2 [^{F3}Countryside Functions of Natural Resources Body for Wales].

^{F4}(1)

- (2) The [^{F5}NRBW] shall keep under review all matters relating to—
- (a) the provision and improvement of facilities for the enjoyment of the countryside,
 - (b) the conservation and enhancement of the natural beauty and amenity of the countryside, and
 - (c) the need to secure public access to the countryside for the purposes of open-air recreation, and shall consult with such local planning authorities and other bodies as appear to the [^{F5}NRBW] to have an interest in those matters.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Countryside Act 1968. (See end of Document for details)

- (3) The [F5NRBW] shall encourage, assist, concert or promote the implementation of any proposals with respect to those matters made by any person or body, being proposals which the [F5NRBW] consider to be suitable.
- ^{F6}(4)
- (5) Where it appears to the [F5NRBW] that the provision and improvement of facilities for enjoyment of the countryside or the conservation and enhancement of the natural beauty and amenity of the countryside presents special problems or requires special professional or technical skill, the [F5NRBW] —
- (a) shall notify their opinion to the appropriate local planning authority or other public body, and
 - (b) on the application of any such authority or other body in any case where it appears to the [F5NRBW] expedient having regard to the [F7] purposes mentioned in section 1(1) of this Act, and to the provisions of section 5(1) of the Act of 1949 (general provisions as respects National Parks), shall place the services of officers or servants of the [F5NRBW], or the services of consultants engaged by the [F5NRBW], at the disposal of the authority or other body for such period as may be agreed between them, and on such terms as to payment or otherwise, as may be so agreed with the approval of the Minister.
- (6) The [F5NRBW] shall make to local planning authorities and other public bodies, as respects the exercise of the powers of making byelaws conferred by this Act [F8, the Act of 1949 and Part I of the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000], recommendations as to the matters in respect of which byelaws should be made.
- ^{F9}(7)
- (8) The [F5NRBW] shall provide, or assist in the provision of, publicity and information services relating to the countryside, to places of beauty or interest therein, or to the functions of the [F5NRBW], and shall take such steps as appear to them expedient for securing that suitable methods of publicity are used for the prevention of damage in the countryside and for [F10] informing persons resorting to the countryside of their rights and obligations].
- (9) The ^{F11}... [F5NRBW] shall make to the Minister such recommendations as the ^{F11}... [F5NRBW] think proper in respect of applications by local authorities for [F12] grants under section 16 of the Welsh Development Agency Act 1975] .

7 Power to provide country parks.

- (1) Subject to section 6 above, a local authority shall have power, on any site in the countryside appearing to them suitable or adaptable for the purpose set out in section 6(1) above, to provide a country park, that is to say a park or pleasure ground to be used for that purpose.
- (2) A local authority shall have power to extend, maintain and manage the country park and to do all other things appearing to them desirable for the said purpose in connection with the provision of a country park and in particular—
- (a) to lay out, plant and improve the site, and to erect buildings and carry out works,
- (b) to provide facilities and services for the enjoyment or convenience of the public, including meals and refreshments, parking places for vehicles, shelters and lavatory accommodation,
- (c) to provide facilities and services for open-air recreation:

Provided that a local authority shall not under this section provide accommodation, meals or refreshments except in so far as it appears to them that the facilities therefor within the country park are inadequate or unsatisfactory, either generally or as respects any description of accommodation, meals or refreshments, as the case may be.

- (3) The powers conferred by the foregoing provisions of this section and by the next following section may be exercised by the local authority—
- (a) on land belonging to them, or

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Countryside Act 1968. (See end of Document for details)

