

Superannuation (Miscellaneous Provisions) Act 1967

1967 CHAPTER 28

13 Pensions of police cadets.

- (1) Regulations made by the Secretary of State under [^{F1}section 52 of the Police Act 1996] (which relates to regulations for police cadets) may include provision—
- (a) for the application to police cadets appointed under [^{F2}section 28 of that Act], subject to such modifications as may be prescribed by the regulations, of any provisions made by or under any enactment relating to the pensions payable to or in respect of members of police forces; and
 - (b) for any regulations made by virtue of paragraph (a) of this subsection to have effect in relation to any police cadet to the exclusion of any other provision for pension, allowance or gratuity in respect of his service as a police cadet contained in or in force under any other enactment and, for the purpose of a return of any contributions made by the cadet under that other provision, for the cadet to be deemed to have ceased his employment upon the regulations coming into effect in relation to him.

[^{F3}(2) Regulations under subsection (1) of this section may provide for the reduction or withholding of awards under the regulations in cases where awards are provided for in respect of the same matters under any of the enactments relating to . . . ^{F4} social security].
