1967 CHAPTER 10

PART I

FORESTRY AND AFFORESTATION IN GREAT BRITAIN

1 The Forestry Commission.

- (1) The Forestry Commissioners constituted under the Forestry Acts 1919 to 1945 shall continue in existence and are in this Act referred to as “the Commissioners”.
- (2) The Commissioners shall be charged with the general duty of promoting the interests of forestry, the development of afforestation and the production and supply of timber and other forest products [<sup>F1</sup>in Scotland, and in England and Wales] and in that behalf shall have the powers and duties conferred or imposed on them by this Act.
- (3) The Commissioners’ general duty includes that of promoting the establishment and maintenance [<sup>F1</sup>in Scotland, and in England and Wales] of adequate reserves of growing trees.
- [<sup>F2</sup>(3A) In discharging their functions under the Forestry Acts 1967 to 1979 the Commissioners shall, so far as may be consistent with the proper discharge of those functions, endeavour to achieve a reasonable balance between—
  - (a) the development of afforestation, the management of forests and the production and supply of timber, and
  - (b) the conservation and enhancement of natural beauty and the conservation of flora, fauna and geological or physiographical features of special interest.]
  - (4) The Commissioners shall, in exercising their functions under this Act, and also in exercising their powers under the <sup>M1</sup>Plant Health Act 1967 (which enables them to make orders for the control of timber pests and diseases), comply with such directions as may be given to them by
    - [<sup>F3</sup>(a) the Ministers in relation to the exercise of their functions as regards England and Wales; and
    - (b) the Scottish Ministers in relation to the exercise of their functions as regards Scotland.]

Status: Point in time view as at 19/09/2004.

Changes to legislation: Forestry Act 1967 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 02 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (5) Directions given by the Ministers for purposes of the foregoing subsection shall be given by them jointly, except in so far as they make arrangements that this subsection shall not apply.
- [<sup>F4</sup>(6) The power of the Ministers and of the Scottish Ministers to give directions for the purposes of subsection (4) above shall be exercisable as regards Great Britain by the Ministers and the Scottish Ministers acting jointly.]

2 Constitution, administration, etc., of Commission.

- (1) The Commissioners shall consist of a chairman and not more than [<sup>F5</sup>ten] other members appointed by Her Majesty by warrant under the sign manual to be Forestry Commissioners.
- (2) Of the persons for the time being appointed to be Forestry Commissioners—
- at least three shall be persons who have special knowledge and experience of forestry;
  - at least one shall be a person who has scientific attainments and a technical knowledge of forestry; and
  - at least one shall be a person who has special knowledge and experience of the timber trade.
- (3) The Commissioners shall by order appoint committees for England, Scotland and Wales respectively, whose membership shall consist partly of persons who are Forestry Commissioners or officers of the Commissioners and partly of persons not exceeding three in number, who are not Forestry Commissioners or officers of the Commissioners; and the Commissioners may delegate, subject to such restrictions or conditions as they think fit, any of their functions to a committee so appointed.
- (4) Part I of Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect with respect to the Commissioners, their staff, proceedings and other related matters and to the committees appointed under subsection (3) of this section; and Part II of that Schedule shall have effect with respect to the superannuation of Forestry Commissioners and officers employed by the Commissioners.

3 Management of forestry land.

- (1) The Commissioners may manage, plant and otherwise use, for the purpose of the exercise of their functions under this Act, any land [<sup>F6</sup>in Scotland placed at their disposal by the Scottish Ministers under this Act or in England and Wales] placed at their disposal by the Minister under this Act, and—
  - (a) the power of the Commissioners under this subsection to manage and use any land shall, without prejudice to the generality of that power, include power to erect buildings or execute works on the land;
  - (b) any timber produced on land so placed at the Commissioners’ disposal shall belong to the Commissioners.
- (2) The Commissioners may undertake the management or supervision, upon such terms and subject to such conditions as may be agreed upon, or give assistance or advice in relation to the planting or management, of any woods or forests belonging to any person, including woods and forests under the management of the Crown Estate Commissioners or under the control of a government department, or belonging to a local authority.
- (3) The Commissioners may—
  - (a) purchase or otherwise acquire standing timber, and sell or otherwise dispose of any timber belonging to them or, subject to such terms as may be mutually agreed, to a private owner, and generally promote the supply, sale, utilization and conversion of timber;
  - (b) establish and carry on, or aid in the establishment and carrying on, of woodland industries.
- (4) In this section the expression “timber” includes all forest products.

in accordance with the rules or practice of good forestry or for purposes connected therewith; and in this Act—

- (a) “forestry dedication covenant” means a covenant to the said effect entered into with the Commissioners in respect of land in England or Wales without an intention being expressed contrary to the application of section 79 of the <sup>M2</sup>Law of Property Act 1925 (under which covenants relating to land are, unless the contrary is expressed, deemed to be made on behalf of the covenantor, his successors in title and persons deriving title under him or them); and
  - (b) “forestry dedication agreement” means an agreement to the said effect entered into with the Commissioners in respect of land in Scotland by a person who is the proprietor thereof for his own absolute use or is empowered by this section to enter into the agreement.
- (2) Where land in England or Wales is subject to a forestry dedication covenant,—
- (a) the Commissioners shall, as respects the enforcement of the covenant against persons other than the covenantor, have the like rights as if they had at all material times been the absolute owners in possession of ascertained land adjacent to the land subject to the covenant and capable of being benefited by the covenant, and the covenant had been expressed to be for the benefit of that adjacent land; and
  - (b) section 84 of the <sup>M3</sup>Law of Property Act 1925 (which enables the Lands Tribunal to discharge or modify restrictive covenants) shall not apply to the covenant.
- (3) A forestry dedication agreement affecting land in Scotland may be recorded in the General Register of Sasines and, on being so recorded, shall be enforceable at the instance of the Commissioners against any person having an interest in the land and against any person deriving title from him:
Provided that such an agreement shall not be so enforceable against any third party who shall have in bona fide onerously acquired right (whether completed by infestment or not) to his interest in the land prior to the agreement being recorded as aforesaid, or against any person deriving title from such third party.
- (4) Schedule 2 to this Act shall have effect to empower limited owners, trustees and others to enter into forestry dedication covenants or agreements and to provide for matters arising on their doing so.