- (b) on such terms as may be agreed with the owners and any other persons whose authority is required for the purpose, on other land, and an agreement under paragraph (b) above may provide for the making by the local authority of payments in consideration of the making of the agreement and payments by way of contribution towards expenditure incurred by the persons making the agreement in consequence thereof.
- (4) A local authority shall have power to acquire compulsorily any land required by them for the purpose of their functions under this and the next following section.
- (5) If it appears to a local authority that a park or pleasure ground provided or acquired by the local authority before the coming into force of this section, or otherwise than under or for the purposes of this section, can suitably be used as a country park, that park or pleasure ground shall, from such date as the local authority may determine, be treated for all the purposes of this Act as a country park provided under this section, but—
- (a) this subsection shall not affect any trust, covenant or other restriction to which the park or pleasure ground is subject, and
- (b) no grant shall be payable under this Act in respect of expenditure incurred before the date so determined.
- (6) If it appears to a local authority that land provided or acquired by them before the coming into force of this section, as open country to be used for the purposes of Part V of the Act of 1949, can suitably be used as a country park, that land, or any part of it, shall, from such date as the local authority may determine, be treated for all the purposes of this Act as a country park provided under this section; and, if the land was acquired under section 76 of the Act of 1949 (compulsory acquisition for public access), the land so treated shall cease to be subject to that section, but—
- (a) this subsection shall not affect any trust, covenant or other restriction to which the land is subject; and
- (b) no grant shall be payable under this Act in respect of expenditure incurred before the date so determined.
- (7) A country park provided under this section shall not be subject to any of the following enactments (which relate to parks and pleasure grounds):
- Section 164 of the ^{M1}Public Health Act 1875.
Section 44 of the ^{M2}Public Health Acts Amendment Act 1890.

8 Country parks: sailing, boating, bathing and fishing.

- (1) Without prejudice to the generality of section 7(2) of this Act, where a country park comprises any waterway the kinds of open-air recreation for which the local authority may provide facilities and services under that subsection shall include sailing, boating, bathing and fishing.
- (2) If a country park is bounded by the sea, or by any waterway which is not part of the sea, the local authority providing the country park shall have power to carry out such work and do such other things as may appear to them necessary or expedient for facilitating the use of the waters so adjoining the country park by the public for sailing, boating, bathing and fishing and other forms of recreation.
- (3) The powers conferred by subsections (1) and (2) above include power to erect buildings or carry out works on land adjoining the sea or other waters but outside the country park, and to construct jetties or other works wholly or partly in the sea or other waters.
- (4) The local authority, before acting under the foregoing provisions of this section, shall consult with, and seek the consent [^{F21}of, the National Rivers Authority]^{F22}(if the country park is in England), the NRBW (if the country park is in Wales), and in either case, such] authorities, being authorities which under any enactment have functions relating to the sea or other waters in question, as the Minister may either generally or in any particular case direct, and Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect where any authority so consulted withhold their consent.
- (5) A local authority may make byelaws regulating the use of works carried out by them pursuant to this section and of any facilities or services provided in connection with the works, but before making any such byelaws the local authority shall consult [^{F23}Natural England]^{F24}(if the works are in England) or the [^{F25}NRBW] (if the works are in Wales)]:

Provided that byelaws made under this subsection shall not interfere with the exercise of any functions relating to the waters or land to which the byelaws apply which are exercisable by any authority under any enactment.

[^{F26}Section 106 of the Act of 1949 (supplementary provisions as to byelaws) shall have effect as if byelaws under this subsection were byelaws under that Act.]

- [^{F27}(5A) In the case of byelaws made by a local authority in England, section 106 of the Act of 1949 (supplementary provisions as to byelaws) shall have effect as if byelaws under subsection (5) were byelaws under that Act.

(5B) In the case of byelaws made by a local authority in Wales –

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Countryside Act 1968. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) sections 3 to 19 of the Local Government Byelaws (Wales) Act 2012 apply, and
 - (b) the confirming authority for the purposes of section 7 of that Act is the Welsh Ministers.]
- (6) Nothing in this section shall authorise the carrying out of any operation in contravention of section 34 of the^{M6}Coast Protection Act 1949 (works detrimental to navigation) or section 9 of the^{M7}Harbours Act 1964 (control of harbour development).

National Parks) shall have effect as if the functions of local planning authorities under this subsection were functions conferred by subsection (1) of that section.

^{F31} ...

- (2) The functions conferred by subsection (1) of the said section 12 of the Act of 1949 shall include the making of arrangements for securing the provision in their area (whether by the authority or by other persons)—
- (a) of public sanitary conveniences in proper and convenient situations, and
 - (b) of receptacles for refuse or litter, and services for the regular emptying and cleansing of those receptacles.

- (3) A local planning authority whose area consists of or includes any part of a National Park which is bounded by the sea, or by any waterway which is not part of the sea, may, on land which is in or in the neighbourhood of the National Park, carry out such work and do such other things as may appear to them necessary or expedient for facilitating the use of the waters so adjoining the National Park by the public for sailing, boating, bathing and fishing and other forms of recreation:

Provided that a local planning authority shall not under this subsection provide facilities of any description except in cases where it appears to them that the facilities of that description are inadequate or unsatisfactory.

