

Licensing Act 1964 (repealed)

1964 CHAPTER 26

PART III

PERMITTED HOURS

Special hours certificates

76 Permitted hours where special hours certificate in force.

- (1) This section applies to licensed premises or premises in respect of which a club is registered, or part of any such premises, during the time that—
- there is in force for the premises or part a special hours certificate granted under the following provisions of this Part of this Act; and
 - the section is applied, under subsection (7) of this section, to the premises or part, by the holder of the licence or, as the case may be, the secretary of the club.
- (2) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the permitted hours on weekdays . . .^{F1} in any premises or part of premises to which this section applies shall [^{F2}extend until] two o'clock in the morning following, except that—
- the permitted hours shall end at midnight . . .^{F3} on any day on which music and dancing is not provided after midnight; and
 - on any day that music and dancing end between midnight and two o'clock in the morning, the permitted hours shall end when the music and dancing end [^{F4}; and
- [^{F5}(c) in any premises or part for which a certificate is in force subject to a limitation imposed in pursuance of section 78A or 81A of this Act, the permitted hours on any day to which the limitation relates shall not extend beyond the time specified in the certificate.]]

[^{F6}(2A) In relation to the morning on which summer time begins, subsection (2) of this section shall have effect—

- (a) with the substitution of references to three o'clock in the morning for references to two o'clock in the morning; and
- (b) where the permitted hours in any premises or part of premises extend to a time between one o'clock and two o'clock in the morning by virtue of a limitation in the special hours certificate imposed pursuant to section 78A or 81A of this Act, as if the permitted hours extended to one hour after that specified in the certificate.]
- (3) In relation to premises which are situated in any part of the metropolis outside the City of London which is specified for the purposes of this subsection by an order of the Secretary of State, subsection (2) of this section shall have effect
- [^{F7}(a) except in relation to the morning on which summer time begins,] with the substitution of references to three o'clock in the morning for the references to two o'clock in the morning [^{F8}, and
- (b) in relation to that morning, with the substitution of references to four o'clock in the morning for the references to two o'clock in the morning.]
- (4) Where the permitted hours are fixed by this section, section 63(1) of this Act shall apply to the consumption of liquor on the premises as if in paragraph (a) thereof half an hour were substituted for [^{F9}twenty] minutes and paragraph (b) thereof were omitted.
- (5) ^{F10}
- (6) Where a special hours certificate for any premises or part of premises is limited to particular days in every week, this section does not affect the permitted hours in the premises on days on which the certificate does not apply.
- (7) The holder of the licence or, as the case may be, the secretary of the club, may apply this section, or terminate its application, from such day as he may fix by notice in writing to the chief officer of police served not less than fourteen days before that day.
- [^{F11}(8) In this section, references to summer time are to the period of summer time for the purposes of the ^{M1}Summer Time Act 1972.]

77 Special hours certificates for licensed premises.

If, on an application made to the licensing justices with respect to licensed premises . . .
^{F12} the justices are satisfied—

- (a) that a music and dancing licence is in force for the premises, and
- (b) that the whole or any part of the premises is structurally adapted, and bona fide used, or intended to be used, for the purpose of providing for persons resorting to the premises music and dancing and substantial refreshment to which the sale of intoxicating liquor is ancillary, the licensing justices [^{F13}may] grant [^{F14}, with or without limitations,] a special hours certificate for the premises or, if they are satisfied that part only of the premises is adapted or used or intended to be used as mentioned in paragraph (b) of this section, for that part.

^{F15}77A Provisional grant of special hours certificates by licensing justices

- (1) Where, on an application made by a person interested in any premises of in respect of which a grant or provisional grant of a justices' licence has been made and which are to be, or are in the course of being, constructed, altered or extended, the licensing justices are satisfied—

- (a) that a music and dancing licence is in force for the premises, and
- (b) that the whole or any part of the premises is intended to be used, and, if completed in accordance with plans deposited with the licensing justices, will be structurally adapted, for the purpose of providing for persons resorting to the premises, music and dancing and substantial refreshment to which the sale of intoxicating liquor is ancillary, the licensing justices may make a provisional grant, with or without limitations, of a special hours certificate for the premises or, if they are satisfied that part only of the premises is intended to be used or will be adapted as mentioned in paragraph (b) of this subsection, for that part.

- (2) Where a special hours certificate has been granted under subsection (1) of this section, the licensing justices may, on application by the person who applied for the certificate, consent to any modification of the deposited plans if, in their opinion, the premises to which the certificate relates will, if completed in accordance with the modified plans, be structurally adapted for the purpose mentioned in paragraph (b) of that subsection.

- (3) Where a special hours certificate has been granted under subsection (1) of this section, the licensing justices shall, after such notice has been given as they may require, declare the provisional grant final on being satisfied, in relation to the premises to which the certificate relates—

- (c) that they are, or are part of, licensed premises;
- (d) that they are, or are part of, premises for which a music and dancing licence is in force; and

- (e) that they have been completed in accordance with the deposited plans.
- (4) Until a provisional grant under subsection (1) of this section has been declared final under subsection (3) of this section, the certificate to which the provisional grant relates shall not be valid.
- (5) Where licensing justices—
- (a) refuse to make a provisional grant of a special hours certificate;
 - (b) make a provisional grant of such a certificate with limitations;
 - (c) refuse to declare a provisional grant of such a certificate final; or
 - (d) refuse to give consent, on the application of the person who applied for the certificate, to any modification of the deposited plans,
- they shall specify in writing to the applicant their reasons for doing so.
- (6) In subsection (1) of this section, references to premises for which a music and dancing licence is in force include premises for which a person holds a music and dancing licence which is subject to a condition that it shall be of no effect until confirmed.
- (7) In this section and sections 78ZA and 81B^{F16} of this Act—
- (a) “deposited plans”, in relation to a special hours certificate, means the plans deposited in connection with the application for the certificate; and
 - (b) references to completion in accordance with the deposited plans are, where any modification of those plans has been consented to under subsection (2) of this section or section 78ZA(2) of this Act, to completion in accordance with those plans with that modification.]

M2 1980 c. 43(82)

82 Special hours certificate and extension or exemption orders in respect of same premises.

- (1) Where section 76 of this Act applies to part only of any premises the part to which it applies and the part to which it does not apply shall be treated as separate premises for the purposes of section 68(1)(b) of this Act and for the purpose of general and special orders of exemption.
- (2) Section 68(1)(b) and section 76 of this Act may both be applied to the same premises or part of premises, so that section 68(1)(b) has effect on days on which the permitted hours are not affected by section 76.

83 Supplementary provisions as to special hours certificates.

- (1) In sections 76 to 81 of this Act “music and dancing licence” means a licence granted by the licensing authority under the statutory regulations for music and dancing and authorising the keeping or using of any premises for public dancing, singing, music or other public entertainment.
- (2) References in those sections to providing music and dancing and refreshment shall be construed as references to providing them on every weekday or on particular weekdays in every week, subject to any break for a period or periods not exceeding two weeks in any twelve successive months or on any special occasion or by reason of any emergency; and references in those sections to providing dancing shall be construed as references to providing facilities for dancing that are adequate having regard to the number of persons for whose reception in the premises or part of premises in question provision is made.