6 Requirements for haulage facilities.

- (1) The provisions of this section shall have effect where the Commissioners are of opinion that insufficient facilities exist for the haulage of timber from any wood or forest to a road, railway or waterway.
- (2) Subject to the following subsections, the Commissioners may, where they are of the said opinion, make an order that the owner and occupier of any land shall afford the necessary facilities, subject to payment by the person in whose favour the order is made of reasonable rent or wayleave and of compensation for any damage caused by the haulage, and the owner or occupier shall thereupon comply with the order.
- (3) The Commissioners shall not make an order under this section until the person proposed to be required to give the said facilities has had an opportunity of being heard.
- [<sup>F9</sup>(4) a person aggrieved by an order under this section may—
  - (a) where the order is made in respect of land in England and Wales, appeal therefrom to the Minister in such manner and upon such conditions, if any, as may be prescribed by the Minister, who may thereupon revoke or vary the order; and
  - (b) where the order is made in respect of land in Scotland, appeal therefrom to the Scottish Ministers in such manner and upon such conditions, if any, as may be prescribed by the Scottish Ministers, who may thereupon revoke or vary the order.]
- (5) The amount of rent or wayleave and compensation for damage which is payable in consequence of an order made under this section shall, in default of agreement, be assessed as follows that is to say—
  - (a) in a case relating to England and Wales, by a single arbitrator appointed by the President of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors; and
  - (b) in a case relating to Scotland, by an arbiter appointed by the Chairman of the Scottish Committee of the said Institution.

7 Prevention of damage by rabbits, hares and vermin.

- (1) The provision of this section shall have effect where the Commissioners are satisfied that trees or tree plants are being, or are likely to be, damaged by rabbits, hares or vermin owing to the failure of an occupier of land to destroy sufficiently the rabbits, hares or vermin on land in his occupation, or otherwise to take steps for the prevention of damage by them.
- (2) The Commissioners may, where they are so satisfied, authorise in writing any competent person to enter on the land and kill and take the rabbits, hares or vermin thereon; but before doing so they shall first give to the occupier and owner of the land such opportunity as the Commissioners think reasonable of destroying the rabbits, hares or vermin, or of taking steps for the prevention of the damage.
- (3) The Commissioners may recover from the occupier of the land the net cost incurred by them in connection with action taken by them under the foregoing subsection.

A sum recoverable under this subsection shall, in England or Wales, be recoverable summarily as a civil debt.

- (4) Anyone who obstructs a person authorised by the Commissioners in the due exercise of his powers or duties under subsection (2) above shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [<sup>F10</sup>level 2 on the standard scale]; but the person authorised shall, if so required, produce his authority.
- (5) For purposes of this section—
- (a) the person entitled to kill rabbits, hares or vermin on any common land shall be deemed to be the occupier of the land; and
  - (b) the expression “vermin” includes squirrels.

PART II

COMMISSIONERS' POWER TO CONTROL FELLING OF TREES

Restriction of felling

9 Requirement of licence for felling.

- (1) A felling licence granted by the Commissioners shall be required for the felling of growing trees, except in a case where by or under the following provisions of this Part of this Act this subsection is expressed not to apply.
- (2) Subsection (1) above does not apply—
  - (a) to the felling of trees with a diameter not exceeding [<sup>F14</sup>8 centimetres] or, in the case of coppice or underwood, with a diameter not exceeding [<sup>F14</sup>15 centimetres]; or
  - (b) to the felling of fruit trees or trees standing or growing on land comprised in an orchard, garden, churchyard or public open space; or
  - (c) to the topping or lopping of trees or the trimming or laying of hedges.
- (3) Subsection (1) above does not apply to the felling by any person of trees on land in his occupation or occupied by a tenant of his—
  - (a) where the trees have a diameter not exceeding [<sup>F14</sup>10 centimetres] and the felling is carried out in order to improve the growth of other trees; or
  - (b) where the following conditions are satisfied, that is to say—
    - (i) the aggregate cubic content of the trees which are felled by that person without a licence (exclusive of trees to whose felling subsection (1) above does not apply) does not exceed [<sup>F15</sup>5 cubic metres] in any quarter; and
    - (ii) the aggregate cubic content of the trees so felled which are sold by that person whether before or after the felling (exclusive as aforesaid) does not exceed [<sup>F15</sup>2 cubic metres] in any quarter, or such larger quantity as the Commissioners may in a particular case allow.
- (4) Subsection (1) above does not apply to any felling which—
  - (a) is for the prevention of danger or the prevention or abatement of a nuisance;
  - (b) is in compliance with any obligation imposed by or under an Act of Parliament, including this Act;
  - (c) is carried out by, or at the request of, [<sup>F16</sup>an electricity operator, because the tree is or will be in such close proximity to an electric line or electrical plant which is kept installed or is being or is to be installed by the operator as to have the effect mentioned in paragraph 9(1)(a) or (b) of Schedule 4 to the Electricity Act 1989;]
  - (d) is immediately required for the purpose of carrying out development authorised by planning permission granted or deemed to be granted under [<sup>F17</sup>the Town and Country Planning Act 1990] or the enactments replaced by that Act, or under [<sup>F18</sup>the Town and Country Planning (Scotland) Act 1997].
- (5) Regulations made by the Commissioners under this Part of this Act may modify subsections (2) to (4) above as follows, that is to say—

Status: Point in time view as at 19/09/2004.