- (4) The works which a local planning authority may carry out under subsection (3) above include the construction of jetties and other works wholly or partly in the sea or in other waters.

The local planning authority, before acting under this subsection, shall consult with and seek the [^{F32}consent of the Environment Agency if the works are to take place in England, of the NRBW if the works are to take place in Wales, and in either case of such] authorities, being authorities which under any enactment have functions relating to the part of the sea or other waters in question, as the Minister may either generally or in any particular case direct, and Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect where any authority so consulted withhold their consent.

- (5) A local planning authority may make byelaws regulating the use of works carried out by them under subsection (3) above in the waters bounding a National Park and of any facilities or services provided in connection with the works, but before making any such byelaws the local planning authority shall consult [^{F33}Natural England][^{F34}(if the National Park is in England) or the [^{F35}NRBW] (if the National Park is in Wales)]:

Provided that byelaws made under this subsection shall not interfere with the exercise of any functions relating to the waters or land to which the byelaws apply which are exercisable by any authority under any enactment.

[^{F36}Section 106 of the Act of 1949 (supplementary provisions as to byelaws) shall have effect as if byelaws under this subsection were byelaws under that Act.]

- [^{F37}(5A) In the case of byelaws made by a local planning authority in England, section 106 of the Act of 1949 (supplementary provisions as to byelaws) shall have effect as if byelaws under subsection (5) were byelaws under that Act.

- (5B) In the case of byelaws made by a local planning authority in Wales –
- (a) sections 3 to 19 of the Local Government Byelaws (Wales) Act 2012 apply, and

- (b) the confirming authority for the purposes of section 7 of that Act is the Welsh Ministers.]
- (6) The Act of 1949 shall have effect as if subsections (3) and (4) above formed part of section 13(1) of that Act, and section 75 of that Act (which relates to the exercise of powers under the said section 13 as respects land comprised in access orders) shall have effect accordingly, and . . . ^{F38}
- (7) Subsections (2), (3) and (4) of section 13 of the Act of 1949 (carrying out of work on behalf of local planning authority by some other authority) shall apply to any part of the sea bounding a National Park as they apply to a waterway.
- (8) Nothing in the said section 13 as extended by this section shall authorise the carrying out of any operation in contravention of section 34 of the ^{M8}Coast Protection Act 1949 or section 9 of the ^{M9}Harbours Act 1964.

- (a) ensuring the safety of persons resorting to any such lake,
 - (b) regulating all forms of sport or recreation involving the use of boats or vessels,
 - (c) conserving the amenity and natural beauty of any such lake and the surrounding area, and
 - (d) preventing nuisance or damage, and in particular nuisance from excessive noise.
- (3) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this section, byelaws under this section may—
- (a) prescribe rules of navigation and impose speed limits,
 - (b) require the use of effectual silencers on boats or vessels propelled by internal combustion engines, and prescribe rules with a view to imposing limits on the noise or vibration which may be caused by any such boat or vessel,
 - (c) prohibit the use of boats or vessels which are not for the time being registered with the local planning authority in such manner as the byelaws may provide,
 - (d) authorise the making of reasonable charges in respect of the registration of boats or vessels in pursuance of the byelaws,
 - (e) make different provision for different circumstances, and in particular may impose different restrictions in different parts of the lake and at different times or seasons.
- (4) In acting under this section the local planning authority shall have regard to the fulfilment of the objects set out as respects National Parks in [F39]section] 5 of the Act of 1949, and, before making any byelaws, shall consult [F40]Natural England][F41](if the National Park is in England) or the [F42]NRBW] (if the National Park is in Wales)].
- (5) Byelaws under this section shall not be made so as to extinguish any public right of way over any waters, but, except as otherwise expressly provided, any byelaws under this section shall apply to persons exercising any such public right of way as they apply to other persons.
- (6) Byelaws under this section—
- (a) shall be of no effect if and in so far as inconsistent with any rules under the [F43]Merchant Shipping Act 1995] which are in force as respects the water to which the byelaws apply,
 - (b) shall not interfere with any functions relating to the water or land to which the byelaws apply which are exercisable by any authority under any enactment.
- (7) This section shall not apply to any lake owned or [F44]managed by any statutory undertakers].
- (8) [F45]In the case of byelaws made by a local planning authority in England,] section 106 of the Act of 1949 (supplementary provisions as to byelaws) shall have effect as if byelaws under this section were byelaws under that Act.

