

Tattooing Of Minors Act 1969

1969 CHAPTER 24

1 Prohibition of tattooing of minors.

It shall be an offence to tattoo a person under the age of eighteen except when the tattoo is performed for medical reasons by a duly qualified medical practitioner or by a person working under his direction, but it shall be a defence for a person charged to show that at the time the tattoo was performed he had reasonable cause to believe that the person tattooed was of or over the age of eighteen and did in fact so believe.

Changes to legislation:

There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Tattooing Of Minors Act 1969, Section 1.