Changes to legislation: Forestry Act 1967 is up to date with all changes known to be in force on or before 02 April 2024. There are changes that may be brought into force at a future date. Changes that have been made appear in the content and are referenced with annotations. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) they may provide for additional exceptions from the application of subsection (1) above and may in particular substitute—
- (i) in subsection (2)(a), for the reference to [<sup>F14</sup>8 centimetres] a reference to a larger diameter;
  - (ii) in subsection (3)(a), for the reference to [<sup>F14</sup>10 centimetres] a reference to a larger diameter;
  - (iii) in subsection (3)(b) for the reference to [<sup>F14</sup>30 cubic metres] or the reference to [<sup>F14</sup>5.5 cubic metres] in either case a reference to a larger quantity;
- (b) they may substitute in subsection (2)(a) for the reference to [<sup>F14</sup>15 centimetres] a reference to a smaller diameter; and
- (c) they may restrict or suspend the exception in subsection (3)(b) and may in particular substitute, for the reference in sub-paragraph (i) to [<sup>F14</sup>30 cubic metres], or for the reference in sub-paragraph (ii) to [<sup>F14</sup>5.5 cubic metres], in either case a reference to a smaller quantity; and the said subsections shall have effect with any modification made by regulations under this subsection.

- (6) In this section—

[<sup>F19</sup> “ electricity operator ” means a licence holder within the meaning of Part I of the Electricity Act 1989 by whom the powers conferred by paragraph 9 (tree lopping) of Schedule 4 to that Act are exercisable; ]

[<sup>F19</sup> “ electric line ” and “ electric plant ” have the same meanings as in Part I of the Electricity Act 1989; ]

“public open space” means land laid out as a public garden or used (otherwise than in pursuance of section 193 of the <sup>M4</sup>Law of Property Act 1925 or of Part V of the National Parks and Access to the <sup>M5</sup>Countryside Act 1949 [<sup>F20</sup> or Part I of the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000][<sup>F21</sup> or of Part II or section 48 of the <sup>M6</sup>Countryside (Scotland) Act 1967]) for the purpose of public recreation, or land being a disused burial ground;

“quarter” means the period of three months beginning with the 1st January, 1st April, 1st July or 1st October in any year;

and references to the diameter of trees shall be construed as references to the diameter, measured over the bark, at a point [<sup>F14</sup>1.3 metres] above the ground level; . . . <sup>F22</sup>

10 Application for felling licence and decision of Commissioners thereon.

- (1) An application for a felling licence may be made to the Commissioners in the prescribed manner by a person having such an estate or interest in the land on which the trees are growing as enables him, with or without the consent of any other person, to fell the trees.
- (2) Subject to the provisions of this Act (and, in particular, to their duty to take advice under section 37(3), the Commissioners may on any such application grant the licence, or grant it subject to conditions, or refuse it, but shall grant it unconditionally except in a case where it appears to them to be expedient to do otherwise—
  - (a) in the interests of good forestry or agriculture or of the amenities of the district; or
  - (b) for the purpose of complying with their duty of promoting the establishment and maintenance<sup>F23</sup> . . . of adequate reserves of growing trees.
- (3) A felling licence shall continue in force for such period (not being less than one year from the date on which it is granted) as may be specified therein.
- (4) If in the case of any trees the Commissioners refuse an application for a felling licence, the consequences shall be as follows:—
  - (a) except in a case to which section 14(4) below applies, any person who is for the time being the owner of the trees shall be entitled to compensation under and in accordance with the next following section; and
  - (b) if the land on which the trees are growing is, or in the opinion of the Commissioners will be, managed in a manner approved by them, the Commissioners may (subject to section 14(5) below), if they think fit and subject to the approval of the treasury [<sup>F24</sup>as regards land in England and Wales, and the Scottish Ministers as regards land in Scotland], make to persons interested in the land advances by way of loan of such amounts, upon such terms and subject to such conditions, as they may determine.
- (5) At any time after a felling licence has been refused by them in the case of any trees, the Commissioners may, if they think fit, give notice to the owner of the trees that they are prepared to grant a felling licence for the trees either unconditionally or subject to conditions described in the notice; and if the Commissioners give such a notice and an application is duly made to them for a felling licence, they shall grant a licence in accordance with the notice, subject to sections 13(2) and 15 below.
- (6) When the Commissioners refuse to grant a felling licence, they shall give notice in writing to the applicant of the grounds for the refusal.
- (7) Where application is made for a felling licence for trees on land which is subject to a forestry dedication covenant or agreement, and the licence is refused, no breach of the ### 11 Terms of compensation on refusal of licence.

