SCHEDULES

SCHEDULE 10

TRANSITIONAL PROVISIONS AND SAVINGS.

Buildings of architectural or historic interest

- 18 (1) Where, before the commencement of Part V of this Act, consent under a building preservation order has been given, either by the local planning authority or by the Minister on appeal, for the execution of any works, the consent shall operate in respect of those works as listed building consent, subject to the same conditions (if any) as were attached to the consent under the building preservation order.
- (2) In the case of demolition works for which consent has been given under a building preservation order compliance with section 40(4)(b) of this Act shall not be required.
- 19 Where, before the commencement of Part V of this Act an application has been made for consent under a building preservation order for any works, any proceedings pending at the commencement of Part V of this Act and arising out of the application (including any appeal) may be continued and disposed of under and in accordance with title provisions of Part V of this Act corresponding to provisions of the building preservation order as to the making of applications, the decision of the local planning authority thereon and appeals to the Minister against the said decision.
- 20 The repeal by this Act of section 30 of the principal Act shall not prevent a council from taking such proceedings as could have been taken to enforce any building preservation order made under that section and for securing the restoration of a building to its former state as could have been taken but for the repeal; and in relation to any such proceedings the provisions of the order and of any provisions of the principal Act incorporated therein, shall continue to have the same effect as if this Act had not been passed.
