

Race Relations Act 1968

1968 CHAPTER 71

PART I

DISCRIMINATION

Acts which are not unlawful

9 Charities and acts done for charitable purposes.

(1) Nothing in this Part of this Act shall—

- (a) be construed as affecting a provision which is contained in a future charitable instrument and confers benefits on persons of a particular race, particular descent or particular ethnic or national origins ; or
- (b) render unlawful an act which is done in order to comply with any such provision or with the provisions of any existing charitable instrument of any description.

(2) In this section " charitable instrument " means an enactment passed or instrument made for purposes which are exclusively charitable according to the law of England and Wales and " future instrument " and " existing instrument " mean respectively an instrument taking effect after, and an instrument taking effect, before the commencement of this Act.