- (1) The compensation to which a person may become entitled under section 10(4)(a) above is for any depreciation in the value of the trees which is attributable to deterioration in the quality of the timber comprised therein in consequence of the refusal of a felling licence for them.
- (2) Compensation under this section shall be recoverable from the Commissioners on a claim made in the prescribed manner.
- (3) Claims for compensation in the case of any trees may be made from time to time in respect of deterioration taking place after the refusal of a felling licence for those trees, but—
  - (a) no such claim shall be made in respect of deterioration taking place more than ten years before the date of the claim; and
  - (b) if the trees have been felled, no such claim shall be made after the expiration of one year from the date of the felling.
- (4) In calculating compensation,—
  - (a) no account shall be taken of deterioration in the quality of the timber which is attributable to neglect of the trees after the refusal of a felling licence for them; and
  - (b) the value of the trees at any time shall be ascertained on the basis of prices current at the date of the claim.
- (5) If after refusing a felling licence the Commissioners under section 10(5) above subsequently give notice to the owner of the trees that they are prepared to grant a licence, then in calculating compensation payable in consequence of the previous refusal no account shall be taken of deterioration occurring after the giving of the notice.
- (6) Any question of disputed compensation shall be determined in accordance with section 31 of this Act.

12 Conditional licences.

- (1) The conditions which may under section 10(2) above be attached to a felling licence are such as the Commissioners, after consultation with the applicant for the licence, determine to be expedient for securing—
  - (a) the restocking or stocking with trees of the land on which the felling is to take place, or of such other land as may be agreed between the Commissioners and the applicant; and
  - (b) the maintenance of those trees in accordance with the rules and practice of good forestry for a period not exceeding ten years.

13 Deferred decision on application.

- (1) Where a person applies for a felling licence and the Commissioners do not within three months after receiving the application, or within such further time as may be agreed with the applicant, give notice to him of their decision on the application (including any reference of the application under section 15 of this Act) the provisions of this Part of this Act shall apply in relation to the application as if it had been refused.
- (2) If on an application for a felling licence—
- (a) the Commissioners determine to grant the licence subject to conditions; and
  - (b) it appears to them that the applicant is not entitled to an interest in land which would enable him to comply with those conditions;

they may give notice in writing to that effect to the applicant and postpone consideration of the application until the person entitled to such an interest is joined as a party thereto.

Where a notice under this subsection is given, subsection (1) above shall apply as if, instead of referring to a period of three months after the Commissioners receive the application, it referred to a period of three months after the date on which the person entitled to such interest in the land as is mentioned in the notice is joined as a party to the application.

14 Tree-felling in accordance with approved working plan etc.

- (1) The following provisions shall apply where application is made to the Commissioners for a felling licence and relates to the felling of trees in accordance with a plan of operations or other working plan approved by the Commissioners under a forestry dedication covenant or agreement, or otherwise approved by them in writing for the purposes of this section.
- (2) The Commissioners shall not refuse the licence unless the Minister [<sup>F26</sup>as regards the felling of trees in England and Wales certifies, and the Scottish Ministers as regards the felling of trees in Scotland certify] that, by reason of an act of God or other emergency which has taken place or arisen since the approval of the plan, the granting of a felling licence in respect of those trees, or in respect of trees of any class which comprises those trees, would be detrimental to the national interest.
- (3) If the Commissioners refuse the licence, the applicant may by notice given to the Commissioners in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed time require them to buy the trees or such of them as may be specified in the notice.
- (4) If a notice is served under the foregoing subsection,—

- (a) no compensation shall be payable under section 11 in respect of any trees to which the notice relates; and
  - (b) the Commissioners shall be deemed to have contracted with the applicant to buy the trees on the date of the service of the notice at such prices as may in default of agreement be determined in accordance with section 31 of this Act, and shall fell and remove the trees at such time or times as they may determine.
- (5) Where such a notice is served, and the land on which the trees are growing is subject to a forestry dedication covenant or agreement, the power of the Commissioners under section 10(4)(b) above to make an advance by way of loan shall not be exercisable in respect of the trees, but this subsection shall not prejudice their power to make an advance in respect of any other trees on the land.

15 Trees subject to preservation order under Planning Acts.

- (1) If an application is made to the Commissioners for a felling licence in respect of trees to which a tree preservation order relates, and consent under the order is required for the felling of those trees, then—
- (a) the Commissioners, if they propose to grant the licence, shall give notice in writing to the authority by whom the order was made; and
  - (b) the Commissioners may in any case refer the application to the said authority.
- (2) Where the Commissioners give the notice required by subsection (1)(a) above and the authority within the prescribed period after receipt of the notice object to the Commissioners' proposal to grant a felling licence and do not withdraw their objection, then—
- (a) the Commissioners shall not deal with the application, but shall refer it to the Minister, and the application shall then be dealt with under the Town and Country Planning Acts; and
  - (b) if in pursuance of the application the Minister consents to the felling, section 9(1) of this Act shall not apply so as to require a felling licence for the felling of any trees in accordance with the consent.
- (3) Where the Commissioners refer an application under subsection (1)(b) above,—
- (a) the application shall be dealt with under the Town and Country Planning Acts; and
  - (b) so long as the tree preservation order applying to the trees remains in force, section 9(1) shall not apply so as to require a felling licence for the felling of any trees to which the application relates.
- (4) Where in the case of any trees—

- (a) that in any such case proceedings under those sections respectively on the request and on the notice are taken concurrently;
  - (b) that proceedings on any such request or notice in respect of any felling directions may be postponed until the expiration of the period within which a notice or a request, as the case may be, might be given or made in respect of those directions.
- (2) Felling directions shall be inoperative until the expiration of the period during which such a request or notice as aforesaid may be made or given in respect of the directions and, where a request is made or a notice is given, until the conclusions of any proceedings under section 20 or 21 pursuant to the notice or request.