15 Areas of special scientific interest.

^{F50}(1) This section has effect as respects land ^{F51} . . . which is or forms part of an area which in the opinion of ^{F52}the ^{F53}NRBW] or Scottish Natural Heritage] is of special interest by reason of its flora, fauna, or geological or physiographical features.

(2) Where, for the purpose of conserving those flora, fauna or geological or physiographical features, it appears to the ^{F53}NRBW]^{F54} or (as the case may be) Scottish Natural Heritage] expedient ^{F55} . . . to do so, the ^{F53}NRBW]^{F54} or (as the case may be) Scottish Natural Heritage] may enter into an agreement with the owners, lessees and occupiers of any such land ^{F56}(or of any ^{F57}adjacent ^{F57}other] land]) which imposes restrictions on the exercise of rights over land by the persons who can be bound by the agreement.

(3) Any such agreement—

- (a) may provide for the carrying out on the land of such work and the doing thereon of such other things as may be expedient for the purposes of the agreement,
- (b) may provide for any of the matters mentioned in paragraph (a) above being carried out, or for the cost thereof being defrayed, either by the owners or other persons, or by the ^{F53}NRBW]^{F58} or (as the case may be) Scottish Natural Heritage] , or partly in one way and partly in another, and
- (c) may contain such other provisions as to the making of payments by the ^{F53}NRBW]^{F58} or (as the case may be) Scottish Natural Heritage] as may be specified in the agreement.

(4) Where section 79 of the ^{M10}Law of Property Act 1925 (burden of covenant running with the land) applies to any such restrictions as are mentioned in subsection (2) of this section, the ^{F53}NRBW] shall have the like rights as respects the enforcement of the restrictions as if the ^{F53}NRBW] had at all material times been the absolute owner in possession of ascertained land adjacent to the land in respect of which the restriction is sought to be enforced, and capable of being benefited by the restriction, and the restriction had been expressed to be for the benefit of that adjacent land.

Section 84 of the Law of Property Act 1925 (discharge or modification of restrictive covenants) shall not apply to such a restriction.

(5) Schedule 2 to the ^{M11}Forestry Act 1967 (powers of tenants for life and other limited owners to enter into forestry dedication covenants or agreements) shall apply to any agreement made in pursuance of this section as it applies to such a covenant or agreement.

^{F59}(6) This section shall apply to Scotland subject to the following modifications—

(a) for subsections (4) and (5) substitute—

“(4) An agreement entered into under this section affecting land in Scotland may be recorded in the General Register of Sasines or (as the case may be) registered in the Land Register of Scotland and, on being so recorded or registered, shall be enforceable at the instance of Scottish Natural Heritage against any person having an interest in the land and against any person deriving title from that person:

16 Access to open country: rivers, canals and woodlands.

- (1) The definition of “open country” in section 59(2) of the Act of 1949 shall include, if in the countryside, any woodlands.
- (2) Subject to subsection (6) below, the said definition shall include, if in the countryside—
 - (a) any river or canal, and
 - (b) any expanse of water through which a river, or some part of the flow of a river, runs, and
 - (c) a strip of the adjacent land on both sides of any river or canal, or of any such expanse of water, of reasonable width, and where a highway crosses or comes close to the river, canal or other water, so much of any land connecting the highway with the strip of land as would, if included together with the strip in an access agreement or order, afford access from the highway to some convenient launching place for small boats.
- (3) The strip of adjacent land comprised in any access order shall be wide enough to allow passage on foot along the water and wide enough to allow the public to picnic at convenient places and, where practicable, to embark or disembark, and shall include—
 - (a) the banks, walls or embankments along the water, and
 - (b) any towpath or other way or track beside the water.
- (4) Local planning authorities shall exercise their powers under Part V of the Act of 1949 over any such strip of land with special regard to the interests of persons using small boats who must circumvent obstacles or obstructions on the water by passing round on foot with their boats, and in the interests of persons who wish to obtain access from a highway to convenient launching places for small boats.
- (5) In section 60 of the Act of 1949 (rights of public over land subject to an access agreement or order, other than excepted land) subsection (5)(a) (certain agricultural land to be excepted land) shall not apply to any land within subsection (2)(c) above.
- (6) Subsections (2) and (3) above shall not apply as respects, or as respects land held with,
 - (a) a reservoir owned or managed by statutory undertakers,
 - ^{F71}(b)

