be satisfied as mentioned in subsection (3) of the said section 68;
 - (b) in the case of premises in respect of which a club is registered, the magistrates' court declares that it is no longer so satisfied.
- (2) The holder of the licence or, as the case may be, the secretary of the club may terminate the application of either or both of the said paragraphs on 4th April in any year by notice to the chief officer of police served not less than fourteen days before that day.

70 Extended hours in restaurants, etc. providing entertainment.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, where any licensed premises or premises in respect of which a club is registered are structurally adapted and bona fide used, or intended to be used, for the purpose of habitually providing, for the accommodation of persons frequenting them, musical or other entertainment as well as substantial refreshment, and the sale and supply of intoxicating liquor is ancillary to that refreshment and entertainment, then if—
 - (a) paragraph (b) of section 68(1) of this Act applies to the premises, and
 - (b) an order under this section is in force with respect to them, the time added by the said section 68(1) to the permitted hours on weekdays on which the entertainment is provided and the purpose for which the time is added shall, in any part of the premises habitually set apart for the provision of the refreshment and entertainment, be as mentioned in subsection (2) of this section.
- (2) In any such part of the premises the time so added shall, . . . ^{F48}, extend until one o'clock in the morning following, . . . ^{F48}; and the purpose for which it is added shall be—
 - (a) the sale and supply, before the provision of the entertainment or the provision of substantial refreshment has ended, of intoxicating liquor for consumption in any such part of the premises; and
 - (b) the consumption of intoxicating liquor so supplied;
 but this section does not authorise any sale or supply to a person admitted to the premises either after midnight or less than half an hour before the entertainment is due to end, except in accordance with subsection (2) of section 68 of this Act.
- (3) Where in any premises or part of premises the time added to the permitted hours by section 68(1) of this Act is so added for the purpose mentioned in subsection (2) of this section, section 59 of this Act does not restrict the consumption in the premises or part, during the first half hour after the entertainment ends, of intoxicating liquor supplied before it ends.

74 Exemption orders.

- (1) Subject to the following provisions of this section, justices of the peace may—
 - (a) on an application by the holder of a justices' on-licence for premises situated in the immediate neighbourhood of a public market or place where people follow a lawful trade or calling, or
 - (b) on an application by the secretary of a club registered in respect of any premises so situated,make an order (in this Act referred to as a general order of exemption) adding, either generally or for such days as may be specified in the order, such hours as may be so specified to the permitted hours in those premises.
- (2) Justices of the peace shall not make a general order of exemption unless satisfied, after hearing evidence, that it is desirable to do so for the accommodation of any considerable number of persons attending the public market, or following the trade or calling.
- (3) Justices of the peace may revoke or vary a general order of exemption; but, unless it is proved that the holder of the justices' on-licence or, as the case may be, the secretary of the club had notice of the revocation or variation, a person shall not be guilty of an offence under section 59 of this Act in doing anything that would have been lawful had the revocation or variation not been made.
- (4) Justices of the peace may—
 - (a) on an application by the holder of a justices' on-licence for any premises, or
 - (b) on an application by the secretary of a club registered in respect of any premises,make an order (in this Act referred to as a special order of exemption) adding such hours as may be specified in the order to the permitted hours in those premises on such special occasion or occasions as may be so specified.
- (5) Any power conferred by this section to add to the permitted hours in any premises may be exercised in either or both of the following manners, that is to say, by adding to them any hour not comprised in them or by adding to them for all purposes any hour comprised in them for limited purposes by virtue of section 68 or section 70 of this Act.
- (6) In its application to premises in the City of London or the metropolitan police district [^{F56}subsection (4) of] this section shall have effect as if for [^{F57}the reference] to justices of the peace there were substituted—

- (3) Any person who consumes intoxicating liquor in contravention of subsection (1) of this section shall be liable, on a first conviction to a fine not exceeding five pounds, and on a subsequent conviction to a fine not exceeding thirty pounds.
- (4) For the purposes of this section, a party shall be deemed to have been organised for gain if any pecuniary advantage accrued or was intended to accrue to any person concerned in its organisation as a result of the party; and in determining whether any such advantage so accrued or was intended to accrue no account shall be taken of any expenditure incurred in connection with the party; but a party shall not be deemed to have been organised for gain by reason only that any person concerned in its organisation took part or intended to take part in the playing of any game, or made or intended to make bets on any game, if the arrangements were such as to give him no greater chance of winning than any other person.
- (5) For the purposes of this section, a person shall be deemed to have been concerned in the organisation of a party if he took any part in procuring the assembly of the party or in acting as host or assisting the host at the party.
- (6) Nothing in this section shall affect the delivery or supply of intoxicating liquor to, or the consumption of intoxicating liquor by, a person in premises in which he is for the time being residing; and in determining for the purposes of this section whether a party is being held in any premises, or whether any premises are kept or habitually used for the purpose of holding parties, the presence of persons residing in the premises shall be disregarded.
- (7) The reference in subsection (1) of this section to licensed premises shall be construed as including a licensed canteen.

86 Permitted hours in off-sales department of on-licensed premises.

- (1) If licensing justices are of opinion, in the case of any premises for which a justices’ on-licence is to be or has been granted, that a specified part of the premises is structurally adapted for the sale of intoxicating liquor for consumption off the premises, they shall at the request of the person applying for the licence or on an application by the holder insert in the licence a condition that the specified part shall not be used for the sale or supply of intoxicating liquor for consumption on the premises; and while—

- (a) the licence is subject to the condition; and
- (b) the specified part is not connected by any internal communication open to customers with a part of the licensed premises used for the sale or supply of intoxicating liquor for consumption on the premises; the permitted hours in the specified part shall be the same as in premises licensed for sales for consumption off the premises only, whatever the permitted hours in any other part of the licensed premises may be.

- (2) Licensing justices may vary or revoke any such condition either on an application by the holder of the licence or on the renewal or transfer of the licence and at the request of the person applying for the renewal or transfer.

[^{F108}86A International ports.

- (1) At a port where this section is in operation section 59 of this Act shall not apply to licensed premises within an approved wharf.
- (2) The Secretary of State may by order bring this section into operation at any port which appears to him to be one at which there is a substantial amount of international passenger traffic.

[^{F110}87A Power to vary permitted hours in on-licensed vineyard premises.

- (1) Licensing justices, on an application by the holder of a justices' on-licence for any premises which form part of a vineyard, may make an order varying the permitted hours in those premises if, after hearing evidence, they are satisfied—
 - (a) that the sale of intoxicating liquor on the premises is ancillary to the carrying on of a business of producing wine from grapes grown in the vineyard; and
 - (b) that it is desirable to make an order under this section for the accommodation of persons visiting the vineyard.

- (2) An order under this section may vary the permitted hours either generally or for such days or part or parts of the year as the licensing justices think fit.

- (3) In making an order under this section with respect to permitted hours on weekdays, other than Christmas Day or Good Friday, licensing justices may not so vary the hours as to make them exceed in total more than twelve hours on any day.

- (4) In making an order under this section with respect to permitted hours on Sundays [^{F111}, other than Christmas Day, or on] Good Friday, licensing justices may not so vary the hours as to make them—
 - (a) begin before twelve noon; or
 - (b) exceed in total more than [^{F112}nine] and a half hours on any day.

[In making an order under this section with respect to the permitted hours on Christmas ^{F113}(4A) Day, licensing justices may not so vary the hours as to make them—