Enforcement of licence conditions and felling directions

24 Notice to require compliance with conditions or directions.

- (1) The provisions of this section shall apply if—
- (a) any works required to be carried out in accordance with conditions of a felling licence are not so carried out; or
  - (b) any felling directions given by the Commissioners are not complied with.
- (2) The Commissioners may give to the person responsible a notice requiring such steps as may be specified therein to be taken within such time (not being less than the prescribed period after the notice has become operative) as may be so specified for remedying the default; and for purposes of this subsection, “the person responsible” is—
- (a) in the case of non-compliance with conditions of a felling licence, the owner of the land; and
  - (b) in the case of non-compliance with felling directions, the owner of the trees.
- (3) If after the expiration of the time specified in the notice any steps required by the notice have not been taken, the Commissioners may, subject to the following section, enter on the land and take those steps.
- (4) Without prejudice to the powers of the Commissioners under the foregoing subsection, a person who without reasonable excuse fails to take any steps required by a notice given to him under this section shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [<sup>F46</sup>level 5 on the standard scale]; and proceedings in respect of such an offence may be instituted within six months of the first discovery of the offence by the person taking the proceedings, provided that no proceedings shall be instituted more than two years after the date of the offence.
- (5) A person who is required by a notice under this section to carry out works or take any steps may carry out those works or take the steps notwithstanding any lease, covenant or contract relating to the trees or land affected by the notice.

25 Appeal against notice under s. 24.

- (1) If a person to whom a notice under section 24 is given claims—
  - (a) that the works in question have been carried out in accordance with the conditions of the felling licence or, in the case of felling directions, that they have been complied with; or
  - (b) that the steps required by the notice to be taken are not required by the conditions or directions,he may by a notice served on the Minister [<sup>F47</sup>where the notice is given in respect of land or trees in England and Wales, and the Scottish Ministers where the notice is given in respect of land or trees in Scotland] in the prescribed manner and within the prescribed period after the receipt of the notice under section 24, request the Minister [<sup>F48</sup>or, as the case may be, the Scottish Ministers] to refer the matter to a committee appointed in accordance with section 27 below.
- (2) A notice under section 24 shall be inoperative until the expiration of the prescribed period for the purposes of subsection (1) above and, where a request to the Minister [<sup>F49</sup>or the Scottish Ministers] under that subsection is made, until the conclusion of any proceedings under this section in pursuance of the request.
- (3) Where such a request is made by a person receiving a notice under section 24, the Minister [<sup>F50</sup>or, as the case may be, the Scottish Ministers] shall, unless he is of opinion that the grounds for the request are frivolous, refer the matter accordingly to a committee so appointed.
- (4) The committee to whom a matter is referred under this section, after complying with section 27(3), shall make a report on the reference to the Minister [<sup>F51</sup>or, as the case may be, the Scottish Ministers and he or they] shall, after considering the report, confirm or cancel the notice to which the reference relates.

Supplementary

27 <sup>X1</sup>Committees of reference for purposes of ss. 16, 20, 21 and 25.

- (1) References in sections 16, [<sup>F52</sup>17B,] 20, 21 and 25 of this Act to a committee appointed in accordance with this section are to a committee consisting of—
- (a) a chairman appointed by the Minister [<sup>F53</sup>in relation to cases where the trees are, or the land is, in England and Wales, and the Scottish Ministers in relation to cases where the trees are, or the land is, in Scotland]; and
  - (b) two other members selected by the Minister [<sup>F54</sup>or, as the case may be, the Scottish Ministers] from a panel of persons appointed by him, after such consultation as is provided for below, for the conservancy in which the trees are growing:
- Provided that no Forestry Commissioner or person employed by the Commissioners shall be a member of any such committee.
- (2) The consultation required by subsection (1)(b) above is to be with—
- (a) the regional advisory committee for the said conservancy; and
  - (b) organisations appearing to the Minister [<sup>F54</sup>or, as the case may be, the Scottish Ministers] to represent the interests of owners of woodlands and timber merchants respectively; and
  - (c) organisations concerned with the study and promotion of forestry.
- (3) On any reference being made to them under this Part of this Act a committee appointed in accordance with this section shall—
- (a) afford to the person concerned with the subject-matter of the reference an opportunity of appearing before them and of making representations to them on the matter in question;
  - (b) if they think fit, or are so required by the said person, inspect the trees or land to which the reference relates; and
  - (c) take into consideration any information furnished to them by the Commissioners as to the performance within the conservancy in which the trees are growing of their duty of promoting the establishment and maintenance <sup>F55</sup>. . . of adequate reserves of growing trees.

For purposes of this subsection “the person concerned with the subject-matter of the reference” is the person at whose request the reference was made, except that in the case of a reference by the Minister [<sup>F54</sup>or, as the case may be, the Scottish Ministers] of a notice under section 21 it is the person by whom the notice was given.

28 Identification of trees.

A person authorised by the Commissioners may take such steps, whether by marking or otherwise, as the Commissioners consider necessary for identifying trees which are the subject of a felling licence or felling directions, or in respect of which a felling licence has been refused.