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Countryside Act 1968. (See end of Document for details)

- (c) a canal, or part of a canal, owned or managed by ^{F72}Canal & River Trust^{F73} which is for the time being a commercial waterway or a cruising waterway within the meaning of section 104 of the ^{M12}Transport Act 1968.]
- (7) The local planning authority, before making an access agreement or an access order under Part V of the Act of 1949 in respect of land outside a National Park which comprises all or any part of, or of land adjacent to, any river (including any expanse of water through which a river, or some part of the flow of a river runs) or any canal, shall consult with and seek the ^{F74}consent of the Environment Agency if the land is in England, of the NRBW if the land is in Wales, and in either case of such] authorities, being authorities which under any enactment have functions relating to the river or canal in question, as the Minister may either generally or in any particular case direct.
- Schedule 1 to this Act shall have effect where any authority so consulted withhold their consent.
- (8) Subsection (7) above shall apply with the necessary modifications in relation to an access order to be made by the Minister as it applies in relation to an access order to be made by a local planning authority.
- (9) In this section “river” includes a stream and the tidal part of a river or stream.
- (10) The provisions of this section shall not be construed as restricting in any way the definition of “open country” in the said section 59(2) as originally enacted.
- (11) This and the four next following sections shall be construed as one with Part V of the Act of 1949.

- (e) information and display centres,
- (f) shops in connection with any of the aforesaid facilities,
- (g) public conveniences, and the Commissioners shall have power to make such charges as they think fit [^{F80}or to allow another person to make such charges as that other person thinks fit] in connection with any of those facilities.

In this subsection “provide” includes manage, maintain and improve.

[^{F81}(2A) Any arrangements between the Commissioners and another person entered into pursuant to subsection (2) that provide for the sharing of profits shall be subject to Treasury approval.]

- (3) The power of the Minister of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the Secretary of State for Wales under section 39 of the Forestry Act 1967 to acquire land shall include power to acquire land in proximity to land placed by him at the disposal of the Commissioners where it appears to him that the land which it is proposed to acquire is reasonably required by the Commissioners for the provision of such facilities as are mentioned in subsection (2) above.

^{F82}

- (4) The Commissioners’ powers to make byelaws under section 46 of the Forestry Act 1967 shall include power to make byelaws for regulating the reasonable use by the public of the facilities described in subsection (2) above, and in relation to any such matter as is described in section 41(3) of this Act.

^{F83}(5)

[^{F84}(6) All expenses incurred, and all sums received, by the Commissioners in the exercise of their powers under this section shall be defrayed, or as the case may be treated, in accordance with section 41 of the Forestry Act 1967.]

- (b) any land as respects which the local authority have exercised powers conferred by section 9 of this Act, or
- (c) a picnic site provided by the local authority under section 10 of this Act, [^{F123}or
- (d) a trunk road picnic area as respects which functions of the Minister stand delegated to the local authority under section 113(1) of the ^{M15}Highways Act 1980, or are functions of the local authority by virtue of an agreement under section 113(3) of that Act,] make byelaws for the preservation of order, for the prevention of damage to the land or anything thereon or therein, and for securing that persons resorting thereto will so behave themselves as to avoid undue interference with the enjoyment of the land by other persons.

[^{F124}(1A) The power of a local authority under sub-section (1)(d) above is exercisable only in so far as any conditions attached to the relevant delegation or, as the case may be, included in the relevant agreement do not otherwise provide.]

[^{F125}(2) Natural England and the [^{F126}NRBW] may make byelaws for the preservation of order and other purposes mentioned in subsection (1)—

- (a) in the case of Natural England, as respects land—
 - (i) to which the public have rights of access under a management agreement under section 7 of the Natural Environment and Rural Communities Act 2006, or
 - (ii) held by them for the purposes of an experimental scheme under section 8 of that Act, and
- (b) in the case of the [^{F126}NRBW], as respects land—
 - (i) held by them for the purposes of [^{F127}an experimental scheme under article 10C of the Natural Resources Body for Wales (Establishment) Order 2012 (S.I. 2012/1903), where the scheme is designed to facilitate the enjoyment of the countryside, or to conserve or enhance its natural beauty or amenity], or
 - (ii) to which the public have access under an agreement under [^{F128}section 16 of the Environment (Wales) Act 2016 that is designed to facilitate the enjoyment of the countryside, or to conserve or enhance its natural beauty or amenity].]

