

Museum of London Act 1965

1965 CHAPTER 17

12 Substitution, in certain devises and bequests, of board in place of London Museum and Guildhall Museum.

Any devise or bequest contained in a testamentary disposition executed before the appointed day, being a devise or bequest which comes into effect on or after that day and would, if this Act had not been passed, have operated to vest any interest in the Trustees of the London Museum or, for the purposes of the Guildhall Museum, in the Corporation, shall, in the absence of any contrary intention expressed in that or any other testamentary disposition made by the testator, have effect so as to vest that interest in the Board in place of, as the case may be, those Trustees or the Corporation.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Museum of London Act 1965, Section 12.