29 Provisions relating to mortgages, heritable securities and settled land.

(1) Where the interest of the owner of trees in England or Wales is for the time being subject to a mortgage—

- (a) a claim for any compensation or sum payable under section 11 or section 26 of this Act in respect of the trees may be made either by the mortgagor or by the mortgagee;
- (b) in either case the compensation or sum shall be paid to the mortgagee or, if more than one, to the first mortgagee, and shall be applied by him as if it were proceeds of the sale of the trees.

(2) Where the interest of the owner of trees in Scotland is for the time being subject to a heritable security,—

- (a) a claim for any compensation or sum payable under section 11 or section 26 of this Act in respect of the trees may be made either by the debtor in the heritable security or by the creditor in the heritable security;
- (b) in either case the compensation or sum shall be paid to the creditor in the heritable security or, if more than one, to the creditor whose heritable security has priority over any other heritable security secured on the land, and shall be applied by him as if it were proceeds of the sale of the trees.

(3) Subject to the foregoing provisions of this section, where the owner of trees comprised in a settlement within the meaning of the <sup>M9</sup>Settled Land Act 1925 is a tenant for life who is impeachable for waste in respect of the trees, any compensation or sum payable under section 11 or section 26 of this Act in respect of the trees shall be paid

30 Service of documents.

- (1) Any document required or authorised to be served under this Part of this Act may be served on a person either by delivering it to him, or by leaving it at his proper address, or by sending it through the post in a registered letter addressed to him at that address or in a letter sent by the recorded delivery service and so addressed.
- (2) Any such document required or authorised to be served upon an incorporated company or body shall be duly served if it is served upon the secretary or clerk of the company or body.
- (3) For the purposes of this section and of [<sup>F58</sup>section 7 of the <sup>M10</sup>Interpretation Act 1978], the proper address of any person upon whom any such document as aforesaid is to be served shall, in the case of the secretary or clerk of an incorporated company or body, be that of the registered or principal office of the company or body, and in any other case be the last known address of the person to be served:
Provided that, where the person to be served has furnished an address for service, his proper address for the said purposes shall be the address furnished.
- (4) If it is not practicable to ascertain the name or address of an owner, lessee or occupier of land on whom any such document as aforesaid is to be served, the document may be served by addressing it to him by the description of “owner”, “lessee” or “occupier” of the land (describing it) to which it relates, and by delivering it to some responsible person on the land or, if there is no such person on the land to whom it may be delivered, by affixing it or a copy of it to some conspicuous part of the land.
- (5) The Commissioners may, for the purpose of enabling them to serve or give any document or direction under this Part of this Act, require the occupier of any land and any person who, either directly or indirectly, receives rent in respect of any land, to state in writing the nature of his interest therein and the name and address of any other person known to him as having an interest therein, whether as a freeholder or owner, mortgagee or creditor in a heritable security, lessee or otherwise; and anyone who, having been required in pursuance of this subsection to give any information, fails to give it, or knowingly makes any mis-statement in respect thereof, shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding [<sup>F59</sup>level 1 on the standard scale].

33 Application of Part II to Crown land.

- (1) In this section “Crown land” means land an interest in which belongs to Her Majesty in right of the Crown or of the Duchy of Lancaster, or to the Duchy of Cornwall, and land an interest in which belongs to a government department or is held in trust for Her Majesty for the purposes of a government department.
- (2) Subject to the following provisions of this section, the provisions of this Part of this Act shall apply in relation to Crown land and trees growing thereon to the extent only of any estate or interest therein which is for the time being held otherwise than on behalf of the Crown.
- (3) Except with the consent of the appropriate authority as defined in this section,—
  - (a) no conditions relating to the restocking or stocking of Crown land shall be imposed on the grant of a felling licence;
  - (b) no felling directions shall be given in respect of trees growing on Crown land.
- (4) The Minister [<sup>F61</sup>and the Scottish Ministers] shall not be authorised to acquire the interest of any person in Crown land by virtue of a notice under section 21 unless an offer has previously been made by that person to dispose of that interest to the appropriate authority on terms that the price payable therefor shall be equal to (and shall be determined in default of agreement in like manner as) the compensation which would be payable in respect of that interest if it were acquired in pursuance of such a notice, and that offer has been refused by that authority.
- (5) In this section “the appropriate authority” in relation to any land means—
  - (a) in the case of land belonging to Her Majesty in right of the Crown, the Crown Estate Commissioners or other government department having the management of the land in question;
  - (b) in the case of land belonging to Her Majesty in right of the Duchy of Lancaster, the Chancellor of the Duchy;
  - (c) in the case of land belonging to the Duchy of Cornwall, such person as the Duke of Cornwall, or the possessor for the time being of the Duchy of Cornwall, appoints; and
  - (d) in the case of land belonging to a government department or held in trust for Her Majesty for the purposes of a government department, that department; and if any question arises as to what authority is the appropriate authority in relation to any land, that question shall be referred to the Treasury, whose decision shall be final.