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions of this section, byelaws under those provisions—

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Countryside Act 1968. (See end of Document for details)

- (a) may prohibit or restrict the use of the land or of any waterway comprised therein, either generally or in any manner specified in the byelaws, by traffic of any description so specified,
- (b) may contain provisions prohibiting the depositing of rubbish and the leaving of litter,
- (c) may regulate or prohibit the lighting of fires,
- (d) may regulate sailing, boating, bathing and fishing and other forms of recreation on waterways,
- (e) may prohibit the use of any waterway comprised in a country park by boats which are not for the time being registered with the local authority in such manner as the byelaws may provide,
- (f) may be made so as to relate either to the whole or to any part of the land or of any waterway comprised therein, and may make different provisions for different parts thereof, and the byelaws may authorise the making of reasonable charges in respect of the registration of boats in pursuance of the byelaws.

- (4) Byelaws made under this section shall not interfere with the exercise of any public right of way or of any functions relating to the land or waterway to which the byelaws apply which are exercisable by any authority under any enactment [^{F129}or with [^{F130}the provision of an electronic communications code network] or the exercise of any right conferred by or in accordance with [^{F131}the electronic communications code] on the operator of any [^{F132}such network]].
- (5) Before a local authority make byelaws under the foregoing provisions of this section as respects a National Park or area of outstanding natural beauty, the local authority shall consult [^{F133}Natural England][^{F134}as respects a park or area in England) or the [^{F126}NRBW] (as respects a park or area in Wales)].
- (6) A county council or county district council shall have power to enforce byelaws made under this section by another authority as respects land in the area of the council.
- (7) [^{F135}In the case of byelaws made by a local planning authority in England, or by Natural England,] section 106 of the Act of 1949 (supplementary provisions as to byelaws) shall have effect as if byelaws under this section were byelaws under that Act.
- [^{F136}(7A) In the case of byelaws made by a local planning authority in Wales, or by the [^{F137}NRBW] –
 - (a) sections 3 to 19 of the Local Government Byelaws (Wales) Act 2012 apply, and
 - (b) the confirming authority for the purposes of section 7 of that Act is the Welsh Ministers.]
- (8) Subsections (1) and (2), and subject to the next following subsection subsection (4), of section 92 of the Act of 1949 (appointment of wardens for land for which byelaws may be made under section 90 of that Act) shall have effect as if the power of making byelaws conferred by this section was contained in the said section 90, and as if [^{F138}Natural England][^{F139}and the [^{F126}NRBW] were local authorities].
- (9) For the purposes of exercising any function conferred on him by the said section 92 as applied by subsection (8) above a warden appointed under that section may enter upon any land, or go on any waterway, as respects which byelaws under this section are in force, although the land or waterway does not belong to the local authority , [^{F140}Natural England][^{F141} or the [^{F126}NRBW]].

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Countryside Act 1968. (See end of Document for details)

- (10) Sections 90, 91 and 92 of the Act of 1949 shall have effect as if any path which is a means of access to land to which the public are given access by an agreement or order, or in consequence of acquisition, under Part V of the Act of 1949 was included in that land.
- (11) In subsection (10) above “path” means a public path, or a ^[F142]restricted byway] (as those expressions are defined in section 27(6) of the Act of 1949 ^[F143]and section 48(4) of the Countryside and Rights of Way Act 2000]) or any other path, not being a highway at the side of a public road, which the public have the right to use, or are permitted to use, as a means of access to land to which the public are given access under Part V of the Act of 1949.
- (12) Byelaws made under section 90(3) of the Act of 1949 shall not interfere with the exercise of any public right of way or with any authority having under any enactment functions relating to the land or waterway to which the byelaws apply ^[F144]or with ^[F145]the provision of an electronic communications code network] or the exercise of any right conferred by or in accordance with ^[F146]the electronic communications code] on the operator of any ^[F147]such network]].
