

Sea Fisheries Regulation Act 1966

1966 CHAPTER 38

Miscellaneous and supplemental

17 Expenses, etc. of committees

- (1) The expenses of a local fisheries committee, so far as payable by a county council, shall according as the order constituting the committee provides, be expenses for general county purposes shall be chargeable on such part only of the county as may be directed by the order
- (2) Any expenses which such a committee is required by the Minister to incur in the collection of statistics shall be paid out of moneys provided by Parliament.
- (3) The accounts of a local fisheries committee which by virtue of section 2(1) above is a joint committee of councils shall be made up yearly to the 31st March.