34 Meaning of “owner” in Part II.

- (1) In this Part of this Act the expression “owner” has the meaning ascribed to it by this section.
- (2) In relation to land in England or Wales, “owner” means the person in whom for the time being is vested the legal estate in fee simple, except that where in relation to all or any of the provisions of this Part of this Act,—
  - (a) all persons appearing to the Minister to be concerned agree, with the approval of the Minister, that some person shall be treated as the owner of land other than the person who would be so treated apart from the agreement; or
  - (b) on an application in that behalf to the Agricultural Land Tribunal established under Part V of the <sup>M14</sup>Agriculture Act 1947 the Tribunal determine, having regard to the respective interests of the persons interested in the land, that some person shall be treated as the owner of the land other than the person who would be so treated apart from the determination, that person shall be so treated, but without prejudice to a subsequent agreement or determination, or to his ceasing to be so treated, if the Minister withdraws his approval under paragraph (a) of this subsection.
- (3) In relation to land in Scotland, “owner” means the person who for the time being is the proprietor of the dominium utile or, in the case of land other than feudal land, is the owner thereof, except that where, in relation to all or any of the provisions of this Part of this Act,—
  - (a) all persons appearing to the [<sup>F62</sup>Scottish Ministers] to be concerned agree, with the approval of the [<sup>F62</sup>Scottish Ministers], that some person shall be treated as the owner of land other than the person who would be so treated apart from the agreement; or
  - (b) on an application in that behalf to the Scottish Land Court the Court determines, having regard to the respective interests of the persons interested in the land, that some person shall be treated as the owner of the land other than the person who would be so treated apart from the determination, that person shall be so treated, but without prejudice to a subsequent agreement or determination, or to his ceasing to be so treated, if [<sup>F63</sup>the Scottish Ministers withdraw their] approval under paragraph (a) of this subsection.
- (4) In relation to trees, “owner” means the owner of the land on which the trees are growing and, in the case of trees which have been felled, means the person who was the owner immediately before the felling.

Acquisition and disposal of land

39 Power of Minister to acquire and dispose of land.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the Minister [<sup>F70</sup>as regards England and Wales, and the Scottish Ministers as regards Scotland] may acquire (by purchase, lease or exchange) land which in his [<sup>F71</sup>or their] opinion is suitable for afforestation or for purposes connected with forestry, together with any other land which must necessarily be acquired therewith, and may place any land acquired by him [<sup>F72</sup>or them] under this section at the disposal of the Commissioners.
- [<sup>F73</sup>(2) Subject to subsection (2A) below, the Minister [<sup>F74</sup>and the Scottish Ministers] may dispose for any purpose of land acquired by him [<sup>F75</sup>or them] under this section.
- (2A) Subsection (2) above shall not apply in relation to land acquired under this section which is in the Forest of Dean; but the Minister may sell any such land if in his opinion it is not needed, or ought not to be used, for the purpose of afforestation or any purpose connected with forestry, and may exchange any such land for other land more suitable for either of the said purposes and may pay or receive money for equality of exchange.]
- (3) The Minister [<sup>F76</sup>and the Scottish Ministers] shall have power, in the case of land acquired by him [<sup>F77</sup>or them] under this section,—
- (a) to manage and use the land for such purposes as he thinks [<sup>F78</sup>or they think] fit (this power to include that of erecting buildings and other works on the land) where it is not for the time being placed at the disposal of the Commissioners under subsection (1) above; and
  - (b) to let the land, or grant any interest or right in or over it.
- (4) .....<sup>F79</sup>
- [<sup>F80</sup>(5) Any instrument in connection with the management or disposal of land in Scotland acquired by the Minister under this section and for the time being placed at the disposal of the Commissioners shall, without prejudice to any other method of execution, be deemed to be validly executed by him if it is executed on his behalf by an officer of the Commissioners authorised by him for the purpose; and any instrument so executed shall, for the purposes of section 1(8) and (9) of the <sup>M16</sup>Reorganisation of Offices (Scotland) Act 1939, be deemed to have been executed by an officer of the Secretary of State duly authorised by him.]
- (6) Schedule 4 to this Act shall have effect as respects the procedure applicable where the Minister acquires [<sup>F81</sup>or the Scottish Ministers acquire] land under this section, except in a case of compulsory purchase in accordance with the following section.

40 Compulsory purchase of land.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, the power of the Minister [<sup>F82</sup>and the Scottish Ministers] to acquire land by purchase under section 39 above includes a power of compulsory purchase.
- (2) The following descriptions of land shall not be subject to compulsory purchase under this Act:—
- (a) land which is the site of an ancient monument or other object of archaeological interest;
  - (b) land which forms part of a park, garden or pleasure ground or which forms part of the home farm attached to, and usually occupied with, a mansion house or is otherwise required for the amenity or convenience of a dwelling-house;
  - (c) land which is the property of a local authority, that is to say,—
    - (i) in England or Wales, the council of a county, . . . <sup>F83</sup>, county district or rural parish, [<sup>F84</sup>the Greater London Council] the Common Council of the City of London or the council of a London borough; and
    - (ii) in Scotland, a [<sup>F85</sup>council constituted under section 2 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994];
  - (d) land which has been acquired for the purpose of their undertaking by statutory undertakers, that is to say persons authorised by an enactment, or by an order or scheme made under an enactment, to construct, work or carry on a railway, canal, inland navigation, dock, harbour, tramway, . . . <sup>F86</sup>, . . . <sup>F87</sup>, [<sup>F88</sup>water] or other public undertaking.
  - [<sup>F89</sup>(e) land held or used by a universal service provider (within the meaning of the Postal Services Act 2000) for any purpose in connection with the provision of a universal postal service (within the meaning of that Act).]
- (3) Land shall not be subject to compulsory purchase under this Act if a forestry dedication covenant or agreement is in force with respect to it and it is being used and managed in accordance with the provisions and conditions of a plan of operations approved by the Commissioners; and—

