

Mines (Working Facilities And Support) Act 1966

1966 CHAPTER 4

General

8 Compensation.

- (1) Where a right is granted under section 1 of this Act, or any restriction is imposed under section 7 of this Act, the court may determine the amount and nature of compensation or consideration to be paid or given and the persons to whom it is to be paid or given, either at the time when it determines whether the right should be granted or the restrictions imposed or at any subsequent time.
- (2) The compensation or consideration in respect of any right, including a right to enforce restrictions, shall be assessed by the court on the basis of what would be fair and reasonable between a willing grantor and a willing grantee, having regard to the conditions subject to which the right is or is to be granted.
- (3) The court may, if it thinks fit—
 - (a) where the amount of the compensation or consideration has been determined by the court, order the payment into court of the whole or any part of it;
 - (b) pending the determination of the amount of the compensation or consideration, order the payment into court of such sum on account as the court thinks fit.
- (4) Where the person to whom any compensation or consideration is payable cannot be found or ascertained the compensation or consideration shall be paid into court.
- (5) The court may impose as a condition on the grant of any right or the imposition of any restriction that any compensation or consideration payable in respect thereof shall be paid, or that security to the satisfaction of the court for the payment thereof shall be given, before the right is commenced to be exercised, or the restriction is enforced.
- (6) References in this section to payment into court are—

10 Effect of grant of right.

A right granted under this Act shall not confer on the person to whom it is granted any greater or other power than if the right had been granted by a person legally entitled to grant the right, or relieve the grantee from any obligation or liability to which he would have been subject had the right been granted by such a person.

11 Provisions as to tenants for life, etc.

An order under this Act may confer rights on a tenant for life or on any person having the statutory powers of a tenant for life, or any trustee, personal representative, or other person in a fiduciary position, and, where any such rights are so conferred upon any such person, the rights shall be deemed to form part of the property subject to the settlement or the estate of the deceased person or the property subject to the trust, as the case may be.

12 Saving of rights under Railways Clauses Acts, etc.

(1) Nothing in this Act shall prejudicially affect—

- (a) the right under the Railways Clauses Consolidation Act ^{M1}1845, or any Act modifying that Act, including Part II of the Mines (Working Facilities and Support) Act ^{M2}1923, or any other Act, whether public general, or local and private, of any railway or canal company, local authority or other statutory body to acquire minerals for the purposes of support, or
- (b) any rights or interests in minerals which may have been acquired by any such company, authority or body, or
- (c) any right of support from minerals to which any such company, authority or body may be entitled, or
- (d) any right empowering any such company, authority or body to acquire the rights to which they are entitled directly or indirectly under any special Act or
