

Late Night Refreshment Houses Act 1969

1969 CHAPTER 53

An Act to consolidate certain enactments relating to refreshment houses within the meaning of the Refreshment Houses Act 1860, with corrections and improvements made under the Consolidation of Enactments (Procedure) Act 1949. [22nd October 1969]

Modifications etc. (not altering text)

- C1 By London Local Authorities Act 1990 \(c. vii\), s. 20 it is provided that this Act shall cease to have effect in a borough to which s. 20 of that 1990 Act applies on the day which the council of that borough resolves to be the appointed day for the purposes of Part II of that 1990 Act

1 Meaning of “late night refreshment house”.

[^{F1}(1)] For the purposes of this Act, a “late night refreshment house” is a house, room, shop or building kept open for public refreshment, resort and entertainment at any time between the hours of 10 o’clock at night and 5 o’clock of the following morning, other than a house, room, shop or building which is licensed for the sale of beer, cider, wine or spirits.

[^{F1}(2)] In subsection (1) above “exempt licensed premises” means a house, room, shop or building which—

- (i) is licensed for the sale of beer, cider, wine or spirits; and
- (ii) is not kept open for public refreshment, resort and entertainment at any time between normal evening closing time and 5 o’clock of the following morning.

(3) In subsection (2) above “normal evening closing time” means—

- (a) in relation to premises with permitted hours in the evening, a time thirty minutes after the end of those hours; and
- (b) in relation to premises without permitted hours in the evening, 10 o’clock at night;

and in this subsection “permitted hours” means the hours specified in section 60 of the Licensing Act ^{M1}1964 as modified by any other provision of that Act.]

Status: Point in time view as at 01/04/2001.

Changes to legislation: There are currently no known outstanding effects for the Late Night Refreshment Houses Act 1969 (repealed). (See end of Document for details) drink, for admission, for service of any description or for any other matter, except any reasonable charge for the use of cloakroom or toilet facilities, unless—

- (a) a tariff of charges made in the refreshment house is during those hours kept displayed in such position and in such manner that it can be conveniently read by persons frequenting the refreshment house and, if so required by subsection (4) of this section, can be so read by any such person before entering; and
 - (b) the charge is specified for the matter in question in the tariff or is less than a charge so specified.
- (2) Where this subsection applies to a late night refreshment house it shall not be lawful to seek to obtain custom for the refreshment house by means of personal solicitation outside or in the vicinity of the refreshment house.
 - (3) Subsection (1) or (2) above, or both, shall apply to a late night refreshment house if, but only if, the licensing authority have made that a condition of the grant or renewal of a licence for the refreshment house, and have not revoked the condition; and a licensing authority may impose such a condition in any case where it appears to them desirable in order to ensure that persons frequenting the refreshment house are not misled as to the nature or cost of the entertainment provided.
 - (4) Where subsection (1) applies, the tariff of charges must be able to be read before entering by any person frequenting the refreshment house, if it is so stated by the condition applying the subsection, and on any renewal of the licence the condition may be varied so as to include or omit any such statement.
 - (5) In the event of a contravention of subsection (1) or (2) of this section the keeper of the refreshment house and any person responsible for the contravention (other than a person who did not know of the condition applying the subsection) shall be guilty of an offence; and where a person is charged with such an offence, it shall be for him to show that he did not know of the condition.
 - (6) In this section “the hours of late opening” means any period between the hours of 10 o’clock at night and 5 o’clock on the following morning during which the refreshment house is open.

9 Illegal and disorderly conduct.

- (1) If the licensee of a late night refreshment house knowingly permits unlawful gaming therein or knowingly permits prostitutes, thieves, or drunken and disorderly persons to assemble at, or continue in or upon, his premises, he shall be guilty of an offence.
- (2) In subsection (1) of this section the reference to unlawful gaming is to the playing of any game in such circumstances that an offence is committed under Part II of the ^{M3}Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963.
- (3) As from the date on which there comes into force so much of section 53 of, and Part I of Schedule 11 to, the ^{M4}Gaming Act 1968 as amends section 40 of the ^{M5}Betting, Gaming and Lotteries Act 1963, subsection (2) of this section shall have effect as if for the reference to Part II of the said Act of 1963 there were substituted a reference to the said Act of 1968.
- (4) If a person who is drunk, riotous, quarrelsome or disorderly in a late night refreshment house licensed under this Act refuses or neglects to leave it on being requested to do

10 Power of constable to enter and keep order.

- (1) A constable may, at any time when he thinks fit, enter a late night refreshment house licensed under this Act and go upon any premises belonging thereto; and the licensee or any other person being his employee or acting by his direction shall be guilty of an offence if he fails or refuses to admit a constable demanding admittance under this subsection.
- (2) Every constable is hereby authorised and required, on the demand of the manager or occupier of a late night refreshment house licensed under this Act, or of any servant or agent of the manager or occupier, to assist in expelling from the refreshment house drunken, riotous, quarrelsome and disorderly persons.

11 Punishment of offences.

- (1) A person guilty of an offence under section 2(3), 7(2), 8(5), 9(1) or 10(1) of this Act shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than [^{F10}level 4 on the standard scale] or to imprisonment for a term of not more than three months, or both.
- (2) A person guilty of an offence under section 6(3) of this Act shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than [^{F10}level 1 on the standard scale].
- (3) A person guilty of an offence under section 9(4) of this Act shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of not more than [^{F10}level 1 on the standard scale].
- (4) On a person's conviction in relation to any premises of any of the following offences, that is to say—
 - (a) an offence under section 2(3), 7(2), 8(5), 9(1) or 10(1) of this Act;
 - (b) an offence under section 160 of the ^{M6}Licensing Act 1964 (sale of intoxicating liquor without licence) committed by the keeper of a late night refreshment house; or
 - (c) an offence under section 84(2) of that Act (supply or consumption of intoxicating liquor at parties organised for gain) committed by the keeper of a late night refreshment house in connection with parties at the refreshment house, the court by or before which he is convicted may make a disqualification order, and sections 100(2) and 101 of the ^{M7}Licensing Act 1964 shall apply to a disqualification order under this subsection as they apply to a disqualification order under section 100 of that Act.