- (a) any question arising under this subsection whether there has been a breach of any of the provisions and conditions of a plan of operations shall be referred for determination as follows, that is to say—
- (i) in a case relating to England and Wales, by an arbitrator appointed by the President of the Royal Institution of Chartered Surveyors; and
  - (ii) in a case relating to Scotland, by an arbiter appointed by the Chairman of the Scottish Committee of the said Institution; and
- (b) such a breach shall not be treated as having occurred by virtue of any act or omission capable of remedy unless there has been default in remedying it within a reasonable time after notice given by the Commissioners requiring it to be remedied.
- [<sup>F90</sup>(4) The power of compulsory purchase under this Act shall not be exercisable in relation to land held inalienably by the National Trust or by the National Trust for Scotland.]
- (5) The Minister's [<sup>F91</sup>and the Scottish Ministers'] power of compulsory purchase under this Act shall be exercisable by means of a compulsory purchase order, and—
- (a) the order shall be made in accordance with Part I of Schedule 5 to this Act;
  - (b) Part II of that Schedule shall apply with respect to the validity and date of operation of the order; and
  - (c) Part III of that Schedule shall apply with respect to the procedure for acquiring land by compulsory purchase.
- (6) If the said power of compulsory purchase is exercised in relation to land in respect of which an advance by way of grant has been made by the Commissioners—
- (a) under section 4 of this Act; or
  - (b) under section 3(3) of the <sup>M17</sup>Forestry Act 1919 at any time after the 26th March 1945,
- not being in either case an advance made more than thirty years before the date of the service of the notice to treat in the exercise of that power, the amount of the compensation for the compulsory purchase shall be reduced by the amount of the advance with compound interest thereon (calculated from the date of the advance to the date on which the compensation is paid) at the rate of £3 per cent. per annum with yearly rests:
- Provided that, in the case of compensation for the compulsory purchase of one of several interests in such land, the amount of the reduction in the case of each interest purchased shall be equal to a part of the advance and interest proportionate to the value of that interest as compared with the value of the land.

PART IV

GENERAL

46 Commisioners' power to make byelaws.

- (1) Subject to the provisions of this and the next following sections, the Commissioners may make byelaws with respect to any land which is under their management or control and to which the public have, or may be permitted to have, access.
- (2) The Commissioners' byelaws may be such as appear to them to be necessary—
  - (a) for the preservation of any trees or timber on the land, or of any property of the Commissioners; and
  - (b) for prohibiting or regulating any act or thing tending to injury or disfigurement of the land or its amenities; and
  - (c) without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing, for regulating the reasonable use of the land by the public for the purposes of exercise and recreation.
- (3) Byelaws under this section—
  - (a) shall not take away or injuriously affect any estate, interest, right of common or other right of a profitable or beneficial nature in, over or affecting any land, except with the consent of the person entitled thereto;
  - (b) shall not apply to a common which is subject to a scheme or regulation made in pursuance of the Metropolitan Commons Acts 1866 to 1898, or the Inclosure Acts 1845 to 1882, or the <sup>M21</sup>Commons Act 1899.
- (4) Byelaws under this section shall be made by statutory instrument and a draft of a statutory instrument containing any such byelaws [<sup>F108</sup>with respect to land in England and Wales] shall be laid before Parliament.
- <sup>F109</sup>(4A) A draft of any statutory instrument containing byelaws made under this section with respect to land in Scotland shall be laid before the Scottish Parliament.
- (4B) The Statutory Instruments Act 1946 shall apply to any statutory instrument containing byelaws made under this section with respect to land in Scotland as it applies to any statutory instrument made by the Scottish Ministers.]
- (5) If anyone fails to comply with, or acts in contravention of, any byelaw made under this section he shall be guilty of an offence and be liable on summary conviction as follows:—
  - (a) in the case of an offence against byelaws made by the Commissioners with respect to the New Forest, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding [<sup>F110</sup>level 2 on the standard scale],
  - (b) in a case not falling within the foregoing paragraph, he shall be liable to a fine not exceeding [<sup>F110</sup>level 2 on the standard scale]; and

47 Provisions supplementary to s. 46 for New Forest and Forest of Dean.

- (1) Byelaws made by the Commissioners under section 46 with respect to the New Forest or the Forest of Dean shall be without prejudice to any byelaws made under any other Act by the verderers of either Forest, but before making any such byelaws the Commissioners shall consult with the verderers of the Forest concerned.
- <sup>x2</sup>(2) Section 1(3) of the <sup>M22</sup>New Forest Act 1964 (which applies byelaws made by the Commissioners to certain land added under that Act to the Forest) shall have effect with the substitution for the reference to section 2 of the <sup>M23</sup>Forestry Act 1927 of a reference to section 46 of this Act.
- (3) The verderers of either of the said Forests may in their courts inquire into any offence consisting in a failure to comply with, or a contravention of, byelaws made by the Commissioners under section 46, being an offence alleged to have been committed within the Forest, and may punish any such offence so committed.
- (4) As respects their jurisdiction under this section, the verderers' courts shall be deemed to be magistrates' courts, and the provisions of the <sup>M24M25</sup>Magistrates' Courts Act 1952 and 1957, including provisions as to the recovery of fines and as to appeals, and the provisions of any rules made under those Acts, shall apply accordingly.
- (5) The powers conferred by this section on the verderers of the New Forest and the Forest of Dean shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, any other powers exercisable by them, and shall be without prejudice to the power of any other court in relation to offences under section 46.
